On November 22, 2004, United Bancshares, Inc. issued the following press release:

United Bancshares, Inc. (Nasdaq: UBOH news) On November 17, 2004, the Company's Chief Executive Officer and the Board of Directors of the Company reached an agreement, which will result in the Chief Executive Officer retiring from all executive management positions and resigning from all board positions. President and CEO E. Eugene Lehman announced his retirement after 16 years of service with the Company. The move, effective December 1, 2004, comes following a career, which saw the Company grow from approximately $44 million in assets and 30 employees to its current size of about $540 million and 160 employees.

James N. Reynolds, Chairman of United Bancshares said, "Gene Lehman has been an integral part of the Union Bank and Company for many years. Gene has a remarkable talent for resolving issues by bringing together differing perspectives. This comprehensive view has served the Company very well during his time with us."

Lehman commented, "I have thoroughly enjoyed leading an outstanding community bank which has consistently sought to serve the customers and communities where our offices are located. Together we have maintained an exemplary record of safety and prudence in meeting the financial needs of our communities and our shareholders, while being actively involved in the communities we serve. I am very pleased and proud to have been a part of this. I look forward to pursuing new opportunities, however, I will miss the customers, the employees, the shareholders, and the challenges of growing a bank that is committed to the future. To insure the continuance of Union Bank's 100-year-old tradition I have agreed to remain involved in assisting the Company in facilitating the management transition."

The Company's Board of Directors has commenced the search for a permanent President and CEO. The Company's Board reaffirmed its confidence in the ability of the current executive officers to manage the Company during the search for a new leader. During the transitional period, Brian D. Young, the Company's current Chief Financial Officer, will serve as the Company's Interim President and Chief Executive Officer. David A. Anderson, currently the Senior Loan Officer, will serve as the Interim President and Chief Executive Officer of The Union Bank Company, the Company's wholly-owned subsidiary.

United Bancshares, Inc. is a locally-owned and operated holding company of The Union Bank Company which serves Allen, Putnam, Sandusky, Van Wert and Wood Counties, with office locations in Bowling Green, Columbus Grove, Delphos, Gibsonburg, Kalida, Leipsic, Lima, Ottawa, and Pemberville. The Company's stock, which is quoted on the NASDAQ National Market System under the symbol UBOH, most recently closed at $15.29 per share.

Assuming the accuracy of LEHMAN's representation and warranty as set forth in Paragraph 5 herein, COMPANY also irrevocably and unconditionally releases and forever discharges LEHMAN from each and every CLAIM of any nature whatsoever, known or unknown, including but not limited to LEHMAN's service to the COMPANY as an officer, director and/or shareholder thereof and/or any actions or inactions by LEHMAN in his capacity as an officer, director and/or shareholder of the COMPANY.

Solely with respect to Paragraph 4b of this Agreement only and for no other purpose, LEHMAN hereby represents and warrants that, in connection with his service as an officer, director and/or shareholder of the COMPANY, LEHMAN has not engaged in any material violation of law and has not engaged in gross negligence or willful misconduct with respect to the operation of the COMPANY's business.

The PARTIES specifically deny and disclaim any liability and by entering into this General Release intend merely to resolve any differences in an amicable way.

LEHMAN is specifically not prohibited under this Paragraph 9 from acting as a consultant to or sitting on the board of directors of any financial institution.

10.

LEHMAN also agrees and covenants that, for the twelve (12) month period following his retirement, specifically from December 1, 2004, through November 30, 2005, he will not knowingly, directly or indirectly, initiate contact to attempt to induce or persuade any employee, agent or customer of the COMPANY to terminate such employment, agency or business relationship in order to enter into any such relationship on behalf of any other financial institution in competition with the COMPANY.

11.

Each PARTY agrees that it shall not make any disparaging, negative, false or derogatory statements or other communications, written or oral, about the other PARTY.

12.

LEHMAN agrees he is fully able and competent to enter into this General Release, that he has read this General Release in its entirety, that he had an opportunity to review it with an attorney, and that his agreement to all of its provisions is made freely, voluntarily, and with full knowledge and understanding of its contents. COMPANY is duly authorized to enter into this Agreement. Further, each PARTY represents and acknowledges that in executing this General Release, it does not rely and has not relied upon any representation or statement made by the other PARTY with regard to the subject matter, basis, or effect of this General Release or otherwise, other than the obligations of the PARTIES set forth in this General Release.

This General Release sets forth the entire agreement between the PARTIES hereto and fully supersedes any and all prior agreements or understandings, whether oral or written, between them. It also shall be interpreted, enforced, and governed by the laws of the State of Ohio. If, for any reason, any part(s) or language within any part(s) of this General Release shall be deemed invalid or unenforceable, all remaining parts shall remain binding and in full force and effect.
