Board of Trustees of BlackRock Municipal Income Investment Trust Rejects Demands

New York, May 20, 2011 – BlackRock Advisors, LLC today announced that the Board of Trustees (the “Board”) of BlackRock Municipal Income Investment Trust (NYSE:BBF, the “Fund”) has determined to reject the demands contained in the demand letter received by the Fund related to the redemption of its auction rate preferred shares (“ARPS”).

As previously announced on March 29, 2011, the Fund received a demand letter from a law firm on behalf of purported common shareholders of the Fund. This demand letter alleged that BlackRock Advisors, LLC (the Fund’s investment adviser) and the Fund’s officers and the Board breached their fiduciary duties by redeeming at par certain of the Fund’s ARPS, and demanded that the Board take action to remedy those alleged breaches.

In response to the demand letter, the Board’s Demand Review Committee (the “Committee”) reviewed the letter with the assistance of independent counsel. Based upon its review, the Committee recommended that the Board reject the demands specified in the demand letter. After reviewing the findings of the Committee, the Board of the Fund unanimously adopted the Committee’s recommendation and unanimously voted to reject the demands.

Forward-Looking Statements

This press release, and other statements that BlackRock may make, may contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act, with respect to BlackRock’s future financial or business performance, strategies or expectations. Forward-looking statements are typically identified by words or phrases such as “trend,” “potential,” “opportunity,” “pipeline,” “believe,” “comfortable,” “expect,” “anticipate,” “current,” “intention,” “estimate,” “assume,” “outlook,” “continue,” “remain,” “maintain,” “sustain,” “seek,” “achieve,” and similar expressions, or future or conditional verbs such as “will,” “would,” “should,” “could,” “may” or similar expressions.

BlackRock cautions that forward-looking statements are subject to numerous assumptions, risks and uncertainties, which change over time. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made, and BlackRock assumes no duty to and does not undertake to update forward-looking statements. Actual results could differ materially from those anticipated in forward-looking statements and future results could differ materially from historical performance.

With respect to the Fund, the following factors, among others, could cause actual events to differ materially from forward-looking statements or historical performance: (1) changes and volatility in political, economic or industry conditions, the interest rate environment, foreign exchange rates or financial and capital markets, which could result in changes in demand for the Fund or in the Fund's net asset value; (2) the relative and absolute investment performance of the Fund and its investments; (3) the impact of increased competition; (4) the unfavorable resolution of any legal proceedings; (5) the extent and timing of any distributions or share repurchases; (6) the impact, extent and timing of technological changes; (7) the impact of legislative and regulatory actions and reforms, including the recently approved Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act, and regulatory, supervisory or enforcement actions of government agencies relating to the Fund or BlackRock, as applicable; (8) terrorist activities, international hostilities and natural disasters, which may adversely affect the general economy, domestic and local financial and capital markets, specific industries or BlackRock; (9) BlackRock's ability to attract and retain highly talented professionals; (10) BlackRock's success in maintaining secondary market support for the Fund; (11) the impact of BlackRock electing to provide support to its products from time to time; (12) the impact of problems at other financial institutions or the failure or negative performance of products at other financial institutions; and (13) the ability of BlackRock to integrate the operations of Barclays Global Investors.
