On November 19, 2004, Kimberly-Clark Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the Company), terminated the Rights Agreement between the Company and First National Bank of Boston, N.A., dated as of June 21, 1988, as amended and restated as of June 8, 1995 (the Rights Agreement) by amending such agreement to accelerate the final expiration date thereof from June 8, 2005 to the close of business on November 19, 2004.

On November 16, 2004, the Board of Directors of the Company adopted the following policy statement effective upon the termination of the Rights Agreement at the close of business on November 19, 2004:

Kimberly-Clark does not have a poison pill or stockholder rights plan.

If Kimberly-Clark were to adopt a stockholder rights plan, the Board would seek prior stockholder approval of the plan unless, due to timing constraints or other reasons, a majority of independent directors of the Board determines that it would be in the best interests of stockholders to adopt a plan before obtaining stockholder approval.

If a stockholder rights plan is adopted without prior stockholder approval, the plan must either be ratified by stockholders or must expire, without being renewed or replaced, within one year.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall review this policy statement periodically and report to the Board on any recommendations it may have concerning the policy.
