Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

(b) On November 29, 2006, Matthew L. Holleman III informed Trustmark Corporation of his decision to resign from the Board of Directors of Trustmark Corporation and the Board of Directors of its subsidiary, Trustmark National Bank, including the following committees of the Trustmark Corporation Board: Executive, Nominating and Strategic Planning. His resignation from all posts will be effective on January 1, 2007.

The resignation arises from commitments made earlier in 2006 by the Robert M. Hearin Foundation and the Robert M. Hearin Support Foundation (collectively, the “Foundations”) to the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System with respect to Trustmark Corporation. The Foundations, which are the largest shareholders in Trustmark Corporation, committed, among other things, that, without the prior approval of the Federal Reserve System, the Foundations would not have or seek to have any trustee serve on the board of directors of Trustmark Corporation or any of its subsidiaries, with the exception that the trustee of the Foundations who currently serves as a director of Trustmark Corporation (Mr. Holleman) was permitted to continue service as both a trustee of the Foundations and a director of Trustmark Corporation through January 1, 2007. Mr. Holleman has now decided that he will comply with this commitment by resigning as a director of Trustmark Corporation while retaining his role as a trustee of the Foundations.
