Item 8.01 Other Events

On August 4, 2015, the Company executed a lease for on an approximately 7,000 square foot food processing facility in Los Angeles County. The monthly rent and expenses for the facility are approximately $8,000 per month. As part of the lease, the Company paid approximately $40,000 in prepaid rent and security deposit. The facility has refrigeration and freezers already installed. The Company will begin the county health inspection process next week with the goal of having the facility licensed by the end of September. Once the facility is licensed by the county health inspector, it can begin manufacturing product for Nate's Homemade for delivery to smaller retailers while ABCO finalizes the SQF room for the larger retailers. Additionally, the facility will allow the Company to manufacture product for the Kiosk in Newport Beach.

The Company has already purchased the necessary equipment to manufacture the Nate's Homemade product line and will finalization installation this week.
