Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Registrant Innophos, Inc. entered into a Binding Memorandum of Agreement, or MOA, dated as of January 30, 2009, with

Colgate Palmolive Company, or Colgate, which, among other things, provides for extension of the term of (i) a Supply Agreement, dated as of June 18, 1998, by and among Colgate , Inmobiliaria Hills, S.A. de C.V. and Rhone-Poulenc de Mexico, S.A. de C.V., or RP-Mexico, (which agreement was assigned from R-P Mexico to Registrant and its affiliates in connection with its acquisition of its business as of August 13, 2004) and (ii) an Operations Agreement, dated as of June 18, 1998, by and among Mission Hills, S.A. de C.V., Inmobiliaria Hills, S.A. de C.V. and RP-Mexico, and the attached real estate lease (which agreement was similarly assigned to Registrant and its affiliates). The two noted agreements were filed previously by Registrant Innophos, Inc., most recently as Exhibits 10.9 and 10.10, respectively, to its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2007. Under the MOA, the terms of these agreements have been set to expire on May 31, 2013 and will automatically renew through May 31, 2016 unless canceled by either party in writing no later than May 31, 2012, and will again automatically renew through May 31, 2018 unless canceled by either party in writing no later than May 31, 2015. The MOA also provides for newly negotiated volumes, prices, terms of sale and other conditions according to which the Registrant⊡s affiliates are to operate the Mission Hills plant and to produce and sell a range of Di-Calcium Phosphate products to Colgate and its affiliates under definitive agreements contemplated by the MOA to be entered into among the parties.

A copy of the MOA (in redacted form subject to a confidential treatment request filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission) is filed as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

Item 8.01 Other Items.

Registrant Innophos, Inc. previously reported obtaining favorable appellate rulings in the New York state courts confirming full indemnity from affiliates of Rhodia S.A., or Rhodia, for water charges sought to be imposed by the Mexican National

Waters Commission, or CNA, on Innophos S Coatzacoalcos, Veracruz, Mexico facility for periods prior to the August 13, 2004 acquisition date of that facility from Rhodia. The CNA claims currently pending (totaling approximately $23 million at current exchange rates) cover the period 1998-2002 and are being defended in Mexican appeals courts. Following the New York appellate rulings, the Registrant returned to the New York trial court to pursue remaining claims, including indemnity for related losses and damages for breaches of covenants, representations and warranties, including liability for increased water charges incurred following the acquisition. These contingent liabilities, if

by CNA on the same basis as the pending claims by that agency, would total approximately $9 million at current exchange rates. Rhodia filed a motion for partial summary judgment asserting that those claims were precluded under the acquisition agreement. On February 3, 2009, the trial court judge denied Rhodia s motion, allowing the Registrant's case to continue. There has been no schedule established for discovery or trial of at this time.
