FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LOGIC Devices Receives Notice of Continued NASDAQ Listing

SUNNYVALE, Calif. (November 7, 2002) - LOGIC Devices Incorporated (NASDAQ: LOGC), today announced that it received notice from the NASDAQ Listing Qualifications Hearings department that its securities will continue to be listed on The NASDAQ National Market. The NASDAQ staff determined the Company is in compliance with the minimum market value of publicly held shares (MVPHS) and the minimum closing bid price per share requirements for continued listing set forth in Marketplace Rules 4450(a)(2) and 4450(a)(5), respectively, and, therefore, has removed the Company from the delisting process and closed its file.

Established in 1983, LOGIC Devices is a fabless semiconductor manufacturer providing high-performance, function-specific integrated circuits that are utilized in smart weapons systems and in broadcast studio, medical imaging, and digital telecommunications equipment.

*"Safe Harbor" Statement under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995: Any statements in this press release regarding expectations of future events are "forward-looking statements" involving risks and uncertainties, including, but not limited to, market acceptance risks, the effect of economic conditions and shifts in supply and demand, the impact of competitive products and pricing, product development, commercialization and technological difficulties, availability of capital, and capacity and supply constraints.
