- (d) Not applicable.
- (e) On February 24, 2016, the compensation committee (the "Compensation Committee") of the board of directors of Boise Cascade Company (the "Company") approved the payment of a $48,288 discretionary cash bonus for Daniel Hutchinson, the Company's Executive Vice President, Wood Products, in connection with the performance of the Company's Wood Products segment for the year 2015.

In February 2015, the Committee approved segment EBITDA targets for the payment of 2015 short-term incentive compensation to the Company's named executive officers, including Mr. Hutchinson. For 2015, EBITDA for the Wood Products segment fell short by approximately $1 million from the minimum target of $110 million approved by the Committee for payout, due to a large drop in the commodity prices of plywood and lumber and strategic curtailments of the Company's manufacturing facilities to balance orders and supply. If the amount reserved for a minimum payout was eliminated, the minimum EBITDA target of $110 million was achieved. The Committee determined that under these unusual circumstances, not paying the award was not in the best interest of shareholders because the strategic curtailments were advisable to manage production. The Committee determined that without the curtailments, Wood Products would likely have met the minimum EBITDA target. Consequently, the Compensation Committee chose to award Mr. Hutchinson the discretionary bonus described above.
