PART III — NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The registrant cannot file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended March 31, 2015 (the "Form 10-Q") within the prescribed time period due to the continuing post-acquisition consolidation of the operations and financial reporting of the global recycling and specification alloys business of Aleris Corporation (now Real Alloy, such acquisition, the "Real Alloy Acquisition"), as further described in Part IV below, including delays in connection with the compilation of the information for the preparation of the financial statements and management's discussion and analysis for the Form 10-Q, which could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense. The registrant is working diligently to complete the Form 10-Q and expects to file the Form 10-Q within the time period described in Item (b) of Part II of this form.

PART IV — OTHER INFORMATION

(1) Name and telephone number of person to contact in regard to this notification

(2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

As previously disclosed in its Current Report on Form 8-K filed on March 5, 2015, the registrant, completed its previously announced acquisition of the global recycling and specification alloys business of Aleris Corporation on February 27, 2015. As a result of the Real Alloy Acquisition, the registrant anticipates that there will be significant changes in the results of operations for the period ended March 31, 2015 included in the Form 10-Q from those for the corresponding period of the 2014 fiscal year. In addition, due to the proximity of the Real Alloy Acquisition to March 31, 2015, the purchase price allocation remains preliminary as management continues to evaluate the assumptions and methodology used in the valuation of acquired inventories, property, plant and equipment, intangible assets, accrued pension liabilities, environmental liabilities and asset retirement obligations, and the resultant deferred income tax adjustments. The registrant is working to file the Form 10-Q in accordance with the time frames specified in Rule 12b-25.
