Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On October 23, 2007, The Cincinnati Insurance Company, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Cincinnati Financial Corporation (the company), entered into a Secondary Block Trade Agreement with UBS Securities LLC in which The Cincinnati Insurance Company agreed to sell, and UBS Securities LLC agreed to buy, a block of 5.5 million shares of Fifth Third Bancorp (NASDAQ: FITB) common stock at a price of $29.50 per share, or total proceeds of $162,250,000. The agreement provides for a closing not later than October 29, 2007 and contains customary seller representations and warranties as well as a covenant to refrain from selling any other Fifth Third Bancorp shares for a period of 90 days after the closing date. The proceeds of this transaction were used to largely fund the company's accelerated stock repurchase described below.

On October 24, 2007, the company entered into a series of four Purchase Agreements with UBS AG, London Branch (the seller) (acting through UBS Securities, LLC as agent) providing for the company's accelerated repurchase of 4 million shares of its common stock. Under the agreement, the seller agrees to deliver the shares to the company for an initial price of $159,520,000 (based on a reference price of $39.88). Under the terms of the agreement, the seller is expected to purchase an equivalent number of shares in the open market over a period that will conclude no later than the first quarter of 2008. The initial price of the accelerated share repurchases is subject to adjustment based on the volume weighted average price of the shares during this period less a discount.
