The document filed herewith may be used in communications with stockholders of The New Germany Fund, Inc.

As you are probably aware, despite strong absolute and relative performance of The New Germany Fund, Inc. for the last several years, the fund will have a contested annual meeting. The opposition is being organized by a few hedge fund operators led by Phillip Goldstein, who conducted an unsuccessful proxy contest against the fund last year.

We are writing to ask for your support for the fund in light of its excellent performance (301% through dividends and stock price appreciation between March 31, 2003 and March 31, 2006) and eminently qualified director nominees. We have enclosed a proxy statement for our upcoming Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held on June 20, 2006 that highlights the nominees' qualifications to continue to serve as directors of the fund and gives you further information about the fund's performance over both the short and long terms.

We urge you to contact us directly at (212) 454-2123 or pattie.rosch@db.com or (212) 454-2208 or jonathan.diorio@db.com to discuss the proxy statement or if you have any questions at all about the fund. Alternatively, please feel free to contact Paul Schulman at The Altman Group, who is assisting us with this proxy solicitation, at (201) 806-2206 or pschulman@altmangroup.com

We thank you for your continued support for The New Germany Fund, Inc. and look forward to speaking to you soon.

Sincerely,

Pattie Rosch
