James A. McIntyre has made a preliminary filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission of a proxy statement and accompanying GOLD proxy card to be used to solicit votes for the election of a slate of director nominees at the 2012 annual meeting of shareholders of Signature Group Holding, Inc., a Nevada corporation.

On May 31, 2012, Mr. McIntyre sent the following letter to stockholders:

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO SIGNATURE GROUP STOCKHOLDERS:

WAIT!

PLEASE DO NOT SEND BACK THE COMPANY'S WHITE PROXY CARD
PLEASE DO NOT PROVIDE THE COMPANY WITH YOUR VOTING INSTRUCTIONS OVER THE PHONE

May 31, 2012

Dear Fellow Stockholders,

I am James A. McIntyre, the largest individual stockholder of Signature Group Holding, Inc. ("Signature" or the "Company"). I am very concerned that the current management and Board of Directors ("Board") of the Company are not acting in the best interests of stockholders. On Friday, May 25, 2012, I filed my preliminary proxy statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission and will soon provide you with information regarding the five director candidates I am proposing for election at the upcoming 2012 meeting of stockholders of Signature, to be held on July 24, 2012 (the "Annual Meeting").

As you will learn, my proposed slate of five nominees are all highly-qualified, independent, experienced and successful business people who will work diligently to guide the Company to protect and enhance all stockholders' investment in Signature. I urge you to refrain from voting until you have had an opportunity to review my proxy materials and to better understand your choices as a Signature stockholder. You deserve the opportunity to review the information regarding each of my director nominees and to decide for yourself who will best serve your interests.

Current management has overseen continued poor performance and significant value destruction without being held accountable by the Board. I believe change is necessary to preserve and enhance our investment in the Company. Under the oversight of current management:

- qThe price of Signature's stock has dropped from $0.71 per share on June 30, 2010 to $0.36 per share one May 24, 2012—a drop of nearly 50%.
- qThe Company's listed assets on its financial statements have dropped from $157.8 million in June 2010 to $139.2 million as of March 31, 2012.
- qMost tellingly, the Company's stockholder equity has decreased from $90.9 million in June 2010 to $63.3 million as of March 31, 2012—a decrease of approximately 31%.

I believe the time has come for stockholders to elect highly qualified, independent directors to the Board who will be advocates for your interests and rights and who will hold management accountable for the Company's poor performance.

By now you have likely received the proxy materials and a white proxy card from Signature for the Annual Meeting. The Signature proxy statement, among other things, is asking you to elect the five directors proposed by Signature's current Board and management.

Please do NOT respond to any solicitation made by Signature's management and do NOT return a white proxy card voting for the Board's nominees.

You will soon be receiving my proxy statement and my GOLD proxy card allowing you to support the slate of nominees I have proposed.

My interests are aligned with yours—to maximize the value of our investment in Signature.

- DO NOT return the white proxy card sent to you by Signature.
- DO NOT allow Signature's proxy solicitor to call you at home.
- DO NOT allow Signature to take your vote over the telephone.

We appreciate your support, and if you have any questions, please call my proxy solicitor MacKenzie Partners toll-free at 800-322-2885 or collect at 212-929-5500.

Sincerely,

James McIntyre
