Item 1.01.

Entry Into A Material Definitive Agreement.

On May 15, 2009, Victory Energy Corporation (“Company”) entered into a Separation Agreement and General Release of Claims (“Agreement”) with Jon Fullenkamp (“Fullenkamp”), the former President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, and Jon Fullenkamp, as Trustee of the Virgin Family Trust, LLP (“Trust”), in connection with Fullenkamp’s voluntary resignation from his position as an employee, executive officer and member of the Board of Directors of the Company. The Agreement will become effective on May 22, 2009 provided Fullenkamp does not revoke the Agreement in writing prior to that day (“Effective Date”).

Under the terms of the Agreement, the parties agreed (i) to reduce the amount owed by the Company to Fullenkamp from $1,014,000 to $500,000 (including imputed interest) (“Revised Debt”), (ii) that the Company would repay the Revised Debt over time in accordance with a payment schedule set forth in the Agreement, (iii) that the Company would pay to Fullenkamp all unreimbursed expenses through the date Fullenkamp resigned, (iv) that the Company would issue to Fullenkamp 10,000,000 shares of the Company’s common stock that were issuable to Fullenkamp under the terms of the Employment Agreement, dated January 2, 2005, between the Company and Fullenkamp (“Employment Agreement”) and (v) that the Company would issue to Fullenkamp 1,000,000 shares of the Company’s common stock in lieu of certain shares of preferred stock that the Company agreed to issue to Fullenkamp in April 2008 but could not validly issue because the Company had not properly created a class of preferred stock under Nevada law.

Pursuant to the Agreement, the Company has the right to request that Fullenkamp provide certain services to the Company, including, but not limited to, assisting the Company with its on-going drilling operations in Texas. If the Company requests such services and the Company determines that Fullenkamp’s services and assistance have had a significantly favorable impact on the Company, the Company may, in its sole discretion and solely in consideration of such services, accelerate the payment of up to $100,000 of the Revised Debt.

Under the terms of the agreement, Fullenkamp and the Trust irrevocably granted to, and appointed Ronald Zamber, a member of the Company’s Board of Directors, to act as Fullenkamp’s and the Trust’s proxy and attorney-in-fact to vote the shares of common stock held by Fullenkamp and the Trust on any matter brought before the Company’s shareholders for a period of five years from the Effective Date. Fullenkamp also agreed that until the fifth anniversary of the Effective Date he would not transfer or dispose of certain of the shares issued pursuant to the Employment Agreement in excess of the amounts set forth in the Agreement.

Pursuant to the Agreement, Fullenkamp agreed to cooperate fully with the investigation being conducted by a committee of the Board of Directors of the Company relating to matters presented to the Board of Directors by the Company’s Chief Financial Officer at a meeting of the Board of Directors on April 28, 2009. In addition, the Agreement contained a non-solicitation clause.

Pursuant to the terms of the Agreement, Fullenkamp agreed, subject to his rights under the Agreement, to fully release the Company, to the fullest extent permitted by law, from any and all claims, damages, and expenses, that he may have or may have had against the Company or its affiliates.
