Item 8.01 Other Events

On November 19, 2004, Kinder Morgan, Inc. (the "Corporation") completed the sale of TransColorado Gas Transmission Company, a Colorado general partnership, to Kinder Morgan Energy Partners, L.P. (the "Partnership") for $275 million, consisting of approximately $210 million in cash and 1,400,000 units representing limited partner interests of the Partnership. The value of the units was determined based on the closing price of the units on the New York Stock Exchange on November 18, 2004. TransColorado Gas Transmission Company owns a 300-mile interstate pipeline that transports natural gas from western Colorado to the Blanco Hub in northwest New Mexico. The Corporation owns the general partner of the Partnership. The transaction was approved by the relevant boards of directors following the receipt of fairness opinions from separate investment banking firms.

Separately, the Corporation has announced that it will expand its common stock repurchase program by $200 million, to $750 million. Since the inception of the program in August 2001, the Corporation has repurchased $510 million of its shares.
