Item 1.01: Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On September 1, 2009, Applied Signal Technology, Inc. ("Applied Signal" or the "Company"), entered into a Membership Interest Purchase Agreement (the "Purchase Agreement") with Pyxis Engineering LLC, a Maryland limited liability company ("Pyxis"), and Eric Bennett as the initial seller ("Bennett"), and each additional member of Pyxis (the "Additional Sellers" and, together with Bennett, the "Sellers"), to acquire all of the outstanding membership interests in Pyxis (the "Acquisition"). The Purchase Agreement and the transactions contemplated therein have been approved by the board of directors of the Company, and by Pyxis and all of its members. Upon the closing of the Acquisition (the "Closing"), Pyxis will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company.

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Purchase Agreement, the consideration payable to the Sellers at the Closing will consist of a cash payment of $16,250,000 at Closing, subject to adjustment up (to a maximum of $1 million) or down based upon achievement of a minimum working capital of $2 million. In addition, Sellers shall be entitled to additional amounts (the "Earn-Out") based upon the performance of the business acquired from Pyxis during the twelve months following the Closing (the "Earn-Out Period"), of up to $3,750,000, payable in stock to Bennett and cash to the other Additional Sellers. The Earn-Out shall be payable to the Sellers if target revenues from contracts entered into by Pyxis before or after the Closing, together with target revenues generated from new contracts entered into by the Company from contracts for business that is substantially similar to the Pyxis business, over the Earn-Out Period, are in excess of $13,250,000 (the "Threshold Target Revenues"). If the Threshold Target Revenues are achieved, the Earn-Out payable to the Sellers shall equal every dollar of target revenues that exceed the Threshold Target Revenues, up to a maximum Earn-Out of $3,750,000, payable if target revenues are $17 million or more.

The Company expects to retain substantially all of the employees of Pyxis, representing approximately 75 additional employees. Pyxis has been engaged in software engineering, system and database administration, systems engineering, information assurance, and project management services for the Department of Defense and Intelligence Community, including cleared system software development, systems architecture, application performance management, web portal development, data management, and data mining.

The foregoing description of the Purchase Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified by reference to the Purchase Agreement, which is attached to this report as Exhibit 2.2. A copy of the press release announcing the transaction is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.

Item 2.01 Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets

On September 1, 2009, the Acquisition was consummated. The information set forth in Item 1.01 above is incorporated herein by reference. The purchase price payable at Closing for the Acquisition was funded by the Company from its cash and short term investments on hand. The terms of the Acquisition are more fully described in the Purchase Agreement, which is attached to this report as Exhibit 2.2.

MEMBERSHIP INTEREST PURCHASE AGREEMENT

THIS MEMBERSHIP INTEREST PURCHASE AGREEMENT (this “Agreement”) is made as of September 1, 2009 by and among Applied Signal Technology, Inc., a California corporation (“Purchaser”), Pyxis Engineering LLC, a Maryland limited liability company (the “Company”), and Eric Bennett, an individual, as the initial holder of all interests in the Company (the “Seller”).

RECITALS

WHEREAS, Seller is the owner and holder of record of 1,000,000 membership interests in the Company (the “Membership Interests”), which Membership Interests currently constitute all of the issued and outstanding membership or other equity interests of the Company (the “Interests”);

WHEREAS, Seller desires to sell to Purchaser, and Purchaser desires to purchase and acquire from Seller, all of the Interests, on the terms and subject to the conditions hereinafter set forth;

WHEREAS, the Company, in order to facilitate this transaction on behalf of the Seller and to induce Purchaser to enter into this Agreement, is joining this Agreement as a party, and is jointly and severally making the representations and warranties in Section 5.

WHEREAS, ANNEX A of this Agreement contains certain defined terms used herein.

AGREEMENT

NOW, THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the mutual representations, warranties, promises and agreements herein made, the parties, intending to be legally bound, do hereby agree as follows:

1. Purchase and Sale of the Interests. Subject to all the terms and conditions of this Agreement, at the Closing, Seller shall sell, transfer and deliver to Purchaser, and Purchaser shall purchase and acquire from Seller, all of the issued and outstanding Membership Interests owned by the Seller, representing all of the issued and outstanding Interests in the Company, free and clear of any and all Encumbrances, for the consideration specified in this Agreement. If any other party holding options, warrants or other rights to acquire an equity interest in the Company exercises such rights, and becomes a holder of membership interests in the Company, such person (an “Additional Seller”) shall become an additional seller hereunder, and together with the Seller, shall be deemed a seller hereunder and together the Purchaser, Company and Seller may be referred to herein collectively as the “Parties” and individually each may be referred to herein as a “Party”.
2. Purchase Price.
 - 2.1 Consideration. Subject to and upon the terms and conditions of this Agreement, in consideration and as payment in full for all outstanding Interests, Purchaser shall pay to Seller and any Additional Seller, as set forth in this Section 2, an amount equal to such person’s pro rata portion of Sixteen Million Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($16,250,000) (the “Purchase Price”) less (i) the amount of any Estimated Working Capital Deficit, plus (ii) the amount of any Estimated Working Capital Surplus up to the amount of the Working Capital Adjustment Cap (the “Closing Payment”). In addition, the amount to be deposited in the Escrow Fund, as set forth in Section 2.3(b) below, shall be deducted from the Closing Payment at Closing and deposited into escrow pursuant to the terms of the Escrow Agreement as provided in Section 2.4 below.
 - 2.2 Working Capital Adjustment.
 - (a) As used herein, the term “Closing Working Capital” shall mean (i) all current assets, including, but not limited to cash, accounts receivable, loan receivable, prepaid expenses, prepaid Taxes, deferred Tax assets, and net property and equipment and deposits as of the Closing Date, but excluding receivables from any of the Company’s Affiliates, directors, employees, officers or interest holders and any of their Affiliates, less (ii) all current liabilities, including but not limited to, loan payable to third party, pension plan payable, accounts payable, accrued expenses, accrued wages, accrued payroll taxes (other than accrued payroll Taxes payable to the Company pursuant to Section 2.3(c)), accrued paid time off, and less (iii) the amount outstanding under the line of credit, as of the Closing Date. The term “Target Working Capital” shall mean Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000). Company shall deliver to Purchaser, at least three (3) days prior to the Closing Date, an estimated balance sheet of the Company as of the Closing Date (the “Estimated Closing Balance Sheet”) and a calculation of Closing Working Capital in the form attached hereto as Schedule 2.2(a) (the “Estimated Closing Working Capital”). The Estimated Closing Balance Sheet and the Estimated Closing Working Capital shall each be determined and calculated by the Company in good faith based on reasonable assumptions as of the Closing Date in accordance with GAAP as consistently applied and utilized in the preparation of the Financial Statements (the “Company Accounting Rules”). As provided for in Section 2.1 above, to the extent the Estimated Closing Working Capital delivered by the Company is less than the Target Working Capital (an “Estimated Working Capital Deficit”), the portion of the Purchase Price payable to Seller at Closing (i.e., the Closing Payment) shall be reduced on a dollar for dollar basis by the entire amount of the Estimated Working Capital Deficit. As provided for in Section 2.1 above, to the extent the Estimated Closing Working Capital is more than the Target Working Capital (an “Estimated Working Capital Surplus”), the portion of the Purchase Price payable to Seller and the Additional Sellers at Closing (i.e., the Closing Payment) shall be increased on a dollar for dollar basis by the entire amount of the Estimated Working Capital Surplus, up to a maximum upward adjustment of One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) (the “Working Capital Adjustment Cap”).

Within thirty (30) days following the Closing Date (the “Audit Election Date”), Seller may submit its request to Purchaser that Purchaser conduct a balance sheet audit of the Estimated Closing Balance Sheet (the “Seller Requested Audit”), or Purchaser may notify Seller that it has elected to conduct a balance sheet audit of the Estimated Closing Balance Sheet (the “Purchaser Elected Audit”, and, together with the Seller Requested Audit, the “Adjustment Audit”). In the event that an Adjustment Audit has been elected by Purchaser or requested by Seller, within forty-five (45) days after such election is made or request is received, Purchaser shall prepare and present in detail its good faith calculation of the revised Estimated Closing Balance Sheet (the “Adjusted Closing Balance Sheet”) and the resulting revisions to the Estimated Closing Working Capital (the “Adjusted Closing Working Capital”) to Seller; provided, however, that the only revisions the Purchaser may assert with respect to the Estimated Closing Working Capital and the Estimated Closing Balance Sheet are revisions resulting from (the “Adjustment Rules”): (i) allegations that the accounting principles used by the Seller in the preparation of the Estimated Closing Balance Sheet and the Estimated Closing Working Capital were inconsistent with the Company Accounting Rules or Schedule 2.2(a), respectively, (ii) errors in mathematical calculations by Seller, (iii) failure to include or deduct items in accordance with Section 2.2(a) above or the Company Accounting Rules, and (iv) the effect of events occurring between (A) the time of the preparation of the Estimated Closing Balance Sheet and the Estimated Closing Working Capital and (B) the Closing. In the event that (i) Seller elects to request the Seller Requested Audit, Seller shall deliver to Purchaser written notice of such election by the Audit Election Date (the “Seller Audit Election Notice”), and (ii) Purchaser elects to conduct the Purchaser Elected Audit, Purchaser shall deliver to Seller written notice of such election by the Audit Election Date (the “Purchaser Audit Election Notice”). The Adjusted Closing Balance Sheet and the calculation of the Adjusted Closing Working Capital will be prepared in accordance with the Company Accounting Rules. Following delivery by Purchaser to Seller of the Adjusted Closing Balance Sheet and the calculation of Adjusted Closing Working Capital, Purchaser shall give Seller and any accountants acting on behalf of Seller reasonable access during Purchaser’s normal business hours to those books and records of the Company in the possession of Purchaser or the Company and any personnel which relate to the preparation of the Adjusted Closing Balance Sheet and any relevant work papers for purposes of resolving any disputes concerning the calculation of Adjusted

(b) Closing Working Capital.

Seller shall have a forty-five (45) day period following delivery of the Adjusted Closing Balance Sheet and the calculation of the Adjusted Closing Working Capital during which to notify Purchaser in writing (each a “Notice of Objection”) of any good faith objections to the calculation of the Adjusted Closing Working Capital or the Adjusted Closing Balance Sheet, as it affects such calculations, setting forth a reasonably specific and detailed description of its objections and the dollar amount of each objection. If Seller objects to either the Adjusted Balance Sheet or Purchaser’s calculation of Adjusted Closing Working Capital as reflected thereon, Purchaser and Seller shall attempt to resolve any such objections within thirty (30) days of the receipt by Purchaser of a Notice

(c) of Objection.

If Purchaser and Seller are unable to resolve any dispute that arises in connection with the procedure specified in Section 2.2(c) within the thirty (30) day period referred to in Section 2.2(c), Purchaser and Seller shall submit such dispute for final resolution to an independent certified public accounting firm of national reputation as may be agreed upon by Purchaser and Seller or, in the absence of such agreement, as may be selected jointly by Purchaser's independent certified public accountants and an independent certified public accounting firm designated by Seller (such accounting firm being the "Independent Accounting Firm"). Each of the Parties shall, and shall cause their respective Affiliates and representatives to, provide full cooperation to the Independent Accounting Firm. The Independent Accounting Firm shall (i) act in its capacity as an expert and not as an arbitrator, (ii) consider only those matters as to which there is a dispute between the Parties, (iii) be instructed to reach its conclusions regarding any such dispute within thirty (30) days after its appointment and provide a written explanation of its decision and (iv) apply the Adjustment Rules in reaching its decision. In the event that Purchaser and Seller submit any dispute to an Independent Accounting Firm, each such Party may submit a "position paper" to the Independent Accounting Firm setting forth the position of such Party with respect to such dispute, to be considered by such Independent Accounting Firm as it deems fit. All expenses relating to the engagement of the Independent Accounting Firm shall be paid by the prevailing Party in the dispute (measured by which Party's proposed calculation is closer to the ultimate determination made by the Independent Accounting Firm); provided, however, that if the Independent Accounting Firm is engaged following a Seller Requested Audit of an Estimated Closing Working Capital that was accepted as final by Purchaser,

(d) Seller shall bear the costs of such Independent Accounting Firm.

(e) "Final Closing Working Capital" shall be determined as follows:

If Purchaser fails to deliver the Purchaser Audit Election Notice to Seller by the Audit Election Date and Seller fails to deliver the Seller Audit Election Notice to Purchaser by the Audit Election Date, as provided in Section 2.2(b), the Estimated Closing Balance Sheet (together with the Company's calculation of Estimated Closing Working Capital) shall be deemed to have been accepted by all of the Parties, and such Estimated Closing Working Capital shall be

(i) deemed to be the Final Closing Working Capital;

If Purchaser fails to deliver the Adjusted Closing Balance Sheet and a calculation of Adjusted Closing Working Capital to Seller within forty-five (45) days after receipt of the Seller Audit Election Notice or the Purchaser Audit Election Notice, the Parties shall either (i) agree to deem the Estimated Closing Balance Sheet (together with the Company's calculation of Estimated Closing Working Capital) to have been accepted by all of the Parties, and to deem such Estimated Closing Working Capital to be the Final Closing Working Capital, or (ii) refer determination of the Final Closing Working Capital to the Independent Accounting Firm

(ii) pursuant to the terms of Section (d) above;

If (a) Purchaser has complied fully with the requirements of Section 2.2(b) and (b) Seller does not deliver a Notice of Objection in accordance with Section 2.2(c), the Adjusted Closing Balance Sheet (together with Purchaser's calculation of the Adjusted Closing Working Capital) shall be deemed to have been accepted by all of the Parties, and such Adjusted Closing

(iii) Working Capital shall be deemed to be the Final Closing Working Capital;

If (a) Purchaser has complied fully with the requirements of Section 2.2(b), (b) Seller delivers a Notice of Objection in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.2(c) and (c) Purchaser and Seller are able to resolve such dispute by mutual agreement, the Final Closing Working Capital

(iv) shall be as agreed to by the Parties; or

(v) If (a) Purchaser has complied fully with the requirements of Section 2.2(b), (b) Seller delivers a Notice of Objection in accordance with Section 2.2(c) and (c) Purchaser and Seller are unable to resolve such dispute by mutual agreement, the determination of the Independent Accounting Firm made in accordance with Section 2.2(d) shall be final and binding on the Parties, and the Final Closing Working Capital shall be as determined by the Independent Accounting Firm.

Subject to the foregoing provisions, the calculation of Final Closing Working Capital shall be conclusive and binding on all of the Parties, no further adjustments shall be made thereto and neither Purchaser nor Seller shall have any further right to challenge such calculation of the Final Closing Working Capital; provided, however, that nothing in this Section 2.2(e) shall limit in any manner (whether by time, amount, procedure or otherwise) any remedy at law or in equity to which any Party may be entitled against another Party as a result of actual fraud by

(vi) such other Party.

(f) After the determination of the Final Closing Working Capital pursuant to the terms of Section 2.2(e):

If, pursuant to the terms of this Section 2.2, it is determined that the Final Closing Working Capital exceeds the Estimated Closing Working Capital, then Purchaser shall pay an amount equal to the Working Capital Adjustment Amount, if any, in immediately available funds to Seller and the Additional Sellers, based upon such person's pro rata portion of the Interests, within five (5) business days of the determination of the Final Closing Working Capital, provided, however, that in no event shall the amount paid by the Purchaser to the Seller and the Additional Sellers as the Working Capital Adjustment Amount exceed the amount that would cause the Adjusted Purchase Price to exceed Seventeen Million Two-Hundred Fifty Thousand

(i) Dollars ($17,250,000).

If, pursuant to the terms of this Section 2.2, it is determined that the Final Closing Working Capital is less than the Estimated Closing Working Capital, then Seller and any Additional Sellers shall pay their pro rata portion amount equal to the Working Capital Adjustment Amount, if any, in immediately available funds to Purchaser within five (5) business days of

(ii) the determination of the Final Closing Working Capital.

For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Working Capital Adjustment Amount" shall mean the amount by which the Estimated Closing Working Capital is more or less than the Final Closing

(g) Working Capital.

Closing Payment. At the Closing, Purchaser shall pay

2.3 the Closing Payment in the following manner:

By delivery at the Closing to the Seller and any Additional Seller of a wire transfer of immediately available funds of an amount equal to such Seller's or Additional Seller's pro rata portion of the Closing Payment, less (i) amounts to be distributed into the Escrow Fund as set forth in Section 2.3(b) below, and less (ii) the amount to be deposited with the Company

(a) pursuant to Section 2.3(c) below;

(b) By delivery at the Closing of a wire transfer of immediately available funds in an aggregate amount equal to One Million Six Hundred Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($1,625,000) (such amount, and any interest or earnings thereon, the "Escrow Fund") to a bank account to be established with Wells Fargo Bank (the “Escrow Agent”); and

By delivery at the Closing to the Company of a wire transfer of immediately available funds on behalf of any Additional Seller of such amount as is certified to Purchaser by Seller for the federal, state and/or local income and employment tax withholding that is owed by the respective Additional Sellers with respect to (i) the exercise of such Additional Seller’s Membership Options in accordance with Section 7.16(a) and (ii) the payment of the obligations of the Company under the Change in Control Bonus Agreement in accordance with Section 7.16(c). The delivery to the Company of such tax withholding shall be treated for purposes of this Agreement as payment of a portion of the consideration due to the respective Additional

(c) Sellers under the Agreement.

Escrow Fund. The Escrow Fund shall be available for the payment of Claims by Purchaser for indemnification pursuant to Section 9 and shall be held pursuant to an escrow agreement substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A (the “Escrow Agreement”) to be entered into by and among Purchaser, Escrow Agent and Seller on or before the Closing. The Escrow Agreement shall provide for the release to Seller and to any Additional Seller of 50% of any undisputed amounts in the Escrow Fund on the one year anniversary of the Closing Date, with the balance of such undisputed amounts remaining in the Escrow Fund released to Seller and any Additional Seller on the date that is eighteen months after the Closing Date.

Payment of Transfer Taxes and Fees. All transfer, documentary, sales, use, stamp and registration Taxes, and all conveyance fees, recording charges and other fees and charges (including any penalties and interest) incurred in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, shall be borne fifty percent (50%) by Seller and fifty percent (50%) by the Purchaser.

Earn-Out Payments. Following the Closing and as additional consideration for the purchase of the Interests, the Seller and any Additional Seller shall be entitled to receive from the Purchaser (subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Section 2.6) additional amounts based upon the performance of the Company during the twelve month period ending on the last day of the Purchaser’s fiscal quarter that is closest to the one year anniversary of the Closing Date (the “Earn-Out Period”). The amount paid with respect to the Earn-Out Period (the “Earn-Out Distribution Amount”) shall be determined and paid in accordance with this Section 2.6. The Earn-Out Distribution Amount shall be determined as follows:

(a) The Earn-Out shall be determined based upon the revenue of the Post-Closing Company Business (as defined below) during the Earn-Out Period (“Target Revenues”). Target Revenues shall mean all revenues of the Post-Closing Company Business booked and recognized by Purchaser in accordance with GAAP, as consistently applied and utilized in the preparation of Purchaser’s financial statements as of the Closing Date (the “Purchaser Accounting Rules”). Although Purchaser intends to combine the Company’s Business with the business operated by Purchaser prior to the Closing that is substantially similar to the Business (the “Purchaser Services Business”), for purposes of this Agreement, the “Post-Closing Company Business” shall include: (i) all Target Revenues generated from contracts entered into by the Company before or after the Closing Date, and (ii) all Target

Revenues generated from new contracts entered into by the Purchaser after the Closing Date that relate to the Purchaser Services Business or the Business; provided, however, that to the extent an employee of the Company is assigned to work on a contract, the revenue from which contract would not otherwise be included in Target Revenues, the revenue generated solely from the time charged by such employee to such Purchaser contract shall be included in Target Revenues. Notwithstanding the foregoing, revenue generated from the contracts listed on Schedule 2.6(a) shall be apportioned as set forth on such Schedule 2.6(a).

- No Earn-Out Distribution Amount shall be payable unless the Target Revenues exceed Thirteen Million Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($13,250,000) (the “Threshold Target Revenues”). The Earn-Out Distribution Amount shall equal every dollar of Target Revenues that exceed the Threshold Target Revenues, up to a maximum Earn-Out Distribution Amount of Three Million Seven Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($3,750,000) (the “Maximum Earn-Out Distribution Amount”) if Target Revenues reach Seventeen Million Dollars ($17,000,000) or more.

- Target Revenues shall be calculated by Purchaser and certified by Purchaser’s Chief Financial Officer (the “Earn-Out Certification”). The Earn-Out Certification shall be delivered to Seller as soon as practicable after the end of the Earn-Out Period and in no event more than forty-five (45) days thereafter (the “Earn-Out Certification Date”). Within forty-five (45) days of delivery by Purchaser of the Earn-Out Certification, Seller shall give Purchaser written notice (the “Earn-Out Dispute Notice”) of any objection to the calculation set forth in the Earn-Out Certification, which notice shall specify the factual basis of such objection and the amount at issue. As promptly as practicable following the delivery of the Earn-Out Certification, and in any event within ten (10) business days of such delivery, Purchaser shall pay to Seller and each Additional Seller their respective portions of all undisputed Earn-Out Distribution Amounts. At any time following receipt of the Earn-Out Certification, upon the written request of Seller, Purchaser shall allow Seller and his accountants access to Purchaser’s books and records and work papers relating to the Target Revenues for the limited purpose of reviewing such calculation and evaluating the application of the Purchaser Accounting Rules in determining Target Revenues. All expenses incurred by Seller in performing such review shall be borne by Seller, unless such review discloses an error of 10% or more in the calculation of the amount payable to Seller, in which case Purchaser shall reimburse Seller for such expenses.

- That portion of any Earn-Out Distribution Amount payable to Seller shall be paid in shares of Common Stock of Purchaser rather than in cash and that portion of any Earn-Out Distribution Amount payable to any Additional Seller shall be paid in cash. The number of shares of Common Stock payable to Seller as his portion of any Earn-Out Distribution Amount shall be determined by dividing the amount of the Earn-Out Distribution Amount payable to Seller by the average closing price of Purchaser’s Common Stock as reported on the NASDAQ Stock Market, Inc. for the twenty trading day period ending three trading days prior to the date on which the Earn-Out Distribution Amount becomes due and payable. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Purchaser is subject to a Change of Control prior to payment of the Earn-Out Distribution Amount, or if Purchaser’s shares of Common Stock are no longer listed on a national securities exchange at the time of payment of the Earn-Out Distribution Amount, the Earn-Out Distribution Amount payable to Seller hereunder shall

- (d) be paid in cash rather than in shares of Common Stock of Purchaser.
- (e) Operation of the Company:
- (i) It is the present intention of Purchaser, following the Closing Date, to continue to develop the Business, as conducted by Company, to the mutual advantage of Purchaser and Seller and to maximize the Earn-Out Distribution Amount. Notwithstanding this Section 2.6, if Purchaser reasonably determines that it is impossible for Seller to be paid any additional Earn-Out Distribution Amounts, then Purchaser shall have the right to make such operational changes as Purchaser in its sole judgment shall determine.

(ii) During the Earn-Out Period (the below may be referred to collectively as the “Earn-Out Operating Restrictions”):

(a) Purchaser will operate the Post-Closing Company Business as a separate services business unit of Purchaser (although Purchaser shall not be required to maintain the Company as a separate legal entity).

(b) Purchaser will establish and maintain appropriate systems and controls for the purpose of tracking and recording Target Revenues.

(c) Seller shall initially manage the Post-Closing Company Business, in accordance with the Key Employee Employment Agreement to be entered into pursuant to Section 7.4; provided, however, the Purchaser may, without violating these Earn-Out Operating Restrictions, terminate Seller for cause. For purposes hereof, a termination for “cause” occurs if Seller is terminated for any of the following reasons: (i) theft, dishonesty, or falsification of any employment or Company records; (ii) improper disclosure of the Company’s confidential or proprietary information; (iii) any intentional act by Seller which has a material detrimental effect on the Company’s reputation or business; (iv) Seller’s failure or inability in any material respect to perform any assigned duties that are not inconsistent with his employment agreement with Purchaser after written notice from the Company to Seller of, and a reasonable opportunity to cure, such failure or inability; (v) any material violation by Seller of any Company policy or code of conduct; (vi) any material breach of any agreement between Seller and the Company; or (vii) Seller’s conviction (including any plea of guilty or no contest) for any criminal act that materially impairs Seller’s ability to perform his duties under his employment agreement with Purchaser. Neither the earn-out provisions set forth herein nor any other provision of this Agreement shall modify the terms of the Key Employee Employment Agreement or limit in any manner the rights of either Purchaser or Seller as set forth therein.

(d) As the Business does not currently operate in a physical location, the operations of the Post-Closing Company Business may be consolidated by Purchaser with the Purchaser Services Business. In addition, Purchaser may consolidate and relocate back office operations for finance, IT, contracts, security, human resources and administration with similar operations of Purchaser at its headquarters or other office location; provided, however, that Purchaser intends to retain the employment of substantially all employees of the Company effective upon the Closing Date, and no employee of the Company shall be required to relocate to any offices of Purchaser other than Purchaser office locations in the Baltimore/Washington metropolitan area.

(e) Purchaser shall make such investments in capital expenditures to support the growth of the Post-Closing Company Business in the ordinary course of its prior business and operations and consistent with its past practice as conducted by the Company; provided, that the Post-Closing Company Business shall be allocated such costs and overhead as is consistent with Purchaser’s operations of its consolidated businesses. Subject to the Post-Closing Company Business continuing to generate results materially consistent with achievement of the Target Revenues, the Post-Closing Company Business shall generally be allowed to continue to expand its organization consistent with the forecasts the Company has provided to Purchaser.

(f) During the Earn-Out Period, Seller shall be responsible for the day to day operations of the Post-Closing Company Business in accordance with Purchaser’s policies and procedures, and shall be involved in all major decision-making for the Post-Closing Company Business (including pricing decisions relating to its contracting activities, negotiation of customer contracts, customer relations, and allocation of direct employee labor who charge time to contracts included in the Post-Closing Company Business or in the calculation of Target Revenues), subject to the policies and procedures established by Purchaser, including such policies and procedures relating to individual signature and approval authority. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Seller shall consult with, and obtain the prior written approval of Purchaser for all employment-related decisions, including employee compensation, in accordance with Purchaser's policies and procedures.

(g) Purchaser will not take any action, or fail to take any action, during the Earn-Out Period, for the sole purpose of decreasing the Earn-Out Distribution Amount, other than such actions as are permitted pursuant to Section 2.6(e).

(h) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, all employees of the Company employed by Purchaser shall be employed under Purchaser's standard "AT WILL" policies.

(i) Purchaser intends to consolidate the Purchaser Services Business together with the Business in the Post-Closing Company Business, and shall not provide any services in any of its other divisions or operations that compete in any material way with the services provided by the Post-Closing Company Business.

In the event that Purchaser materially breaches any of the Earn-Out Operating Restrictions, and Purchaser fails to cure such breach within 20 business days following receipt by the Purchaser of written notice of such breach from the Seller, then Purchaser will pay, as liquidated damages, to the Seller and any Additional Seller their respective portions of any unpaid portion of the Maximum Earn-Out Distribution Amount (the "Accelerated Earn-Out Payment"), so long as Seller has not breached any of its representations or warranties hereto, or any covenants or additional agreements provided herein, and provided that at the end of the Earn-Out Period, at least 50% of direct charged engineers are still employed by the Post-Closing Company Business. The Parties acknowledge and agree that the Accelerated Earn-Out Payment is reasonable in light of the actual damages that would be incurred by the Seller and any Additional Seller in connection with a material breach by Purchaser of the Earn-Out Operating Restrictions and further acknowledge and agree that such actual damages may be difficult to determine with exactness. Payment of the Accelerated Earn-Out Payment to Seller and any Additional Seller as provided in this Section 2.6(f), shall constitute and be deemed to be the Seller's and any Additional Seller's sole remedy for breach of such Earn-Out Operating Restrictions. In the event of a breach by Purchaser of the Earn-Out Operating Restrictions that shall not have been cured within 20 business days following receipt by the Purchaser of written notice of such breach from the Seller, the Accelerated Earn-Out Payment will be due and payable immediately following the conclusion of such 20-business day cure period.

(f) In the event that during the Earn-Out Period Purchaser is subject to a Change of Control, or Purchaser divests all or any portion of the Post-Closing Company Business through a merger, consolidation, share exchange or other transaction, or dissolves or liquidates all or any material portion of the Post-Closing Company Business, then Purchaser will pay to the Seller and any Additional Seller the Accelerated Earn-Out Payment. In the event of a Change of Control, the Accelerated Earn-Out Payment will be paid immediately preceding the Change of Control, and such Accelerated Earn-Out Payment shall be paid in cash rather than in shares of Purchaser Common Stock. Upon payment of the Accelerated Earn-Out Payment, Purchaser shall have no further obligations under or relating to the Earn-Out set forth in this Agreement.

(g) If Seller timely delivers an Earn-Out Dispute Notice, Purchaser's Chief Financial Officer or his or her designee shall promptly meet with Seller and attempt in good faith to reach a resolution of such disagreement. Any dispute with respect to the Earn-Out Certification that is not resolved by Purchaser and Seller and their respective accountants within 30 days after delivery of the Earn-Out

Dispute Notice, upon written request by either Purchaser or Seller delivered to the other Party, shall be submitted for final resolution to an independent certified public accounting firm of national reputation as may be agreed upon by Purchaser and Seller or, in the absence of such agreement, as may be selected jointly by Purchaser's independent certified public accountants and an independent certified public accounting firm designated by Seller. Each Party shall, within 10 business days after submission of such dispute, deliver to such accounting firm the information such Party wishes to have considered by such accounting firm in making its determination. Each Party shall also provide such accounting firm with access to such Party's books and records as such firm shall reasonably request and that shall be relevant to the resolution of such dispute. Such accounting firm shall be instructed to complete its determination and resolution of any dispute and deliver notice thereof to Purchaser and Seller within 30 business days after submission of such dispute to the firm. Such accounting firm shall (i) act in its capacity as an expert and not as an arbitrator, (ii) consider only those matters as to which there is a dispute between the Parties, and (iii) apply the Purchaser Accounting Rules in reaching its decision. In the event that Purchaser and Seller submit any dispute to such an accounting firm, each such Party may submit a "position paper" to such accounting firm setting forth the position of such Party with respect to such dispute, to be considered by such accounting firm as it deems fit. The determination and resolution of any such dispute by such accounting firm shall be binding and conclusive on Purchaser and Seller for all purposes of this Agreement. Each Party shall bear its own expenses incurred in connection with the resolution of any such dispute. The Party whose position with respect to the calculation of Target Revenues, as last proposed during the meeting(s) held initially to try to resolve the dispute, is furthest from the amount determined by the accounting firm, shall be deemed to be the non-prevailing Party and shall bear the fees and expenses of the accounting firm.

- (i) The Seller shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, and file, or cause to be filed, all Tax Returns of the Company for all periods ending on or prior to the Closing Date which are filed after the Closing Date. The Seller shall permit Purchaser to review and comment on each such Tax Return described in the preceding sentence at least ten (10) days prior to filing and shall not file any such Tax Return without the written consent of Purchaser, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed, or conditioned. The Seller (and, if applicable, the Additional Sellers) shall include any income, gain, loss, deduction, or other Tax item resulting from the Section 338(h)(10) Election (as described in Section 7.13) on such Tax Returns to the extent required by applicable law. The Seller (and, if applicable, the Additional Sellers) shall also pay any Tax imposed on the Company attributable to the making of the Section 338(h)(10)

Election, but shall be reimbursed to the extent of any Section 338(h)(10) Tax Adjustment, as provided in Section 7.13 hereof. The Seller shall not file or cause to be filed any amended Tax Return or claim for Tax refund for any Tax period ending on or before the Closing Date without the written consent of the Purchaser, to the extent that such action would reasonably be expected to change the Tax liability of the Purchaser or the Company for any Tax period after the Closing Date.

Purchaser shall prepare and file, or cause to be prepared and filed, on a timely basis, all Tax Returns with respect to the Company which are due following the Closing Date, other than the Tax Returns described in Section 7.11(a)(i) above. Such Tax Returns shall be prepared, to the extent permitted by law, in a manner consistent with the prior practice of the Company. At least ten (10) days prior to the filing of any Tax Return with respect to any Tax period beginning prior to the Closing Date but ending after the Closing Date, Purchaser shall submit copies of such Tax Returns, in draft form, to Seller, for written approval by Seller, which

(ii) approval shall not be unreasonably delayed, withheld or conditioned.

Any Tax refunds that are received by the Company, and any Tax credits that reduce the Company's obligations to make Tax payments after the Closing Date, shall be for the account of the Seller to the extent that such refunds or credits relate to Pre-Closing Tax Periods (as defined in Section 7.11(b) hereof), and the Company shall pay over to the Seller any such refund or the amount of any such credit within ten (10) days after receipt or use thereof to the

(iii) extent not included as an asset in the Adjusted Closing Working Capital.

(b) Proceedings and Cooperation.

Purchaser shall communicate with Seller regarding the status of any proceedings ("Proceeding") related to Taxes of the Company for any taxable period ending on or prior to the Closing Date and the portion through the end of the Closing Date of any taxable period that includes but does not end on the Closing Date ("Pre-Closing Tax Periods"). Seller shall have the right to control the conduct and resolution of any Proceeding related to Tax matters for Pre-Closing Tax Periods; provided, however, that if any of the issues raised in such Proceeding could reasonably be expected to have an effect on the Tax liability of the Purchaser or the Company for any taxable period beginning after the Closing Date (the "Post-Closing Tax Period"), then Seller shall not settle any such Proceeding with respect to such issues without Purchaser's written consent, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned. If Seller has the right to control the conduct and resolution of such Proceeding but elects in writing not to do so, then Purchaser shall have the right to control the conduct and resolution of such Proceeding, provided that Purchaser shall keep the Seller informed of all developments on a timely basis and Purchaser shall not resolve such Proceeding in a manner that could reasonably be expected to have an adverse effect on the Seller without the advance written consent of Seller, which shall be timely and shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed. Each party shall bear its own costs for participating in such Proceeding.

(i) Purchaser, the Company and the Seller shall cooperate fully, as and to the extent reasonably requested by any other party, in connection with the filing of Tax Returns and any audit, litigation or other Proceeding with respect to Taxes. Such cooperation shall include the retention and (upon any other party's request) the provision of records and information that are reasonably relevant to any such Tax Return filing, audit, litigation or other Proceeding and making employees available on a mutually convenient basis to provide additional information and explanation of any material provided hereunder. The Company and Purchaser agree (i) to retain all books and records with respect to Taxes pertinent to the Company relating to any taxable period beginning before the Closing Date until the expiration of the statute of limitations (and, to the extent reasonably notified by Seller, any extensions thereof) of the respective taxable periods, and to abide by all record retention agreements entered into with any taxing authority, and (ii) to give the other parties reasonable written notice prior to transferring, destroying or discarding any such books and records and, if any other party so requests, to allow such other party to take possession of such books and records.

Purchaser, the Company and the Seller further agree, upon request, to use their best efforts to obtain any certificate or other document from any Governmental Entity or any other Person as may be necessary to mitigate, reduce or eliminate any Tax that could be imposed (including (iii) without limitation any Tax with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby).

Purchaser, the Company and Seller further agree, upon request, to provide the other party with all information that either party may be required to report pursuant to Section 6043 of the (iv) Code, and all Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder.

7.12 No Solicitation.

During the period from the date of this Agreement until the earlier of (i) the termination of this Agreement, or (ii) the Closing Date, neither Seller nor the Company shall, directly or indirectly, through any officer, director, employee, affiliate, representative or agent (each a “Representative”), take any action to (a) solicit, initiate, encourage, induce, facilitate or support any inquiries or proposals that constitute, or could reasonably be expected to lead to, a proposal or offer for a merger, consolidation, business combination, sale of assets, sale of interests (including without limitation by way of a tender offer) or similar transactions involving the Company, other than the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (any of the foregoing inquiries or proposals being referred to in this Agreement as an “Acquisition Proposal”), (b) furnish any information regarding the Company to any Person in connection with or in response to any Acquisition Proposal or any inquiry that could reasonably be expected to lead to any Acquisition Proposal, (d) engage or participate in negotiations or discussions with any Person concerning any Acquisition Proposal, or (a) (d) agree to, approve or recommend any Acquisition Proposal.

During the period from the date of this Agreement until the earlier of (i) the termination of this Agreement, or (ii) the Closing Date, Seller shall promptly, and in no event later than forty-eight (48) hours after receipt by Seller, the Company or any of their Representatives of any Acquisition Proposal or any request for nonpublic information in connection with an Acquisition Proposal or for access to the properties, books or records of Company by any Person or entity that informs the Company that it is considering making, or has made, an Acquisition Proposal, notify Purchaser of such Acquisition Proposal or request for such information or for access to the Company’s properties, books or records. Such notice shall be made orally and in writing and shall indicate in reasonable detail the terms and conditions of such proposal, inquiry or contact. The Company shall keep Purchaser fully informed with respect to the status of any such Acquisition Proposal, inquiry, (b) indication of interest or request and any modification or proposed modification thereto.

7.13 Section 338 Election.

(a) Seller and every Additional Seller agrees to join with Purchaser in making an election under Code Section 338(h)(10) (and any corresponding elections under state, local, or foreign Tax law) (collectively, a “Section 338(h)(10) Election”) with respect to the purchase and sale of the Interests of the Company hereunder, including executing and filing IRS Form 8023 and all other forms, returns, elections, schedules, and documents required to effect the Section 338(h)(10) Election. Seller and every Additional Seller will pay any Tax, including any liability of Company for Tax, attributable to the making of the Section 338(h)(10) Election and Seller will indemnify the Purchaser and Company against any Losses arising out of any failure to pay such Tax, but shall be reimbursed to the extent of any Section 338(h)(10) Tax Adjustment, as provided hereinafter in this Section 7.13. The Purchase Price and the liabilities of the Company (plus any other relevant items) shall be allocated to the assets of the Company for all purposes (including Tax and financial accounting purposes) in a manner consistent with the assets respective fair market values, as set forth on the allocation schedule (the “Allocation Schedule”). Purchaser shall deliver the Allocation Schedule to the Seller within forty-five (45) days of the Closing Date. The Seller shall have the right to review and raise any objections in writing to the Allocation Schedule for fifteen (15) days after the receipt thereof. If the Seller disagrees with respect to any material item in the Allocation Schedule, the parties shall negotiate in good faith to resolve the dispute. If the Purchaser and the Seller are unable, within fifteen (15) calendar days after receipt by the Purchaser of such notice of objections, to resolve the disputed items, such disputed items will be referred to an Independent Accounting Firm pursuant to Section 2.2(d). The Independent Accounting Firm shall, within thirty (30) calendar days following its selection, deliver to Purchaser and the Seller a written report setting forth its determination as to such disputed items (and only such disputed items), and its determinations will be conclusive and binding upon the parties thereto for purposes of the Allocation Schedule. The fees and disbursements of the Independent Accounting Firm shall be borne equally by each party. Purchaser, Company, Seller and the Additional Sellers agree to be bound by the Allocation Schedule and act, or cause their respective Affiliates to act, in accordance with the Allocation Schedule in all federal, state and local Tax Returns (including, without limitation, Form 8883).

- The Seller shall deliver to the Purchaser, within sixty (60) days after the Closing Date, a detailed computation of the Section 338(h)(10) Tax Adjustment and the Gross Up Payments and such other schedules and information that may be relevant to such computation (the “Section 338 Tax Notice”). The Seller shall prepare the Section 338 Tax Adjustment in a manner consistent with the Allocation Schedule. The “Section 338(h)(10) Tax Adjustment” is equal to the amount, if any, of any additional cash consideration that is necessary to be paid to the Seller and each Additional Seller to make the Seller and each Additional Seller whole, on an after-Tax basis, for the Company and the Seller’s and each Additional Seller’s additional Taxes attributable to the Section 338(h)(10) Election, but shall not include any Tax imposed on the Company attributable to the making of the Section 338(h)(10) Election which are imposed under Section 1374. The Section 338(h)(10) Tax Adjustment shall equal the sum of (x) the positive excess, if any, of (i) the net after-Tax proceeds that the Seller and each Additional Seller would have received and retained had the Seller and the Additional Sellers sold 100% of the Shares without a Section 338(h)(10) Election over (ii) the net after-Tax proceeds that the Seller and each Additional Seller is expected to receive and retain by selling 100% of the Shares pursuant to the terms of this Agreement with the Section 338(h)(10) Election excluding any Taxes imposed under Section 1374, plus (y) the Gross Up Payment. The Section 338(h)(10) Tax Adjustment shall be determined taking into account all appropriate federal, state, and local Tax implications (including taxes imposed on the receipt of any Gross Up Payments) in a transaction in which the installment sale method does not apply; provided, however, that in determining the net after-Tax proceeds that the Seller and each Additional Seller would have received and retained had the Seller and each Additional Seller sold 100% of the Shares without a Section 338(h)(10) Election, it shall be assumed that all deductible payments made by the Company on the Closing Date were made the day before the Closing Date. A “Gross Up Payment” shall mean, with respect to the Seller and each Additional Seller, a payment by Purchaser to Seller and each Additional Seller of an additional amount such that, after paying all federal, state and local income Taxes attributable to the receipt of amounts pursuant to this Section 7.13, the Seller and each Additional Seller have
- (b) received a net after Tax amount equal to the Section 338(h)(10) Adjustment.
- (c) If the Purchaser disagrees with any item or amount set forth in the Section 338 Tax Notice, then the Purchaser shall have thirty (30) days following its receipt of the Section 338 Tax Notice (the “Tax Payment Objection Period”) to deliver written notice to the Seller (the “Tax Payment Objection

Notice”) of such disagreement, which Tax Payment Objection Notice shall include an explanation of such disagreement. During the Tax Payment Objection Period, the Purchaser and its accountants will be permitted to examine the work papers and other materials used or generated by the Seller and his Tax advisors in connection with the preparation of the Section 338 Tax Notice and such other documents as the Purchaser may reasonably request in connection with its review of the Section 338 Tax Notice.

If the Purchaser provides written notice to the Seller of Purchaser’s approval of the Section 338 Tax Notice, or if the Purchaser does not timely deliver a Tax Payment Objection Notice before the expiration of the Tax Payment Objection Period with respect to the Section 338 Tax Notice, then the Section 338 Tax Notice shall be deemed to have been accepted and approved by the Purchaser and shall thereafter be final and binding upon the parties to this Agreement for purposes of this Section 7.13. If the Purchaser does timely deliver a Tax Payment Objection Notice with respect to the Section 338 Tax Notice before the expiration of the Tax Payment Objection Period, then the Section 338 Tax Notice shall not be final and binding until such objections are resolved. In resolving such objections, Purchaser and Seller if unable, within fifteen (15) calendar days after receipt by the Seller of the Tax Payment Objection Notice, to resolve the disputed items, such disputed items will be referred to an Independent Accounting Firm pursuant to Section 2.2(d). The Independent Accounting Firm shall, within thirty (30) calendar days following its selection, deliver to Purchaser and Seller a written report setting forth its determination as to such disputed items (and only such disputed items), and its determinations will be conclusive and binding upon the parties thereto for the purposes of the amount of the Section 338(h)(10) Tax Adjustment. The fees and disbursements of the Independent Accounting Firm shall be borne equally by each party.

If the Section 338 Tax Notice, as finally determined pursuant to Section 7.13(d) above, shows the Section 338(h)(10) Tax Adjustment of greater than $0.00, then the Purchaser will pay, or cause to be paid, to the Seller (on behalf of the Seller and the Additional Sellers) the amount of such Section 338(h)(10) Tax Adjustment; provided, however, that amounts payable by Purchaser as a Section 338(h)(10) Tax Adjustment shall be limited to a maximum amount of $200,000. Any Section 338(h)(10) Tax Adjustment payable by the Purchaser to the Seller pursuant to this Section 7.13 shall be paid by the Purchaser to the Seller (on behalf of the Seller and the Additional Sellers) by wire transfer of immediately available funds within five (5) business days of the final determination thereof to a bank account designated in writing by the Seller no later than one (1) business day prior

(e) to the payment date.

Company Options and Warrants. Prior to the Closing, each option, warrant, performance share or other right to acquire an interest in the Company or in any other securities, assets or operations of the Company, whether vested or unvested, will be terminated and cancelled, unless exercised prior to Closing, and shall not be assumed by Purchaser. The Company shall take all necessary and appropriate action to cause the termination of any and all such options, warrants, performance shares or other rights to acquire an interest in the Company or in any other securities, assets, or operations of the Company that are not exercised prior to Closing. If the Membership Options are exercised prior to Closing by the Grantees and such Grantees acquire an Interest in the Company, the Company shall take all steps

7.14 necessary to have such Grantees become a party to this Agreement as Additional Sellers.

Financial Audit. Prior to Closing, the Company shall deliver an audit of the Company’s financial results for the twelve months ended December 31, 2008, and for the interim period through May 31, 2009 (the “Audited Financial Statements”). The Audited Financial Statements shall not reflect any material adjustments to the unaudited financial statements for the same periods previously deliver to Purchaser by 7.15 the Company.

7.16 Membership Options; Option Fee Agreement; Change in Control Agreement.

The Membership Options under the Pyxis Engineering LLC Share Option Plan (the “Option Plan”) entered into between the Company and Michael Wagner and Mark Shadle (collectively the “Grantees”) shall be exercised in full or terminated by each of the Grantees prior to the Closing Date. If the Membership Options are exercised by any or all Grantees prior to the Closing Date and such Grantees acquire an Interest in the Company, such Grantee shall become a Party to this Agreement together with and as an Additional Seller and shall share in all of the rights and obligations of a Seller hereunder. The Option Plan shall be terminated effective as of the Closing Date.

(a) The Option Fee Agreement dated as of May 2, 2008 between the Company and Steven Peterson shall have been fulfilled in its entirety prior to the Closing Date and all obligations of the Company to Steven Peterson under such agreement shall have been paid and satisfied in full prior to the Closing Date.

(b) The Change in Control Bonus Agreement between the Company and Anne Smith dated June 1, 2009 (the “Change-in-Control Bonus Agreement”) shall have been terminated prior to the Closing Date and all obligations of the Company to Anne Smith under such agreement shall have been paid and satisfied in full prior to the Closing Date. Should Anne Smith become a party to the Payment and Cancellation Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit E, and pursuant thereto, Anne Smith acquires an Interest in the Company, Anne Smith shall become a Party to this Agreement together with and as an Additional Seller and shall share in all of the rights and obligations of a Seller hereunder.

7.17 Notice of Developments.

Prior to Closing, the Seller will give prompt written notice to the Purchaser of any material adverse development causing a breach of any of the Seller’s or Company’s representations and warranties in Section 4 or 5 (as modified by the Disclosure Schedules), and the Purchaser will give prompt written notice to the Seller of (i) any material adverse development causing a breach of any of its representations and warranties in Section 6. No disclosure by any Party pursuant to this Section 7.17, however, shall be deemed to amend or supplement the Disclosure Schedules or to prevent or cure any inaccuracy in or breach of any representation or warranty made by any Party on the date hereof.

(a) Prior to the Closing Date, and with sufficient time for Purchaser to review the provisions thereof, the Seller may amend or supplement the Disclosure Schedules to reflect any matter that arises after the date hereof that, if existing or known on the date hereof, would have been required to be disclosed in such Disclosure Schedules (the “Updated Disclosure Schedules”); provided, however, that no such amendment or supplement shall prevent or cure any breach or inaccuracy of any representation or warranty made by the Seller on the date of this Agreement, and the Purchaser shall have all rights hereunder by reason of such breach (including all rights to terminate this Agreement by reason of any such amendment or supplement without liability of any nature to Seller as a result of such termination; provided, however, that should Purchaser elect to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement following delivery of the Updated Disclosure Schedules, the Updated Disclosure Schedules shall be deemed an amendment of or supplement to, as the case may be, the Disclosure Schedule, and to qualify such representations and warranties of Seller and the Company hereunder as provided in Section 5 hereof).

7.18 Continuing Employees. Seller hereby agrees that in the event that on the date that is the 12 month anniversary of the Closing Date, at least 50% of the aggregate number of direct charged engineers that are employed by the Company on the Closing Date (the “Minimum Direct Charge Engineers”) are no longer employed by the Post-Closing Company Business or the Purchaser, Seller will pay, as liquidated damages, to the Purchaser the full amount of funds in the Escrow Fund on such date (the “Damages Relating to Minimum Direct Charge Engineers”), so long as Purchaser has not materially breached any of the Earn-Out Operating Restrictions; provided, that the failure to retain the Minimum Direct Charge Engineers shall proportionately reduce Purchaser's obligations to make investments in capital expenditures as provided in Section 2.6(e)(ii)(e) above. The Parties acknowledge and agree that the Damages Relating to Minimum Direct Charge Engineers is reasonable in light of the actual damages that would be incurred by the Purchaser in connection with a failure to retain employment of the Minimum Direct Charge Engineers and further acknowledge and agree that such actual damages may be difficult to determine with exactness. Payment of the Damages Relating to Minimum Direct Charge Engineers as provided in this Section 7.18, shall constitute and be deemed to be the Purchaser's sole remedy hereunder for breach of this Section. In the event of a breach of this covenant, the remaining Escrow Fund will be immediately paid and delivered to Purchaser as provided in this subsection.

Indemnification. From and after the Closing, Purchaser shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, for a period of six (6) years after the Closing Date, honor all of the Company's obligations to indemnify and hold harmless each present and former director, officer, manager or managing member of the Company against any costs or expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages, liabilities or amounts paid in settlement incurred in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, arising out of or pertaining to matters existing or occurring at or prior to the Closing Date, whether asserted or claimed prior to, at or after the Closing Date, to the extent that such obligations to indemnify and hold harmless exist at the Closing Date; provided, however, that Purchaser shall have no obligation to indemnify any person for any liability incurred by such person pursuant to the indemnification provisions of this Agreement in Section 9 below or for any Loss for which Purchaser or any other Indemnified Party is entitled to representation or warranty.

Indemnification by Seller and any Additional Seller. Except as otherwise provided in this Section 9, from and after the Closing, Seller agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless each of Purchaser, the Company and their Affiliates and their respective officers, directors, agents, employees, subsidiaries, partners, members and controlling Persons (each an “Indemnified Party”) to the fullest extent permitted by law from and against any and all Losses resulting from or arising out of (a) any breach of or default in connection with any representations or warranties given or made by Seller or the Company herein, (b) any failure to perform or breach of any covenants or agreements given or made by Seller or the Company herein, (c) any breach by Seller of his obligations under the Noncompetition Agreement, (d) any obligation under or liability pursuant to any car leases of the Company or Seller, (e) any liability related to or as a result of the employment of Seller’s wife by the Company, or as a result of any payment made to Seller’s wife at any time, including any liability that may be incurred for any failure to withhold any employment tax or other amounts due on any amounts paid to Seller’s wife at any time, and (f) any liability or Losses incurred by Purchaser related to the use of any real or personal property owned by any employee of the Company in the Business. Each Additional Seller agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless each Indemnified Party to the fullest extent permitted by law from and against any and all Losses resulting from or arising out of any breach of or default in connection with any representations or 9.2 warranties given or made solely by such Additional Seller herein in Sections 4.1, 4.2 or 4.3 hereof.

9.3 Limitations on Indemnification.

Seller shall not be obligated to make any payment for indemnification pursuant to Section 9.2 until the aggregate amount of indemnification payments under such Section exceeds $250,000 (the “Threshold Amount”), whereupon Seller shall be obligated to pay in full all such amounts for Losses incurred above such Threshold Amount up to his pro rata share of the Escrow Fund.

However, this Section 9.3 shall not apply to (i) Losses related to a breach of the representations and warranties contained in Sections 4.3, 5.3, 5.9 and 5.20, or (ii) any willful misrepresentation with intent to defraud or criminal activity resulting in a felony conviction for which all appeals have been exhausted, and Seller shall be liable for all Losses with respect to such breaches up to the full amount of his pro rata share of the Purchase Price, including any Earn-Out Distribution Amount paid to or earned by Seller, and provided, further, that this Section 9.3 shall not apply to the Damages

(a) Relating to Minimum Direct Charge Engineers payable to Purchaser pursuant to Section 7.18.

(b) Except in the case of willful misrepresentation with intent to defraud or criminal activity resulting in a felony conviction for which all appeals have been exhausted by the applicable Party, the Parties hereto acknowledge and agree, the indemnification provisions in this Section 9 shall be the exclusive remedy of the Parties with respect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

Maximum Indemnification Limitations. Neither Seller nor any Additional Seller shall be obligated to make any payment or payments pursuant to this Section 9 in an aggregate amount in excess of his or her pro rata portion of the Escrow Fund (the “Indemnification Cap”), provided, however, that the Indemnification Cap shall not apply to (i) any liabilities of Seller pursuant to representations or warranties in Sections 4.3, 5.3, 5.9 or 5.20, or (ii) any willful misrepresentation with intent to defraud or criminal activity resulting in a felony conviction for which all appeals have been exhausted, and Seller shall be liable for all Losses with respect to such breaches up to the amount of his pro rata share of the Purchase Price, including any Earn-Out Distribution Amount paid to or earned by Seller; provided that the right of any Indemnified Party to recover from Seller as to any Earn-Out Distribution that has been earned but not yet paid shall be limited to the right to offset such Losses against the Earn-Out Distribution that would otherwise be payable to Seller. In order to fulfill Seller’s obligations hereunder, Purchaser shall have recourse (i) first to the Escrow Fund and (ii) second by any further remedies available to Purchasers in law or in equity, provided that the aggregate maximum liability of Seller described above is not exceeded. Purchaser’s recourse against any Additional Seller shall be limited to such Additional Seller’s pro rata portion of the Escrow Fund. The provisions of this Section 9.4 shall not limit, in any manner, any remedy at law or in equity to which any Party shall be entitled against any other Party as a result of (i) willful misrepresentation with intent to defraud by such other Party or any of their respective representatives or (ii) the breach by a Party of any covenant or agreement of such Party which by its terms contemplates performance after the Closing Date and which shall survive in accordance with its respective terms.

9.5 Procedures for Indemnification.

- (a) Indemnified Party(ies) may seek indemnification from the other party (the “Indemnifying Party”) for any Losses with respect to the indemnification claim of the Indemnifying Party under this Agreement (an “Indemnification Claim”) by providing written notice (a “Claim Notice”) to the Indemnifying Party specifying in reasonable detail the Losses claimed (and a reasonable estimate thereof), the individual items of such Losses included in the amount so stated, the date each such item was paid, or properly accrued or arose, the nature of the misrepresentation, breach of warranty, covenant or Claim to which such item is related and the relevant sections of this Agreement breached and all material facts in the knowledge of such Indemnified Party pertaining to such Indemnification Claim. If such Claim Notice is delivered by an Indemnified Party that is seeking payment from the Escrow Fund for Losses described in such Claim Notice, the Indemnified Party shall deliver a copy of the Claim Notice to the Escrow Agent simultaneously with delivery to the Indemnifying Party. If the Indemnifying Party with respect to such Indemnification Claim: (i) agrees with the Indemnified Party with respect to such Indemnification Claim, a memorandum setting forth such agreement shall be prepared and signed by both parties or (ii) disputes the existence or the amount of such Indemnification Claim, the Indemnifying Party shall notify the Indemnified Party in writing (with reasonable specificity) within 20 business days following the Indemnifying Party's receipt of the Claim Notice (the "Response Notice") and the parties will negotiate in good faith to resolve such Indemnification Claim for up to 20 business days or such other period of time as the parties mutually agree. If the Response Notice is in response to a Claim Notice for Losses for which an Indemnified Party is seeking payment from the Escrow Fund, a copy of such Response Notice shall be delivered to the Escrow Agent simultaneously with delivery to the Indemnified Party. If the parties should then so agree with respect to such Indemnification Claim, a memorandum setting forth such agreement shall be prepared and signed by both parties and, if appropriate, delivered to the Escrow Agent.

If no Response Notice is received by the Indemnified Party within 20 business days after the Indemnifying Party's receipt of the Claim Notice, the matter shall be deemed undisputed and the Indemnifying Party shall indemnify the Indemnified Party for the Losses (and, if applicable, the Escrow Agent shall be entitled to release the amount of the Losses from the Escrow Account). If the parties are unable to agree within the 20 business day negotiation period specified in Section 9.5(a) after the Indemnified Party's receipt of a Response Notice, then the matter shall be immediately submitted to arbitration under the provisions of the Escrow Agreement. Any decision of the arbitrator with respect to both the existence and amount of such Indemnification Claim shall be final and binding on the parties

(b) hereto.

9.6 Third-Party Claims. In the event an Indemnified Party becomes aware of a third-party claim which could result in Losses for which it or any other Indemnified Party may be entitled to indemnification hereunder, such Indemnified Party shall promptly and without delay notify the Indemnifying Party of such third party claim, such notice setting forth such material information with respect to the third-party claim as is reasonably available to the Indemnified Party. The failure of an Indemnified Party to notify the Indemnifying Party in accordance with this Section 9.6 shall not relieve the Indemnifying Party from any liability which it may have to such Indemnified Party under this Section 9 unless, and only to the extent that, such failure to notify results in such Indemnifying Party's loss of substantive or practical rights or defenses or the ability to mitigate damages that may have been mitigated in the event that the Party had been timely notified. If a third party Claim is brought against any Indemnified Party, the Indemnifying Party shall be entitled, upon written notice to the Indemnified Party within 30 business days after the receipt of the Claim Notice, to assume the defense at its own expense with counsel reasonably acceptable to such Indemnified Party (which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed); provided, however, the election by such Indemnifying Party to assume such defense shall not preclude the Party against which such claim has been made also from participating or continuing to participate in such defense, so long as such Party bears its own legal fees and expenses for so doing. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in any Indemnification Claim in which both an Indemnifying Party, on the one hand, and an Indemnified Party, on the other hand, are, or are reasonably likely to become, a party, such Indemnified Party shall have the right, at Indemnifying Party's reasonable expense, to employ separate counsel and to control its own defense of such Indemnification Claim if, in the reasonable opinion of counsel to such Indemnified Party, either (x) one or more defenses are available to the Indemnified Party that are not available to the Indemnifying Party or (y) a conflict or potential conflict exists between the Indemnifying Party, on the one hand, and such Indemnified Party, on the other hand, that would make such separate representation advisable; provided, however, that the Indemnifying Party (i) shall not be liable for the fees and expenses of more than one counsel to all Indemnified Parties and (ii) shall reimburse the Indemnified Parties for all of such fees and expenses of such counsel incurred in any action, between the Indemnifying Party and the Indemnified Parties or between the Indemnified Parties and any third-party, as such expenses are incurred. Each Indemnifying Party agrees that it will not, without the prior written consent of the Indemnified Party (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), settle, compromise or consent to the entry of any judgment in any pending or threatened Indemnification Claim relating to the matters contemplated hereby unless such settlement, compromise or consent includes an unconditional release of each Indemnified Party from all liability arising or that may arise out of such Indemnification Claim.

9.7 Definition of Loss. For purposes of this Section 9, the term "Losses" shall mean all Losses net of:

- any insurance proceeds actually recovered and any indemnity, contribution or other similar payment actually received by the Indemnified Party (it being understood that the Indemnified Party shall pursue such proceeds or payments in good faith) with respect to such claim (such proceeds or payments to be paid over to the Indemnifying Party up to the amount paid by the Indemnifying Party if received after payment of the Loss by the Indemnifying Party), in each case such amounts actually received shall, for the purposes of determining the amount of a Loss, be reduced by the amount of
 - (a) the fees, expenses and other out-of-pocket costs incurred to collect such amounts;
 - an amount equal to the present value of the Tax Benefit (as defined below), if any, available to or taken by the Indemnified Party attributable to such Loss. For purposes of this subsection, "Tax Benefit" means, after utilizing all deductions, credits and losses otherwise available or reasonably anticipated to be available to it, any refund of Taxes paid or an actual reduction in the amount of Taxes (including without limitation, by deduction, reduction of income by virtue of increased tax basis or otherwise, entitled to refund, credit or otherwise) that would otherwise be required or
 - (b) reasonably anticipated to be required to be paid in the particular year;
 - (c) any Loss to the extent (i) such Loss relates to a liability or matter with respect to which the aggrieved party has made recovery from a person or entity other than another party to this Agreement (to the extent of such recovery) pursuant to any indemnification or contribution by or indemnification agreement with or any other similar payment by any third party and actually received by the Indemnified Party or any of its affiliates with respect to such claim, or (ii) such Loss would not have arisen solely but for the voluntary act or omission after the Closing of the aggrieved party or at the request of the aggrieved party (each source named in subsections (a), (b) and (c)(i), a "Collateral Source"). The parties acknowledge and agree that no right of subrogation shall accrue or inure to the benefit of any Collateral Source hereunder. The Indemnifying Party may require an Indemnified

Party to assign the rights to seek recovery pursuant to the preceding sentence; provided, however, that the Indemnifying Party will then be responsible for pursuing such recovery at its own expense. Notwithstanding any provision of this Section 9, consequential, incidental and punitive damages, or any damages to the extent attributable to a failure to mitigate damages, shall not constitute Losses.

10. Termination: Remedies.

Termination. This Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Closing, by written notice by the

10.1 terminating Party to the other Party as follows:

(a) by the mutual written consent of Purchaser and Seller;

by either Purchaser or the Seller, if the Closing shall not have been consummated by the end of business on the day forty-five (45) days from the date of this Agreement; provided, however, that the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 10.1 shall not be available to any Party whose failure to fulfill any obligation under this Agreement has been the cause of or resulted in the failure of the Closing to occur on or before

(b) such date;

by either Purchaser or Seller if a court of competent jurisdiction or other governmental entity shall have issued a nonappealable final order, decree or ruling or taken any other action, in each case having the effect of permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the Closing, unless the Party relying on such order, decree or ruling or other action has not complied in all material respects with its

(c) obligations under this Agreement; or by Purchaser or Seller, if there has been a breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement on the part of the other Party set forth in this Agreement, which breach (i) causes the conditions set forth in Section 8.3 (in the case of termination by Purchaser) or Section 8.4 (in the case of termination by the Company or the Seller) not to be satisfied and (ii) shall not have been cured within 20 business days following receipt by the breaching Party of written notice

(d) of such breach from the other Party.

10.2 Effect of Termination. Sections 7.8 and 11 shall remain in full force and effect and survive any termination of this Agreement. Except as provided in the preceding sentence, in the event of termination of this Agreement as provided in Section 10.1, this Agreement shall forthwith become void, and there shall be no liability or obligation on the part of Purchaser, the Company, Seller, any Additional Seller or their respective officers, directors or members. Notwithstanding the foregoing, where a termination results from the willful breach with intent to defraud by a Party of any of its representations, warranties or covenants set forth in this Agreement, the non-breaching Party or parties shall have such rights as may be available to such Party or Parties under applicable law.

11. Miscellaneous.

Waivers. Any waiver of any of the terms or conditions of this Agreement must be in writing and must be duly executed by or on behalf of the Party to be charged with such waiver. The failure of a Party to exercise any of its rights hereunder or to insist upon strict adherence to any term or condition hereof on any one occasion shall not be construed as a waiver or deprive that Party of the right thereafter to insist upon strict adherence to the terms and conditions of this Agreement at a later date. Further, no waiver of any of the terms and conditions of this Agreement shall be deemed to or shall constitute a waiver of any other term of condition hereof (whether or not similar).

11.1

Notices. All notices and other communications under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given only if done in the following ways: (i) on the day of delivery if delivered personally, (ii) two business days after the date of mailing if mailed by registered or certified first class mail, postage prepaid, (iii) the next business day following deposit with an overnight air courier service which guarantees next day delivery, or (iv) when sent by facsimile (with a copy promptly sent by registered or certified mail return receipt requested), to the other Party at the following address (or to such person or persons or such other address or addresses as a Party may specify by notice pursuant to this provision):

11.3

Expenses. Whether or not the transactions contemplated by this Agreement are consummated, all costs and expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby shall be the responsibility of, and accrued by the Party incurring such expense; provided, however, that Purchaser shall assume and pay, against invoices reasonably submitted in support thereof, the Company's reasonable legal, accounting, financial fees and expenses, and internal out-of-pocket travel and incidental expenses of Seller and the Company (the "Transaction Expenses") incurred in connection with this Agreement or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement up to the sum of $150,000. To the extent that Purchaser incurs any liability for payment of Transaction Expenses in excess of $150,000 (the "Excess Transaction Expenses"), including any Transaction Expenses that are not paid as of the Closing Date and that become payable by the Company or Purchaser following the Closing Date, Purchaser shall be reimbursed for such Excess Transaction Expenses from the amounts to be contributed to the Escrow Fund. Such Excess Transaction Expenses shall constitute Losses for which Purchaser shall be entitled to indemnification against Seller pursuant to Section 9, and in repayment of which Purchaser shall be Assignment; Third-Party Beneficiaries. Neither this Agreement nor any rights or obligations under it are assignable without the prior written consent of the other. There shall be no third-party beneficiaries of this Agreement.

11.4

11.5

GOVERNING LAW. THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE INTERNAL LAWS OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE APPLICABLE TO CONTRACTS EXECUTED AND FULLY PERFORMED WITHIN THE STATE OF DELAWARE, WITHOUT REGARD TO PRINCIPLES OF CONFLICT OF LAWS.

11.6

Jurisdiction, Venue and Waiver of Jury Trial. Any suit, action or proceeding with respect to this Agreement shall be brought exclusively in the Delaware state courts of competent jurisdiction or in the United States District Court applicable to Delaware. ALL PARTIES HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVE ANY OBJECTIONS WHICH THEY MAY NOW OR HEREAFTER HAVE TO THE PERSONAL JURISDICTION OR VENUE OF ANY SUIT, ACTION OR PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT BROUGHT IN ANY SUCH COURT AND

11.7

HEREBY FURTHER IRREVOCABLY WAIVE ANY CLAIM THAT SUCH SUIT, ACTION OR PROCEEDING BROUGHT IN ANY SUCH COURT HAS BEEN BROUGHT IN AN INCONVENIENT FORUM. THE PARTIES HEREBY FURTHER IRREVOCABLY WAIVE ANY RIGHT TO A JURY TRIAL IN ANY ACTION ARISING OUT OF OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT. THE PARTIES HEREBY IRREVOCABLY CONSENT AND AGREE THAT SERVICE OF PROCESS MAY BE EFFECTED HEREUNDER BY DELIVERY OF NECESSARY DOCUMENTATION VIA A COMMON CARRIER WITH INTERNATIONAL OPERATIONS AND REPUTATION AND SUCH SERVICE OF PROCESS SHALL BE DEEMED MADE UPON RECEIPT OF CONFIRMATION OF DELIVERY.

Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, and by the different Parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which when executed shall be deemed to be an original but all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same agreement. It is the express intent of the Parties to 11.8 be bound by the exchange of signatures on this Agreement via facsimile or electronic mail.

No Implied Waiver. No failure or delay on the part of the Parties hereto to exercise any right, power, or privilege hereunder or under any instrument executed pursuant hereto shall operate as a waiver nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, power, or privilege preclude any other or further exercise 11.9 thereof or the exercise of any other right, power, or privilege.

Entire Agreement. This Agreement, including the Exhibits and Schedules attached hereto, sets forth the entire understandings of the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, and it incorporates and merges any and all previous communications, understandings, oral or written as to the subject matter 11.10 hereof.

Amendments; Actual Waivers. This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed by the Parties. Any agreement on the part of Purchaser or Seller hereto to any such extension or 11.11 waiver shall be valid if set forth in an instrument in writing signed on behalf of such Parties.

Headings. The headings of the Sections of this Agreement, where employed, are for convenience only 11.12 and do not form a part hereof and in no way modify, interpret or construe the meanings of the Parties.

Severability. Any provision of this Agreement which is invalid or unenforceable shall be ineffective only to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability without invalidating or rendering unenforceable 11.13 the remaining provisions of this Agreement.

Specific Performance. Seller, Purchaser and the Company each acknowledge that, in view of the uniqueness of the Business and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, each Party would not have an adequate remedy at law for money damages in the event that this Agreement has not been performed in accordance with its terms, and therefore agrees that the other Party shall be entitled to specific enforcement of the terms hereof in addition to any other remedy to which it may be entitled, at 11.14 law or in equity.

No Presumption Regarding Drafter. The Parties acknowledge and agree that the terms and provisions of this Agreement have been negotiated and discussed between them, and that this Agreement reflects their mutual agreement regarding the subject matter of this Agreement. Because of the nature of such negotiations and discussions, it would not be appropriate to deem either Purchaser or Seller to be the drafter of this Agreement, and therefore no presumption for or against the drafter shall be applicable in interpreting or enforcing this
11.15 Agreement.

Press Release dated September 1, 2009 announcing acquisition of Pyxis Engineering LLC

Applied Signal Technology, Inc. Acquires Pyxis Engineering

– Gains Significant Immediate Presence in Cyber Intelligence Market –

SUNNYVALE, California, September 1, 2009 – Applied Signal Technology, Inc. (AST) (NASDAQ: APSG), a market leader in advanced intelligence, surveillance, and reconnaissance (ISR) solutions, today announced that it has completed the acquisition of Pyxis Engineering, a privately-held company that specializes in systems engineering, software engineering, application architecture, cloud computing, advanced data operations, enterprise IT infrastructure services, and project management services for the U.S. Department of Defense and Intelligence Community. Pyxis is headquartered in Eldersburg, Maryland.

Applied Signal has agreed to acquire Pyxis Engineering for $16,250,000 in cash, funded from current investments, with a stock-based earn-out potential of $3,750,000. For the fiscal year ended December 31, 2008, Pyxis recognized revenues of approximately $11.7 million. For the period January 1, 2009 through May 31, 2009, Pyxis recognized revenues of approximately $6.3 million. The unaudited trailing twelve months revenues ended July 31, 2009 are estimated at approximately $14 million. The acquisition is anticipated to be accretive in its first twelve months of operation.

The Pyxis acquisition complements and reinforces AST's existing software and network services business, its deep understanding of the global telecommunications network, and its exceptional customer relationships in the defense and intelligence communities. The acquisition allows AST to quickly expand its software and network services business and create an effective, new integrated delivery structure in the Company's new Network Intelligence business.

Importantly, this acquisition creates a combined workforce of approximately 800 employees and gives AST an immediate and significant presence in the fast-growing cyber intelligence market. Pyxis offers an array of specialized engineering solutions that address this value-added niche. Their core cyber competencies include analytic modernization, human language technology applications, complex event processing, and enterprise high-volume middleware support.

William B. Van Vleet, Chief Executive Officer of AST commented, "We are very pleased to welcome Pyxis Engineering to the Applied Signal Technology family. Since their inception in 2006, they have quickly developed an excellent reputation and a sizable business. Pyxis' deep understanding of the DoD and Intelligence services markets, software engineering domain expertise, analytical tools, and talented employees add significant momentum to our current initiatives in the cyber intelligence market. We believe that both the short-term and long-term opportunities in this space are excellent. This transaction complements our existing signals intelligence capabilities and is consistent with our goal of investing in businesses that demonstrate the potential for strong and sustained growth."

Eric Bennett, Founder and Chief Executive Officer of Pyxis said, "We are extremely pleased to join Applied Signal Technology. Our collective capabilities will allow us to provide the full spectrum of engineering solutions to our customers and gives us the increased scale needed to obtain a greater share of the expanding cyber market."
