2009 Outlook

The company currently expects 2009 revenue to be in the range of RMB 5,668 million ($830 million), to RMB 6,500 million ($952 million). JA Solar's target for total production for 2009 output is 500 MW to 550 MW. The nameplate production capacity by year-end 2009 is expected to be 875 MW.

Currency Convenience Translation

The conversion of Renminbi into U.S. dollars in this release, made solely for the convenience of the reader, is based on the noon buying rate in The City of New York for cable transfers of Renminbi as certified for customs purposes by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York as of Dec. 31, 2008, which was RMB 6.8225 to $1.00. No representation is intended to imply that the Renminbi amounts could have been, or could be, converted, realized or settled into U.S. dollars at that rate on Dec. 31, 2008, or at any other date. The percentages stated in this press release are calculated based on Renminbi.

About Non-GAAP Financial Measures

To supplement its consolidated financial results presented in accordance with GAAP, JA Solar uses the following non-GAAP measures which are adjusted from the most directly comparable GAAP results to exclude items related to share-based compensation, change in fair value of the derivatives, impairment loss on available-for-sale securities and gain on buyback of convertible bond. JA Solar believes that non-GAAP information is useful for analysts and investors to evaluate JA Solar's future on-going performance because they enable a more meaningful comparison of JA Solar's projected cash earnings and performance with its peers and historical results from prior periods. The non-GAAP financial results should be reviewed together with the GAAP results and are not intended to serve as a substitute for results under GAAP, and may be different from non-GAAP measures used by other companies. For more information on this non-GAAP financial measure, please see the tables captioned "Reconciliation of GAAP and non-GAAP Results" set forth at the end of this release, which should be read together with the preceding financial statements prepared under GAAP.
