Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers.

On October 3, 2006, Airgas, Inc. (the Company) announced that Mr. Robert M. McLaughlin, who has served as interim Chief Financial Officer since the resignation of Roger Millay on September 20, 2006, was appointed Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the Company effective immediately. Mr. McLaughlin, 49, served as Vice President and Controller of the Company since June 2001 and, among other things, led the Company's accounting system conversion to Oracle and the development of a Central Accounting Group. Prior to joining the Company, Mr. McLaughlin served as Vice President-Finance for Asbury Automotive Group, an automotive retailer. Before that, Mr. McLaughlin served as Vice President of Finance and in other financial management roles with Unisource Worldwide, Inc., an international paper and industrial supply distribution company. Mr. McLaughlin, a Certified Public Accountant, began his career with Ernst & Young in 1979. He earned his bachelor's degree in accounting from the University of Dayton. The Company is conducting a search to fill the position of Vice President and Controller, and in the interim, Mr. McLaughlin will continue to perform the responsibilities of that position.

On October 3, 2006, the Company's Board of Directors appointed John C. van Roden, Jr. as a member of the Board to replace Robert L. Yohe, who had reached the mandatory retirement age for Board members. Mr. van Roden will stand for election at the 2007 Annual Meeting of stockholders. Mr. van Roden has also joined the Company's audit committee. Mr. van Roden, 57, served as Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of P. H. Glatfelter Company, a global specialty paper producer, from February 2005 until June 2006, and prior to that served as Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer from April 2003. In January 2006, Mr. van Roden announced his plans to step down as Chief Financial Officer on June 30, 2006. He was appointed Executive Vice President and will serve in that role through the balance of 2006 as part of the planned transition. From September 1998 to September 2002, Mr. van Roden served as Senior Vice President of Connectiv, a Wilmington, Delaware-based public utility, and prior to that, as Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Lukens Inc., a steel producer, from 1982 to 1998. Mr. Roden also serves as a member of the boards of directors of H.B. Fuller Company and Semco Energy, Inc.

The Company does have business relationships with the corporations, noted above, in which Mr. van Roden is a director or executive officer. In all instances, the Company enters into these arrangements in the ordinary course of business and each party provides to or receives from the other the relevant goods and services on a non-exclusive basis at arms-length negotiated rates. In addition, Mr. van Roden was not directly involved with the negotiation or consummation of any such arrangements. The Company also does not believe that in any of these cases Mr. van Roden received any compensation from the other corporations that is directly linked to the Company-related business arrangement. None of these arrangements is material to the Company or to the corporations with which Mr. van Roden is affiliated.
