Note 1 - ORGANIZATION AND HISTORY

Edgar Filing: W3 GROUP INC - Form 10QSB

The Company is a Colorado corporation and had been in the development stage since its formation on February 12, 1988. The Company was formed to seek potential business acquisitions and its activities since inception are primarily related to its initial public offering and merger activities.

Upon the completion of the acquisition of Concorde Management, Ltd. and its wholly owned subsidiary, L'Abbigliamento, Ltd., the Company had ceased being a development stage company. This acquisition was effective July 1, 1997.

L'Abbigliamento, Ltd. is a New York State corporation which was incorporated in March, 1992. L'Abbigliamento, Ltd. commenced operations in August of 1992 as an importer of fine men's clothing. In October of 1995 Vista International Ltd., incorporated in the Cayman Islands, was organized to acquire raw material and to sell finished goods to areas outside the United States. Effective July 1, 1997 L'Abbigliamento, Ltd. and Vista International Ltd. were acquired through an exchange of stock by Concorde Strategies Group, Inc. As a result of the Company's changed focus, an agreement for the divestiture of L'Abbigliamento, Ltd. effective March 31, 1999, was approved by shareholders on August 12, 1999 (See Note 8), and the divestiture was completed.

On April 21, 1999, the Company entered into an Agreement and Plan of Share Exchange with W3 Group, Inc. a Delaware corporation which was formed to acquire and develop young companies whose businesses involved the development of Internet related technology and applications. Effective October 1, 1999, the Agreement was completed and the Company changed its name to W3 Group, Inc. (See Note 8).

Note 3 - CAPITALIZATION

In April 1996, the Company undertook a private placement of its securities pursuant to the provisions of Rule 504 under Regulation D under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, whereby it issued 9,000,000 shares of its Common Stock in exchange for the satisfaction of $45,000 in debts owed by the Registrant. Also in April 1996, the Company effected a 1-for-10 reverse split of its common stock as the result of which the Company had, following the aforesaid private offering, 1,200,000 shares issued and outstanding. This reverse split was effected in anticipation of management's renewed efforts to find a suitable business opportunity for the Company.

In June, 1997 the Company issued 300,000 shares of common stock to certain parties who had performed services on behalf of the Company. The shares were issued in consideration for the cancellation of payments owed by the Company at the agreed upon rate of $.10 per share and were sold through a Private Placement pursuant to the exemption provided by Rule 504 of Regulation D under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

On October 24, 1997, the Company completed a Private Placement Offering of 450,000 non dividend bearing, no par value, Series B Convertible Preferred Shares. All of the shares were sold by the Company and no Placement Agent was involved in this Offering. The shares were sold at a purchase price of $.3125 per share and the Company realized proceeds of $130,633 from the Offering, net of offering expenses in the amount of $9,992. The shares were sold through a Private Placement pursuant to the exemption provided by Rule 504 of Regulation D under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. Each Preferred Share is convertible into one and one quarter (1.25) shares of the Company's Common Stock, no par value, at the election of the Preferred Shareholder at any time after thirteen months from the date of issuance thereof and for a period of four years thereafter, ending on October 14, 2002. As discussed below, the conversion right of the Series B Preferred Shares has been adjusted as a result of a one for thirty reverse split of the Company's Common Stock on October 1, 1999.

On January 7, 1998, the Company issued 315,000 shares of Series B Convertible Preferred shares to certain parties who had performed services on behalf of the Company, including two companies which are principally owned by two Directors of the Company. The shares were issued by the Company in consideration for the cancellation of debt owed by the Company at the agreed upon rate of $.25 per share and were sold through a Private Placement pursuant to the exemption provided by Rule 504 of Regulation D under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

On June 22, 1998, the registrant issued 300,000 shares of Common Stock to a company which has performed services on behalf of the registrant. The shares were issued pursuant to an option in the Consulting Agreement to pay for the consulting fees through the issuance of restricted shares of Common Stock at the agreed upon rate of $.47 per share.

Edgar Filing: W3 GROUP INC - Form 10QSB

On August 12, 1998, the Company completed a Private Placement of 337,600 Series B Convertible Preferred Stock Purchase Warrants. All of the Warrants were sold by the Company and no Placement Agent was involved in this Offering. The Warrants were sold at a purchase price of $1.00 per Warrant and the Company realized proceeds of $325,600 from the Offering, net of offering expenses in the amount of $12,000. The Warrants were sold through a Private Placement pursuant to the exemption provided by Rule 504 of Regulation D under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. Each warrant entitles the holder thereof to purchase one Series B Convertible Preferred Share at a price of $3.00 per share during the period commencing thirteen months after the date of the issuance thereof and continuing until February 1, 2002. The warrants are redeemable by the Company at any time after thirteen months after their issuance and prior to their expiration at a price of $0.05 per warrant, upon 30 days prior written notice, provided that the closing sale price of the shares as reported on the NASD Electronic Bulletin Board shall have been at least $4.80 (160% of the exercise price of the warrants) on each of the 20 consecutive trading days ending on the tenth day prior to the day on which the notice of redemption is given.

On April 1, 1999, the Company sold 175,000 shares of Series B Convertible Preferred stock to certain parties who had performed services on behalf of the Company, including one company which is principally owned by a Director of the Company. The shares were sold by the Company in consideration for the cancellation of payments owed by the Company at the agreed upon rate of $2.00 per share and were sold through a Private Placement pursuant to the exemption provided by Rule 504 of Regulation D under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

On May 21, 1999, 199,995 restricted shares of Common Stock were sold to a principal of L'Abbigliamento, Ltd. who had performed consulting services on behalf of the registrant. These shares were issued in October, 1999 in consideration for the cancellation of payments in the total amount of $64,995 owed by the registrant for said services.

In October, 1999, the Company issued 116,000 shares of the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock to three shareholders in satisfaction of a previously existing obligation relating to consulting services performed on behalf of the Company by an independent third party.

Effective October 1, 1999, the Agreement and Plan of Share Exchange (the "Agreement") with W3 Group, Inc. a privately owned company, was completed. (See Note 8). Under the terms of this Agreement, Concorde acquired 100 percent of the capital stock of W3 Group, Inc. in exchange for an equal number of shares (3,250,000) of Concorde's post split Common Stock. W3 Group, Inc. became a wholly owned subsidiary of Concorde, and Concorde changed its corporation name to W3 Group, Inc.

Also, on October 1, 1999, the reverse split of Concorde's Common Stock on the basis of one new share for each 30 existing shares was effected. The number of outstanding shares of Concorde's Series B Convertible Preferred Stock and Series B Convertible Preferred Stock Purchase Warrants remained unchanged, however, the conversion feature has been adjusted to reflect the reverse split.

Edgar Filing: W3 GROUP INC - Form 10QSB

As per the Agreement, a special distribution of 520,056 Common Stock Purchase Warrants was made on October 4, 1999 to holders of the registrant's Common Stock, Series B Convertible Preferred Stock, and Series B Convertible Preferred Stock Purchase Warrants. The special distribution was made on the basis of one Common Stock Purchase Warrant for each ten shares of Common Stock (pre-reverse split) either outstanding as of September 30, 1999 or committed to be issued upon conversion of the then outstanding Preferred shares, or the currently outstanding Warrants to purchase Preferred Shares. The Common Stock Purchase Warrants are callable and each represent the right to purchase one share of Common Stock at a price of $6.00 per share during the exercise period, which is from the date of their issuance until October 1, 2001. None of the Common Stock Purchase Warrants were exercised during the exercise period and all of them expired on October 1, 2001, subsequent to the period covered by the report (See "Note 10 - Subsequent Event").

On October 16, 1999, the Company issued 11,800 shares of Common Stock to the original investors in Series B Convertible Preferred Stock and Series B Convertible Preferred Stock Purchase Warrants to adjust for the effect of the Company's restructuring.

At a special meeting of shareholders on January 18, 2000, shareholders approved amending the articles of incorporation to adjust the conversion right of the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock from an amount equal to 0.0416 shares to 0.5 (one half) share of Common Stock for each one share of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock. Series B Convertible Preferred Stock may be converted to Common Stock at the election of the shareholder until October 14, 2002.

On April 27, 2000, the registrant issued 300,000 restricted shares of Common Stock to a former director of the Company in consideration for services being performed on behalf of the registrant. The shares were issued in lieu of cash payment at the agreed upon rate of $1.375 per share.

Business Objectives

W3 Group, Inc. intends to acquire, finance, and restructure profitable companies that can utilize the Internet to expand their business and distribution channel. W3's plan is based on analysis and evaluation of the current industry environment, trends, and perceived opportunities in certain industries within the Internet. W3 intends to focus on existing companies that have proven markets, profitability, and management. W3's objective is to provide a platform for selected companies to expand their markets via use of the Internet, strengthen internal functions by providing consulting services and professional management support, and expansion capital, while allowing the companies to continue management of daily operations.

W3's approach is to develop "partnerships" with companies having exceptional management in order to improve the long term value of a business. The participation of management through equity based compensation and stock ownership is a crucial ingredient of W3's plan.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

At September 30, 2001, the Company had an insignificant amount of cash totalling $14. There is no assurance that the Company will be able to raise the amount of capital needed to meet its working capital needs.

General Risk Factors Affecting the Company

Various factors could cause actual results of the Company to differ materially from those indicated by forward-looking statements made from time to time in news releases, reports, proxy statements, registration statements and other written communications (including the preceding sections of this document), as well as oral statements made from time to time by representatives of the Company. Except for historical information, matters discussed in such oral and written communications are forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties, including, but not limited to the following:

- Continued growth, use, and acceptance of the Internet as a business medium, and development of the required infrastructure to support Internet growth

- Rapidly changing technology

- Intense competition within the Internet marketplace

- Many well established companies and smaller entrepreneurial companies have significant resources that will compete with the Company's limited resources in the acquisition of Internet technology companies.

- There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to compete successfully in the acquisition of subsidiary companies

- The management of growth is expected to place significant pressure on the Company's managerial, operational, and financial resources

Edgar Filing: W3 GROUP INC - Form 10QSB

The Company will not be able to accomplish its growth strategy if it is not able to consummate future acquisitions and raise capital.
