Forward Looking Statements

Certain statements in this Current Report on Form 8-K (the "Current Report") of General Cable Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), including, without limitation, statements regarding future financial results and performance, plans and objectives, capital expenditures and the Company's or management's beliefs, expectations or opinions, are forward-looking statements. These statements are made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Actual results may differ materially from those statements as a result of factors, risks and uncertainties over which the Company has no control. Such factors include reliance on dividends and other transfers from subsidiaries to repay indebtedness; ability to service outstanding indebtedness; the Company's failure to comply with covenants in existing and future financing arrangements; covenants contained in existing indebtedness that restrict the Company's business operations; downgrade in the Company's credit ratings; ability to repurchase outstanding notes; ability to pay the conversion price on convertible notes; the economic strength and competitive nature of the geographic markets that the Company serves; economic, political and other risks of maintaining facilities and selling products in foreign countries; changes in industry standards and regulatory requirements; advancing technologies, such as fiber optic and wireless technologies; volatility in the price of copper and other raw materials, as well as fuel and energy and the Company's ability to reflect such volatility in its selling prices; interruption of supplies from the Company's key suppliers; the failure to negotiate extensions of the Company's labor agreements on acceptable terms; the Company's ability to increase manufacturing capacity and achieve productivity improvements; the Company's dependence upon distributors and retailers for non-exclusive sales of certain of the Company's products; pricing pressures in the Company's end markets; the Company's ability to maintain the uncommitted accounts payable or accounts receivable financing arrangements in its European operations; the impact of any additional charges in connection with plant closures and the Company's inventory accounting practices; the impact of certain asbestos litigation, unexpected judgments or settlements and environmental liabilities; the ability to successfully integrate the proposed acquisition and other acquisitions, costs associated with the proposed acquisition and other acquisitions; the receipt and timing of regulatory approvals for the proposed acquisition; ability to finance the acquisition purchase price and expiration of the commitment letter; the possibility that the proposed acquisition will not close; the reaction of customers, suppliers and competitors to the proposed acquisition; general market perception of the proposed acquisition, diversion of management attention from other business concerns due to the proposed acquisition and other acquisitions; undisclosed or unanticipated liabilities and risks resulting from the proposed acquisition; increased indebtedness resulting from the funding of the proposed acquisition; operations in additional foreign countries and political instability in such countries; the ability to successfully identify and finance other acquisitions; the impact of terrorist attacks or acts of war which may affect the markets in which the Company operates; the Company's ability to retain key employees; the Company's ability to service debt requirements and maintain adequate domestic and international credit facilities and credit lines; the impact on the Company's operating results of its pension accounting practices; the Company's ability to avoid limitations on utilization of net losses for income tax purposes; volatility in the market price of the Company's common stock all of which are more fully discussed in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on March 1, 2007, as well as any current and periodic reports filed with the Commission subsequent to such date. The Company undertakes no obligation to release publicly the result of any revisions to these forward-looking statements that may be made to reflect events or circumstances after the date hereof or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events.

Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

A copy of the materials that the Company will present in connection with upcoming presentations is furnished as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K. The information in this Item 7.01 is being furnished and shall not be deemed filed for purposes of Sections 11 and 12(a)(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, nor shall it be deemed incorporated by reference in any disclosure document of the Company, except as shall be expressly set forth by specific reference in such document.
