PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

J.P. Morgan Securities Inc. has agreed, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the underwriting agreement between us, the selling stockholder and J.P. Morgan Securities Inc., as underwriter, to purchase from the selling stockholder, and the selling stockholder has agreed to sell to the underwriter, 5,000,000 shares of our Class A common stock.

The nature of the underwriter's obligation under the underwriting agreement is such that all of the shares being offered must be purchased if any are purchased.

The underwriter proposes initially to offer the shares directly to the public at the initial price to public set forth on the cover of this prospectus supplement and to certain dealers at such price less a concession not in excess of $0.22 per share. The underwriter may allow, and such dealers may reallow, a concession not in excess of $0.10 per share to certain other dealers. After the shares are released for sale to the public, the price to public and such concessions may be changed.

We and the selling stockholder have agreed that we will not, directly or indirectly, offer to sell, contract to sell, sell or otherwise dispose of any Class A common stock or securities convertible into or exchangeable for shares of Class A common stock for a period of 30 days and 90 days, respectively, after the date of this prospectus supplement, except with the prior written consent of J.P. Morgan or as otherwise provided in the underwriting agreement. We and the selling stockholder have agreed to indemnify the underwriter against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or to contribute to payments the underwriter may be required to make for those liabilities.

In connection with this offering, the underwriter may engage in transactions that stabilize, maintain or otherwise affect the price of the Class A common stock. Specifically, the underwriter may over-allot in connection with the offering, creating a short position. In addition, the underwriter may bid for, and purchase, shares of the Class A common stock in the open market to cover short positions or to stabilize the price of the Class A common stock.

Edgar Filing: ESTEE LAUDER COMPANIES INC - Form 424B4

Finally, the underwriter may reclaim selling concessions allowed for distributing the Class A common stock in the offering, if the underwriter repurchases previously distributed Class A common stock in transactions to cover short positions, in stabilization transactions or otherwise. Any of these activities may stabilize or maintain the market price of the Class A common stock above independent market levels. The underwriter is not required to engage in these activities, and may end any of these activities at any time.

THE ESTEE LAUDER COMPANIES INC.

The Estee Lauder Companies Inc., founded in 1946 by Estee and Joseph Lauder, is one of the world's leading manufacturers and marketers of quality skin care, makeup, fragrance and hair care products. Our products are sold in over 120 countries and territories under the following well-recognized brand names: Estee Lauder, Clinique, Aramis, Prescriptives, Origins, MoAOC, Bobbi Brown essentials, La Mer, jane, Aveda, Stila, Jo Malone and Bumble and bumble. We are also the global licensee for fragrances and cosmetics sold under the Tommy Hilfiger, Donna Karan and Kate Spade brands. Each brand is distinctly positioned within the cosmetics market.

We are a pioneer in the cosmetics industry and believe we are a leader in the industry due to the global recognition of our brand names, our leadership in product innovation, our strong market position in key geographic markets and the consistently high quality of our products. We sell our products principally through limited distribution channels to complement the images associated with our brands. These channels, encompassing over 10,000 points of sale, consist primarily of upscale department stores, specialty retailers, upscale perfumeries and pharmacies and, to a lesser extent, free-standing company stores, stores on cruise ships, in-flight and duty free shops. We believe that our strategy of pursuing limited distribution strengthens our relationships with retailers, enables our brands to be among the best selling product lines at the stores and heightens the aspirational quality of our brands. With the acquisitions of jane and Aveda in fiscal 1998, we broadened our distribution to include new channels, namely self-select outlets and salons. In November 1998, we began selling products directly to consumers over the Internet. We now offer Estee Lauder, Clinique, Origins, Bobbi Brown essentials and MoAOC products on-line, and we are developing e-commerce capabilities for several of our other brands.

In fiscal 2000, we acquired Stila, principally a line of prestige makeup products, Jo Malone Ltd., a London-based skin care and fragrance company, and a controlling majority equity interest in Bumble and bumble, a salon and hair care products business. In addition, we obtained an exclusive worldwide license to manufacture, market and sell Kate Spade beauty products. We also acquired gloss.com, an Internet beauty site, as part of our strategy to use the Internet to benefit our overall business. In August 2000, we formed a joint venture with Chanel, Inc. and Clarins (U.S.A.) Inc. to re-launch the gloss.com website as a multi-brand site. Upon re-launch, gloss.com is expected to feature select brands from each of the participating companies.

We have been controlled by the Lauder family since the founding of our company. Members of the Lauder family, some of whom are directors, executive officers, and/or employees, beneficially own, directly or indirectly, as of April 6, 2001, shares of Class A common stock and Class B common stock having approximately 91.9% of the outstanding voting power of our common stock.

PRODUCTS

Edgar Filing: ESTEE LAUDER COMPANIES INC - Form 424B4

SKIN CARE - Our broad range of skin care products addresses various skin care needs for women and men. These products include moisturizers, creams, lotions, cleansers, sun screens and self tanning products, a number of which are developed for use on particular areas of the body, such as the face, the hands or the eyes. Skin care products accounted for approximately 33% and 36% of our net sales in the six months ended December 31, 2000 and fiscal 2000, respectively.

MAKEUP - We manufacture, market and sell a full array of makeup products, including lipsticks, mascaras, foundations, eyeshadows, nail polishes and powders. Many of the products are offered in an extensive array of shades and colors. We also sell related items such as compacts, brushes and other makeup tools. Makeup products accounted for approximately 34% and 36% of our net sales in the six months ended December 31, 2000 and fiscal 2000, respectively.

FRAGRANCE - We offer a variety of fragrance products for women and men. The fragrances are sold in various forms, including eau de parfum sprays and colognes, as well as lotions, powders, creams and soaps that are based on a particular fragrance. Fragrance products accounted for approximately 28% and 25% of our net sales in the six months ended December 31, 2000 and fiscal 2000, respectively.

HAIR CARE - We increased the range and depth of our hair care product offerings with the acquisitions of the Aveda business in December 1997 and a controlling majority equity interest in Bumble and bumble in June 2000. Hair care products are offered mainly in salons and in free-standing retail stores and include styling products, shampoos, conditioners and finishing sprays. Hair care products accounted for approximately 4% and 3% of our net sales in the six months ended December 31, 2000 and fiscal 2000, respectively.

Given the personal nature of our products and the wide array of consumer preferences and tastes, as well as competition for the attention of consumers, our strategy has been to market and promote our products through distinctive brands seeking to address broad preferences and tastes. Each brand has a single global image that is promoted with consistent logos, packaging and advertising designed to enhance its image and differentiate it from other brands.

ESTEE LAUDER - Estee Lauder brand products, which we have sold since 1946, are positioned as luxurious, classic and aspirational. We believe that Estee Lauder brand products are technologically advanced and innovative and have a worldwide reputation for excellence. The broad product line principally consists of skin care, makeup and fragrance products that are presented in high quality packaging.

CLINIQUE - First introduced in 1968, Clinique skin care and makeup products are all allergy tested and 100% fragrance free and have been designed to address individual skin types and needs. The products are based on the research and related expertise of leading dermatologists. Clinique skin care products are generally marketed as part of the 3-Step System: Cleanse, Exfoliate, Moisturize. Since autumn 1997, we have been broadening Clinique's product offerings by adding new fragrances and hair care products.

ARAMIS - We pioneered the marketing of prestige men's grooming and skin care products and fragrances with the introduction of Aramis products in 1964. Aramis continues to offer one of the broadest lines of prestige men's products and has extended the line to include fragrances for women.

PRESCRIPTIVES - We developed and introduced Prescriptives in 1979.

Edgar Filing: ESTEE LAUDER COMPANIES INC - Form 424B4

Prescriptives is positioned as a color authority with an advanced collection of highly individualized products primarily addressing the makeup and skin care needs of contemporary women with active lifestyles. The products are characterized by simple concepts, minimalist design and an innovative image and, through a system of color application and an extensive range of makeup shades, accommodate a diverse group of consumers.

ORIGINS - Origins, our most recent internally-developed brand, was introduced in 1990. It is positioned as a plant-based line of skin care, makeup and aromatherapy products that combine time-tested botanical ingredients with modern science to promote total well-being. Origins sells its products through stand-alone Origins stores, stores-within-stores (which are designed to replicate the Origins store environment within a department store), at traditional retail counters and directly to consumers over the Internet.

TOMMY HILFIGER - We have an exclusive global license arrangement to develop and market men's and women's fragrances and cosmetics under the Tommy Hilfiger brand. We launched the line in 1995 with a men's fragrance, "tommy". Today, we manufacture and sell a variety of fragrances for men and women, as well as skin care, makeup and hair care products under the license. These fragrances, together with our complementary line of face, body and hair products, are available at traditional department store counters as well as "tommy's shops", separate areas within department stores dedicated to promoting all of our Tommy Hilfiger licensed products.

MOAOC - MoAoC products comprise a broad line of color-oriented, professional cosmetics and professional makeup tools targeting makeup artists and fashion-conscious consumers. The products are sold through a limited number of department and specialty stores, at stand-alone MoAoC stores and, beginning in July 2000, directly to consumers over the Internet. We acquired Make-Up Art Cosmetics Limited, the manufacturer of MoAoC products, in three stages; in December 1994, March 1997 and February 1998.

BOBBI BROWN ESSENTIALS - In October 1995, we acquired the Bobbi Brown essentials line of color cosmetics, professional makeup brushes and skin care products. Bobbi Brown products are manufactured to our specifications, primarily by third parties, and sold through a limited number of department and specialty stores and directly to consumers over the Internet.

LA MER - La Mer products consist of moisturizing creams, lotions, cleansers, toners and other skin care products. The line, which is available in very limited distribution in the United States and certain other countries, is an extension of the initial Creme De La Mer product that we acquired in 1995.

JANE - In October 1997, we acquired Sassaby, Inc., the owner of the jane brand of color cosmetics targeted to young consumers. We added jane goodskin, a line of youth oriented skin care products, in fiscal 2000. jane products are currently distributed only in the United States through the self-select distribution channel.

DONNA KARAN COSMETICS - In November 1997, we obtained the exclusive global license to develop and market a line of fragrances and other cosmetics under the Donna Karan New York and DKNY trademarks. We are continuing to market and sell certain products that were originally sold by The Donna Karan Company. We launched the first DKNY women's fragrance under the license in fiscal 2000 and a DKNY men's fragrance in fiscal 2001.

AVEDA - We acquired the Aveda business in December 1997 and have since acquired select distributors and retail stores. Aveda, a prestige hair care leader, is a manufacturer and marketer of plant-based hair care, skin care, makeup and body care products. We sell Aveda products to third-party distributors and prestige salons and spas, and directly to consumers at our own stand-alone Aveda Environmental Lifestyle stores and Aveda Institutes.

STILA - In August 1999, we acquired the business of Los Angeles-based Stila Cosmetics, Inc. Stila is known for its stylish, wearable makeup products and eco-friendly packaging and has developed a following among young, fashion-forward consumers. Stila products are currently available in limited distribution in the United States and certain other countries.

JO MALONE - We acquired London-based Jo Malone Limited in October 1999. Jo Malone is known for its prestige skin care, fragrance and hair care products showcased at its flagship store in London. Products are also available through a company catalogue and at a very limited group of specialty stores in the United States and Canada.

BUMBLE AND BUMBLE - In June 2000, we acquired a controlling majority equity interest in Bumble and Bumble Products, LLC, a marketer and distributor of quality hair care products, and Bumble and Bumble, LLC, operator of a premier hair salon in New York City. Bumble and bumble styling and other hair care products are distributed to top-tier salons and select specialty stores. The founder and two of his partners own the remaining equity interests and will continue to manage the domestic operations.

In addition to the foregoing brands, we manufacture and sell Kiton fragrances as a licensee. We recently became the global licensee for Kate Spade beauty products, and we expect the first products in the Kate Spade line to be launched in fiscal 2002. These products are marketed separately from our other brands.

- (a) Net earnings for the six months ended December 31, 2000 include a one-time charge of $2.2 million, after tax, or $.01 per common share, attributable to the cumulative effect of adopting Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 133 "Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities".
- (b) EBITDA is an additional measure of operating performance used by management. EBITDA, like operating income, does not include the effects of interest and taxes and additionally excludes the "non-cash" effects of depreciation and amortization on current earnings. While the components of EBITDA may vary from company to company, we exclude minority interest adjustments, all depreciation charges related to property, plant and equipment and all amortization charges including amortization of goodwill, purchased royalty rights (fully amortized in November 2000), leasehold improvements and other intangible assets. While we consider EBITDA useful in analyzing our operating results it is not intended to replace, or act as a substitute for, any presentation included in the consolidated financial statements prepared in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.
- (c) Due to the change in the capital structure effected by our recapitalization in connection with our initial public offering in fiscal 1996, net earnings per common share and weighted average common shares outstanding for the year ended June 30, 1996 are reflected on a pro forma basis as if the recapitalization had been effected at the beginning of the fiscal year.
- (d) On April 26, 1999, the Board of Directors approved a two-for-one stock split in the form of a 100% stock dividend on all of our outstanding common stock. The stock dividend was paid on June 2, 1999 to all holders of record of shares of our common stock at the close of business on May 10, 1999. All share and per share data presented in this prospectus has been restated to reflect the stock split.

SIX MONTHS FISCAL 2001 AS COMPARED WITH SIX MONTHS FISCAL 2000

NET SALES

Net sales increased 6% or $140.5 million to $2,469.3 million for the six months ended December 31, 2000 as compared with the prior-year period. Excluding the impact of foreign currency translation, net sales increased 10%. Growth on a reported basis reflects a strong U.S. dollar relative to the prior-year period's exchange rates in virtually all markets in which we do business. The increase was due to growth in our skin care, makeup and hair care product categories and growth from our newer brands partially offset by a decline in fragrance net sales.

PRODUCT CATEGORIES

SKIN CARE. Net sales of skin care products increased 10% or $75.2 million to $818.4 million. The skin care category increase is primarily attributable to recently launched products such as Idealist, Anti-Gravity Firming Lift Cream, Body Power and Have a Nice Day. The Asia/Pacific region provided double-digit growth with the success of popular whitening products such as Active White and White Light Brightening System, which continue to be well received. We have added a number of products to the Ginger Bath and Body Collection, which has helped maintain excitement about the products and resulted in increased sales. The Clinique Body Line rollout in the European and Asia/Pacific markets has also contributed to an increase in net sales.

MAKEUP. Makeup net sales increased 10% or $74.7 million to $851.8 million supported by new and existing products and increased sales of Mo Ao C products. New launches of High Impact Eye Shadow, Equalizer and Luxe Makeup have contributed to the growth in this category. Recently launched products such as Go Pout Lipcolor, ColorOptions and Skin Clarifying Makeup also contributed to the increase in makeup sales. In addition, established products such as the Futurist line and Sheer Powder Blusher added to increased sales.

FRAGRANCE. Net sales of fragrance products decreased 6% or $44.4 million to $696.7 million. The recent launches of Intuition and Ginger Essence contributed positively to growth and partially offset lower sales in the fragrance category. The rollout of DKNY for women also contributed to growth in the category. The decrease in net sales is attributable to lower sales of Tommy Hilfiger licensed products, as well as softness of the fragrance business in the United States this holiday season. Results for the prior-year period include the international rollout of Freedom for him, Freedom for her and Clinique Happy for Men, which creates a difficult comparison to the current year.

HAIR CARE. Net sales of hair care products increased 67% or $35.7 million to $88.6 million. The increase in hair care sales is attributable to strong sales of Aveda products such as Custom Control and Sap Moss Shampoo and new Company-owned retail stores. The Clinique Simple Hair Care System, acquired distributors, as well as sales of products and services offered by Bumble and bumble, in which we acquired a controlling majority interest in June 2000, also benefited the category.

The introduction of new products may have some cannibalizing effect on sales of existing products, which we take into account in our business planning.

GEOGRAPHIC REGIONS

Sales in the Americas increased 7% or $97.9 million to $1,530.2 million for the six months ended December 31, 2000 as compared with the prior-year period. This increase was driven by sales in the skin care, makeup and hair care categories, the success of new and recently launched products and the growth of our newer brands. In Europe, the Middle East & Africa, net sales increased 2% or $14.6 million to $622.0 million compared with the prior-year period. The increase was primarily the result of higher net sales in the United Kingdom, the travel retail and distributor businesses and the addition of Jo Malone (acquired in October 1999). These increases were offset by decreased sales in Germany, Italy, South Africa and France. Excluding the impact of foreign currency translation, sales in Europe, the Middle East & Africa increased 15% reflecting growth in all countries in the region. Net sales in Asia/Pacific increased 10% or $28.0 million to $317.1 million primarily due to higher net sales in Korea, Taiwan, Hong Kong and Thailand partially offset by lower sales in Japan, which remains a difficult market. Excluding the impact of foreign currency translation, all countries in the Asia/Pacific region contributed to 14% growth over the prior-year period.

We strategically stagger our new product launches by geographic market, which may account for differences in regional sales growth.

Edgar Filing: ESTEE LAUDER COMPANIES INC - Form 424B4

Cost of sales as a percentage of total net sales decreased to 21.9% from 23.0%, reflecting changes in distribution and product mix, as well as the impact of our manufacturing and sourcing initiatives. Changes in distribution include the rollout of our own retail stores and the acquisition of certain distributor operations, both of which contributed to higher gross margins. In addition, the synergies achieved by incorporating our recently acquired businesses in our manufacturing and sourcing initiatives had a favorable impact on gross margins.

OPERATING EXPENSES

Operating expenses increased to 63.6% of net sales as compared with 63.1% of net sales in the prior-year period. This change primarily relates to the increased cost of our retail store operations, including start-up costs, and Internet operations, which have higher operating cost structures than our traditional distribution channels, and also reflects additional fixed costs associated with these distribution methods. Additionally, depreciation and amortization charges have increased compared to the prior-year period, reflecting increased goodwill amortization from acquisitions and depreciation related to capital investments partially offset by the conclusion of amortization related to purchased royalty rights. Operating expenses of the period are subject to the type and timing of advertising and promotional spending due to product launches and rollouts as well as incremental advertising in select markets.

OPERATING INCOME

Operating income increased 11% or $34.2 million to $356.8 million as compared to the prior-year period. Operating margins were 14.5% of net sales in the current period as compared to 13.9% in the prior-year period. The increase in operating income and margins was due to higher net sales and gross profit margins due to manufacturing efficiencies achieved and changes in distribution and product mix. This was partially offset by increased spending related to retail store expansion, increased costs to implement our Internet strategy and higher depreciation and amortization expenses.

PRODUCT CATEGORIES

Operating income in the makeup and skin care categories increased 24% and 19%, respectively, primarily due to increased net sales and a reduction in the cost of goods sold. Operating income in the fragrance category decreased 15%, reflecting continued advertising and promotional spending in a difficult fragrance business and tough comparisons to a strong prior-year period. Operating income in the hair care category decreased 6%, primarily due to increased costs related to changes in distribution and investments in the hair care category.

GEOGRAPHIC REGIONS

Operating income in the Americas increased 9% or $17.6 million to $217.5 million for the six months ended December 31, 2000 as compared with the prior-year period, primarily due to net sales increases related to new and recently launched products and the inclusion of Bumble and bumble partially offset by a decline in fragrance net sales. In Europe, the Middle East & Africa, operating income increased 19% or $16.4 million to $103.8 million primarily due to improved operating results in the United Kingdom, the travel retail and distributor businesses and Germany, partially offset by lower operating income in South Africa and France. In Asia/Pacific, operating income increased 1% or $0.2 million to $35.5 million due to slightly higher results in most markets offset by lower income in Japan.

INTEREST EXPENSE, NET

Net interest expense was $9.4 million for the six months ended December 31, 2000 as compared to $10.6 million in the prior-year period. As a result of an increase in available working capital during the period, we have higher interest income on invested funds and lower interest expense related to reduced short-term borrowings.

PROVISION FOR INCOME TAXES

The provision for income taxes represents federal, foreign, state and local income taxes. The effective rate for income taxes for the six months ended December 31, 2000 was 36% compared with 37% in the prior-year period. These rates reflect the effect of state and local taxes, tax rates in foreign jurisdictions and certain nondeductible expenses. The decrease in the effective income tax rate was principally attributable to ongoing tax-planning initiatives. Our expected effective tax rate for the full fiscal year is 36%.

EBITDA

Earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization ("EBITDA") is an additional measure of operating performance used by management. EBITDA, like operating income, does not include the effects of interest and taxes and additionally excludes the "non-cash" effects of depreciation and amortization on current earnings. While the components of EBITDA may vary from company to company, we exclude minority interest adjustments, all depreciation charges related to property, plant and equipment and all amortization charges including amortization of goodwill, purchased royalty rights (fully amortized in November 2000), leasehold improvements and other intangible assets. These components of operating income do not necessarily result in a capital requirement in the current period, and, in the opinion of management, many of the underlying assets, both tangible and intangible, create value by supporting the global recognition of brand names and product innovation and by consistently producing quality products for our customers and consumers. While we consider EBITDA useful in analyzing our operating results, it is not intended to replace, or act as a substitute for, any presentation included in the consolidated financial statements prepared in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

EBITDA increased 11% to $437.6 million or 17.7% of net sales as compared to $392.9 million or 16.9% of net sales in the prior-year period. The improvement in EBITDA is primarily attributable to sales growth and gross margin improvements.

FISCAL 2000 AS COMPARED WITH FISCAL 1999

NET SALES

Net sales increased 10% or $405.3 million to $4,366.8 million, reflecting improvements in each product category and each geographic region. We achieved double-digit growth in net sales of our makeup products, both domestically and abroad, on the strength of new and existing products, expanded distribution of MoAoC products and the addition of Stila. Improvements in sales of skin care products primarily relate to new products targeting diverse groups of consumers. Growth of hair care sales was fueled by new product introductions and changes in our lines of distribution. Before considering the effect of converting foreign currencies, total net sales grew 11%, with double-digit contributions from each region.

PRODUCT CATEGORIES

SKIN CARE. Skin care product sales increased 11% or $153.6 million to $1,552.4 million, partially reflecting our ability to capitalize on the success of Resilience Lift by rolling it out internationally and our introduction of a complementary product, Resilience Lift Eye Creme. Initial shipments of Idealist Skin Refinisher as well as sales of other new products, such as Body Clinique, Clinique Acne Solutions and Spotlight Skin Tone Perfector, contributed to improvements in the category, as did a line of Origins brand ginger-based products, including Ginger Souffle and Ginger Body Wash. Sales of certain existing products, such as those in the Clinique 3-Step Skin Care System, were consistently strong, while others such as Diminish and Turnaround Cream were lower.

MAKEUP. Our net sales of makeup products increased 12% or $166.7 million to $1,579.5 million supported by new and existing products, the addition of Stila and increased sales of MoAoC products. Sales growth of our MoAoC lines has been achieved through growth in existing business and expansion of both traditional and retail distribution. New products such as the recently launched *magic by Prescriptives, City Stick and Longstemmed Lashes contributed to improvements in the category, as did existing products such as Long Last Lipstick and Liquid Lipstick. Our makeup business also benefited from the domestic launch of Go Pout Lipstick and the rollout of Superfit Makeup and Pure Color Lipstick internationally. Improvements were partially offset by lower sales of Indelible Lipstick and Smudgesicles.

FRAGRANCE. Net sales of fragrance products increased 4% or $43.7 million to $1,092.3 million. For the year, sales of Tommy Hilfiger licensed products improved. Sales of the recently launched Freedom for him and Freedom for her outpaced decreased sales of existing Tommy Hilfiger fragrances. DKNY for women was launched domestically and Donna Karan Cashmere Mist was rolled out internationally. Both of these products have added to growth in the category. In its second full fiscal year, sales of Clinique Happy continued to improve and during fiscal 2000 we completed the master brand with the launch of Clinique Happy for Men. Dazzling Gold and Dazzling Silver, which were rolled out in the prior year, caused difficult comparisons for the fragrance category this year.

HAIR CARE. Sales of hair care products increased 38% or $31.5 million to $113.9 million primarily due to Aveda, driven by an increase in the number of company-owned retail stores, the successful introduction of new products and the effect of the acquisitions of third-party distributors. In June 2000, we acquired a majority interest in Bumble and bumble. Bumble and bumble offers an array of prestige styling and other hair care products, which are sold to exclusive salons and spas.

GEOGRAPHIC REGIONS

Sales in the Americas increased 11% or $260.9 million to $2,658.8 million. This increase was driven by sales of new and existing products across all categories and growth in our newer brands. In Europe, the Middle East & Africa, net sales increased 4% or $48.6 million to $1,131.0 million. The increase was primarily the result of higher net sales in Spain, Italy, France and the travel retail business, partially offset by lower sales in Germany. Also contributing to regional sales growth were sales by Jo Malone, which was acquired in October 1999. Excluding the impact of foreign currency translation, sales in Europe, the Middle East & Africa increased 12%. Net sales in Asia/Pacific increased 20% or $95.8 million to $577.0 million, reflecting increases in all regions, particularly Japan, Korea, Taiwan and Australia. Excluding the impact of foreign currency translation, Asia/Pacific sales grew 10% over the prior-year period.

COST OF SALES

Cost of sales increased $72.2 million or 8% to $972.1 million from $899.9 million last year. Cost of sales as a percentage of total net sales decreased 40 basis points to 22.3% from 22.7%, reflecting changes in product distribution, as well as the impact of our production and sourcing initiatives. Changes in product distribution include the rollout of our own retail stores and the acquisition of certain distributor operations both of which contributed to higher gross margins. In addition, our cost of sales reduction program had a favorable impact on gross margins of products offered by our newer acquisitions.

OPERATING EXPENSES

Total operating expenses increased to 65.9% of net sales as compared with 65.8% of net sales in the prior year. This change primarily relates to increased costs of new/modified channels of distribution, which have higher operating cost structures than our traditional channels, as well as higher depreciation and amortization. Operating expenses are subject to the timing of advertising and promotional spending due to product launches and rollouts as well as incremental advertising in select markets.

OPERATING INCOME

Operating income increased 13% or $58.9 million to $515.8 million as compared with 12% growth to $456.9 million last year. Operating margins were 11.8% of net sales in the current period as compared to 11.5%. The increase in operating income and margins was due to higher net sales coupled with production efficiencies achieved and changes in distribution, partially offset by planned increases in selling, general and administrative spending related to businesses acquired and new/modified channels of distribution.

PRODUCT CATEGORIES

Operating income increased in the skin care, makeup and hair care categories by 17%, 15% and 9%, respectively, primarily due to sales growth. Fragrance operating income increased 1% as strong sales increases in the early portion of the year gave way to softer sales in the latter half, while planned advertising and promotional spending was relatively constant throughout the year. The advertising and promotion for fragrance indirectly supports other categories by generating increased traffic at points of sale.

GEOGRAPHIC REGIONS

Operating income in the Americas increased 9% or $22.9 million to $287.9 million primarily due to increases in skin care product sales, as well as the inclusion of operating results from recent acquisitions. In Europe, the Middle East & Africa, operating income increased 16% or $23.4 million to $168.9 million reflecting improved operating results in Spain, Italy and the travel retail business. In Asia/Pacific, operating income increased 27% or $12.6 million to $59.0 million due to improved results in Taiwan, Japan, Korea and Australia.

INTEREST EXPENSE, NET

Edgar Filing: ESTEE LAUDER COMPANIES INC - Form 424B4

Net interest expense was $17.1 million and $16.7 million for the years ended June 30, 2000 and 1999, respectively. This net increase reflects lower interest income from investments, related to lower average cash balances, partially offset by lower interest expense resulting from our management of interest rates and short-term borrowings.

PROVISION FOR INCOME TAXES

The provision for income taxes represents federal, foreign, state and local income taxes. The effective rate for income taxes for fiscal 2000 was 37% compared with 38% in the prior year. These rates are higher than the statutory federal tax rate due to the effect of state and local taxes, higher tax rates in certain foreign jurisdictions and certain nondeductible expenses. The decrease in the effective income tax rate is principally attributable to tax planning initiatives and reduction of certain local market statutory tax rates.

EBITDA

EBITDA increased 15% to $662.6 million or 15.2% of net sales as compared to $574.2 million or 14.5% of net sales last year. The improvement in EBITDA is primarily attributable to improvements in gross profit related to sales growth and production efficiencies achieved.

FISCAL 1999 AS COMPARED WITH FISCAL 1998

NET SALES

Net sales increased in all product categories and all geographic segments resulting in an increase in fiscal 1999 net sales of 9% to $3,961.5 million. Hair care and makeup benefited from a full year of sales of Aveda and jane products. New skin care products were well received, driving growth in that category. Internationally, the Europe, Middle East & Africa region contributed a 13% increase in net sales over the prior year. Foreign currency translation did not significantly impact net sales.

PRODUCT CATEGORIES

SKIN CARE. Skin Care sales increased 12% to $1,398.8 million, reflecting the launch of Stop Signs and Resilience Lift and a full year of sales of Diminish internationally. In addition to these increases, Clinique All About Eyes contributed to the category's year over year improvement. The overall increase was partially offset by lower net sales of Fruition Extra.

MAKEUP. Net sales of makeup products increased 7% to $1,412.8 million due in part to the inclusion of a full year of sales of Aveda and jane products. The fiscal 1999 launch of Quickliner for Eyes, Superfit Makeup and Sheer Powder Blusher increased sales, and Two-In-One Eyeshadow, DoubleWear and Photochrome experienced continued success. These increases were partially offset by lower sales of Superlast Cream Lipstick, which was successfully launched in fiscal 1998.

FRAGRANCE. Fragrance sales increased 6% to $1,048.6 million. The increase was primarily attributable to the worldwide success of Clinique Happy and the fiscal 1999 introduction of Dazzling Gold and Dazzling Silver. The rollout of Hilfiger Athletics and "tommy girl" into remaining international markets contributed to higher fragrance sales, offset in part by lower sales of "tommy".

Edgar Filing: ESTEE LAUDER COMPANIES INC - Form 424B4

HAIR CARE. Net sales of hair care products increased $30.0 million or 57%, to $82.4 million. This increase primarily reflected the inclusion of Aveda products for a full year.

GEOGRAPHIC REGIONS

Sales in the Americas were $2,397.9 million representing a 9% increase. The region benefited from the inclusion of a full year of sales of Aveda and jane products as well as strong sales from new skin care products. Net sales in Europe, the Middle East & Africa increased 13% to $1,082.4 million, with double-digit sales increases in the skin care and fragrance categories. Net sales in Spain, the United Kingdom, Italy, Germany, France, Belgium and the distributor and travel retail businesses all increased as we introduced new products and rolled out products that were previously not available in the region. In Asia/Pacific, net sales increased 6% to $481.2 million, primarily due to higher net sales in Japan, Korea and Thailand, offset by slightly lower sales in Australia and Hong Kong. Currency translation did not have a material impact on any of these geographic segments.

COST OF SALES

Cost of sales as a percent of net sales was 22.7% in each of the last two years, reflecting the integration of Aveda and jane products, which have higher product cost structures than our other brands, offset by continued cost reduction efforts and a shift in product mix for our core brands.

OPERATING EXPENSES

Operating expenses as a percent of net sales decreased to 65.8% in fiscal 1999 from 66.0% in fiscal 1998. The decrease was the result of productivity gains in advertising and promotional spending and other cost controls, partially offset by a full year of goodwill amortization and incremental spending related to our Year 2000 remediation program. Shifts in product mix and the timing and type of new product introductions affect our level of selling, advertising and promotional spending. In addition to these market influences, our ratio of operating expenses to net sales benefited from the integration of favorable operating cost structures of acquired companies.

OPERATING INCOME

Operating income increased 12% to $456.9 million and operating margins increased to 11.5% in fiscal 1999 from 11.3% in fiscal 1998. These increases were achieved by maintaining our gross profit margins and controlling certain operating expenses so they increased at a lower rate than net sales.

PRODUCT CATEGORIES

Operating income in the skin care category increased 18% to $205.9 million due primarily to the launches of Stop Signs and Resilience Lift. Skin care products, which are primarily marketed under our core brand names, typically have lower cost of goods than our other products. Operating income for makeup increased 4% to $158.2 million as a result of higher sales from new product introductions, including Quickliner for Eyes, Superfit Makeup and Sheer Powder Blusher. Operating income for fragrance products was $79.7 million, an increase of $4.2 million or 6%. This increase was primarily attributable to increased sales from the introduction of Dazzling Gold and Dazzling Silver and the continued success of Clinique Happy. Operating income from fragrances as a percent of net sales is typically lower than other product segments as fragrance products generally have a higher cost of goods and are often supported by higher advertising and promotional spending. The higher advertising and promotion for fragrance indirectly supports other categories by generating increased traffic at points of sale. Operating income from the hair care category increased 43% to $11.4 million primarily due to the inclusion of Aveda products for a full year.

GEOGRAPHIC REGIONS

Operating income in the Americas increased 7% to $265.0 million primarily due to increased sales in the skin care and makeup segments, as well as a full year of operating profits from Aveda. In Europe, the Middle East & Africa, operating income increased 11% to $145.5 million as a result of a strong travel retail business and better operating results in Spain, Germany, Italy and Belgium, partially offset by lower results in the United Kingdom. In Asia/Pacific, operating income increased $16.6 million, or 56%, to $46.4 million due to increased sales and the implementation of planned operating expense efficiencies in Japan, Australia, Taiwan and Thailand.

INTEREST EXPENSE, NET

Net interest expense increased $10.4 million to $16.7 million as borrowings related to fiscal 1998 business acquisitions were outstanding for the full year.

PROVISION FOR INCOME TAXES

The provision for income taxes represents federal, foreign, state and local income taxes. The effective rate for income taxes for fiscal 1999 was 38% compared to 40% in the prior-year period. These rates are higher than the statutory federal tax rate due to the effect of state and local taxes, higher tax rates in certain foreign jurisdictions and certain nondeductible expenses. The decrease in the effective income tax rate was principally attributable to tax planning initiatives and the tax effect of foreign operations.

EBITDA

EBITDA increased by $67.6 million to $574.2 million, or 14.5%, of net sales, as compared to $506.6 million, or 14.0%, of net sales, in fiscal 1998. This improvement was primarily attributable to higher net sales and operating expense efficiencies achieved.

FINANCIAL CONDITION

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Our principal sources of funds historically have been cash flows from operations and borrowings under commercial paper and committed and uncommitted credit lines provided by banks in the United States and abroad. At December 31, 2000, we had cash and cash equivalents of $424.0 million as compared to $320.3 million at June 30, 2000.

We have a $750.0 million commercial paper program, under which we have issued, and intend to issue, commercial paper in the United States. Our commercial paper is currently rated A-1 by Standard & Poor's and P-1 by Moody's. Our long-term credit ratings are A+ by Standard & Poor's and A1 by Moody's. At December 31, 2000, we had $205.0 million of commercial paper outstanding and a $200.0 million term loan outstanding which is due in February 2005. Commercial paper is classified as long-term debt in our balance sheet based upon our intent and ability to refinance maturing commercial paper on a long-term basis. We also have an effective shelf registration statement covering the potential issuance of up to $400.0 million in debt securities. It is our policy to maintain backup facilities to support our commercial paper program, and its classification as long-term debt. As of December 31, 2000, we had an unused $400.0 million revolving credit facility. We expect to renew or replace this facility before it expires on July 1, 2001.

Our business is seasonal in nature and, accordingly, our working capital needs vary. To meet these needs, we could issue up to an additional $545.0 million of commercial paper under our program. We also have $30.8 million in uncommitted facilities. No borrowings were outstanding under these facilities as of December 31, 2000.

Total debt as a percentage of total capitalization was 20% at December 31, 2000 and 22% at June 30, 2000.

Net cash provided by operating activities was $235.7 million in the six months ended December 31, 2000 as compared to $244.9 million in the prior-year period. This decrease in net cash provided by operating activities primarily reflects a smaller increase in accrual balances, which are subject to the type and timing of various expenditures, including advertising and promotional activities, partially offset by increased profits before depreciation and amortization. Net cash used for investing activities was $94.4 million in the six months ended December 31, 2000 as compared to $199.8 million in the prior-year period primarily reflecting fewer acquisitions. Net cash used for financing activities of $34.8 million principally reflects the payment of dividends.

In September 1998, our Board of Directors authorized a share repurchase program. We have purchased, and may continue to purchase, over an unspecified period of time, a total of up to eight million shares of Class A common stock in the open market or in privately negotiated transactions, depending on market conditions and other factors. Since inception, we have purchased approximately 1.1 million shares under this program.

Capital expenditures amounted to $87.9 million, $76.5 million, $180.9 million, $117.9 million and $120.6 million in the six-month periods ended December 31, 2000 and 1999, and in fiscal 2000, 1999 and 1998, respectively. Spending in all periods primarily reflects the continued upgrade of manufacturing equipment, dies and molds, new store openings, store improvements, counter construction and information technology advancements, as well as incremental capital spending by acquired companies. Fiscal 1998 spending included costs related to the construction of the Lachen distribution center and the purchase of a facility in Blaine, Minnesota.

Dividends declared were $35.5 million, $35.4 million, $70.9 million, $65.4 million and $63.6 million in the six-month periods ended December 31, 2000 and 1999, and in fiscal 2000, 1999 and 1998, respectively. The Board of Directors increased the quarterly dividend rate from $.0425 per share of common stock to $.05 per share, effective with the dividend paid in July 1999. For the six-month periods ended December 31, 2000 and 1999 and in fiscal 2000, 1999 and 1998, dividends declared on our common stock totaled $23.8 million, $23.7 million, $47.5 million, $42.0 million and $40.2 million, respectively. On February 14, 2001, the Board of Directors declared a quarterly dividend of $.05 per share on our common stock, payable on April 3, 2001 to stockholders of record at the close of business on March 16, 2001.

The effects of inflation have not been significant to our overall operating results in recent years. Generally, we have been able to increase selling prices sufficiently to offset cost increases, which have been moderate.

We believe that cash on hand, cash generated from operations, available credit lines and access to credit markets will be adequate to support currently planned business operations and capital expenditures on both a near-term and long-term basis.

DERIVATIVE FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

We address certain financial exposures through a controlled program of risk management that includes the use of derivative financial instruments. We primarily enter into foreign currency forward exchange contracts and foreign currency options to reduce the effects of fluctuating foreign currency exchange rates. We enter into interest rate swaps and options to manage the effects of interest rate movements on our aggregate liability portfolio. We categorize these instruments as entered into for purposes other than trading.

For each derivative contract we enter into, we formally document the relationship between the hedging instrument and hedged item, as well as its risk-management objective and strategy for undertaking the hedge. This process includes linking all derivatives that are designated as fair-value, cash-flow, or foreign-currency hedges to specific assets and liabilities on the balance sheet or to specific firm commitments or forecasted transactions. We also formally assess, both at the hedge's inception and on an ongoing basis, whether the derivatives that are used in hedging transactions are highly effective in offsetting changes in fair values or cash flows of hedged items. If it is determined that a derivative is not highly effective, then we will be required to discontinue hedge accounting prospectively.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE RISK MANAGEMENT

We enter into forward exchange contracts to hedge purchases, receivables and payables denominated in foreign currencies for periods consistent with our identified exposures. The purpose of the hedging activities is to minimize the effect of foreign exchange rate movements on our costs and on the cash flows which we receive from foreign subsidiaries. Almost all foreign currency contracts are denominated in currencies of major industrial countries and are with large financial institutions rated as strong investment grade by a major rating agency. We also enter into foreign currency options to hedge anticipated transactions where there is a high probability that anticipated exposures will materialize. The forward exchange contracts and foreign currency options have been designated as cash-flow hedges. As of December 31, 2000, these cash-flow hedges have been highly effective.

As a matter of policy, we only enter into contracts with counterparties that have at least an "A" (or equivalent) credit rating. The counterparties to these contracts are major financial institutions. We do not have significant exposure to any one counterparty. Our exposure to credit loss in the event of nonperformance by any of the counterparties is limited to only the recognized, but not realized, gains attributable to the contracts. Management believes risk of loss is remote and in any event would not be material. The contracts have varying maturities with none exceeding 24 months. Costs associated with entering into such contracts have not been material to our financial results. We do not utilize derivative financial instruments for trading or speculative purposes. At December 31, 2000, we had foreign currency contracts in the form of forward exchange contracts and purchased currency options in the amount of $85.5 million and $27.1 million, respectively. The foreign currencies included in these contracts (notional value stated in U.S. dollars) are principally the Japanese yen ($32.4 million), U.K. pound ($13.2 million), Euro ($10.2 million), Danish krone ($7.6 million), Australian dollar ($6.9 million), Swiss franc ($6.4 million) and Swedish krona ($6.3 million).

INTEREST RATE RISK MANAGEMENT

We have entered into interest rate swaps to exchange floating rate for fixed rate interest payments periodically over the life of the agreements. In addition, we have purchased interest rate options that offer similar interest rate protection. The interest rate swaps and options have been designated as cash-flow hedges and have been highly effective as of December 31, 2000. At December 31, 2000, we had interest rate swap and option agreements outstanding with a notional principal amount of $67.0 million and $133.0 million, respectively. Our interest rate swap carried a weighted average pay rate of 6.14% and a receive rate of 6.34%. The interest rate option agreements carried a weighted average pay rate of 6.14% and a receive rate of 6.47%.

MARKET RISK

Using the value-at-risk model, as discussed in our annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2000, our average value-at-risk, calculated for the twelve month period ending December 31, 2000, is $3.2 million and $3.0 million related to our foreign exchange contracts and interest rate contracts, respectively. There have been no significant changes in market risk since June 30, 2000 that would have a material effect on our calculated value-at-risk exposure, as disclosed in the annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended June 30, 2000.

ACCOUNTING STANDARDS

Effective July 1, 2000, we adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 133, "Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities", as amended by SFAS No. 138, "Accounting for Certain Derivative Instruments and Certain Hedging Activities", which establishes accounting and reporting standards for derivative instruments, including certain derivative instruments embedded in other contracts, and for hedging activities. SFAS No. 133, as amended, requires the recognition of all derivative instruments as either assets or liabilities in the statement of financial position measured at fair value.

In accordance with the provisions of SFAS No. 133, as amended, we recorded a non-cash charge to earnings of $2.2 million, after tax, to reflect the change in time-value from the date of the contracts' inception through the date of transition (July 1, 2000). This charge is reflected as the cumulative effect of a change in accounting principle in the accompanying consolidated statements of earnings. Additionally, on the date of transition, a comparable amount of deferred unrealized gains on these instruments was recorded in accumulated other comprehensive income which we expect to accrete into earnings over the remaining life of the debt instruments (through February 2005).

The Emerging Issues Task Force ("EITF") has reached consensus on Issue No. 00-14, "Accounting for Certain Sales Incentives". This consensus addresses when sales incentives and discounts should be recognized, as well as where the related revenues and expenses should be classified in a registrant's financial statements. Currently, the cost of merchandise used in our gift-with-purchase and purchase-with-purchase activities, as well as any related revenues, are reported net as operating expenses in the accompanying consolidated statements of earnings. Upon adoption, revenues generated by these promotional activities will be classified in sales resulting in an increase of approximately 1.0% to 2.0%. The cost of promotional merchandise will be reclassified into cost of goods. Although operating income remains unchanged, gross margins will decrease by approximately 5.0% to 6.0% offset by a decrease in operating expenses. Due to variations in our launch calendar and the timing of promotions, we anticipate greater fluctuations in our gross margins on a quarter-by-quarter basis. Issue No. 00-14 will become effective in our fiscal fourth quarter and will be applied retroactively for purposes of comparability.

INTERNET

Our strategic goals for the Internet are to enhance our brand equities, to reach new consumers, to forge deeper relationships with existing consumers and to strengthen our business through our traditional retailers. The strategy includes a planned launch of a multi-brand website offering products from our portfolio, specially designed sites which will be available through the e-commerce sites of retailers who meet specific requirements and individual sites for our brands. We currently have nine individual brand websites that educate and inform consumers about specific brands, with more in development. Five of the existing sites - esteelauder.com, clinique.com, origins.com, bobbibrown.com and maccosmetics.com - have e-commerce capabilities. We are currently re-developing the gloss.com multi-brand site we acquired in May 2000 and expect to re-launch it this fall. Initially, the site will feature Estee Lauder, Clinique, Prescriptives, Origins, Bobbi Brown essentials, Mo Ao C and Stila products. The site also will feature products from Chanel, Inc. and Clarins (U.S.A.) Inc. which became co-venturers in gloss.com in August 2000. Our Internet sales, which were not significant during the six months ended December 31, 2000, are currently limited to consumers in the United States and Canada. The impact of our overall Internet strategy on earnings is expected to be initially dilutive, particularly as we re-develop the multi-brand site. We expect our Internet business to become profitable some time after the re-launch of gloss.com.

EURO CONVERSION

Under the direction of the European Economic and Monetary Union (EMU), a single currency (the "Euro") will replace the national currencies of most of the European countries in which we conduct business. The conversion rates between the Euro and the participating nations' currencies were fixed irrevocably as of January 1, 1999, with the participating national currencies to be removed from circulation between January 1 and June 30, 2002 and replaced by Euro notes and coinage. During the "transition period" from January 1, 1999 through December 31, 2001, public and private entities, as well as individuals, may pay for goods and services using either checks, drafts, or wire transfers denominated in Euros or the participating country's national currency.

Under the regulations governing the transition to a single currency, there is a "no compulsion, no prohibition" rule which states that no one is obliged to use the Euro until the notes and coinage have been introduced on January 1, 2002. In keeping with this rule, we were Euro "compliant" (able to receive Euro denominated payments and able to invoice in Euros as requested) as of January 1, 1999 in the affected countries. Full conversion of all affected country operations to the Euro is expected to be completed by the time national currencies are removed from circulation. Phased conversion to the Euro is currently underway and the effects on revenues, costs and various business strategies continue to be assessed. The cost of software and business process conversion is not expected to be material.

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS - CERTAIN FORECASTS

On March 15, 2001, we issued a press release in which we stated, among other things, that based on our business plans and current economic conditions and subject to the uncertainties described below under "Forward-Looking Information," management estimates that we can achieve the following results for our fiscal 2001 third quarter and full year.

We expect that our net sales for the fiscal 2001 third quarter will grow between 8% and 9% on a constant currency basis versus last fiscal year's third quarter. The increase in third quarter net sales in constant currency is expected to be led by double-digit growth in Europe, the Middle East & Africa and Asia/Pacific regions, while sales growth in the Americas is expected to be in the low to mid-single digits. We continue to be cautious that current U.S. economic conditions are creating softer retail sell-through and may affect our results for the second half of the fiscal year. In product categories, we expect double-digit growth in hair care sales, off of a smaller base, followed by strong growth in makeup and skin care, while fragrance sales will likely be consistent with the prior-year period. The adverse effect of exchange rates in Europe and Asia could temper reported sales growth by two and a half to three and a half percentage points. We expect to achieve diluted earnings per share for the fiscal 2001 third quarter of between $.23 and $.25.

For the full 2001 fiscal year, we expect sales to increase along our historical growth pattern of 8% to 10% in constant currency. In uncertain economic environments, we may invest more aggressively to maintain sales momentum. Given our continued cautious outlook for the remainder of the fiscal year, we estimate that we will achieve diluted earnings per share for the full fiscal 2001, before the cumulative effect of a change in accounting principle, of between $1.32 and $1.35.

See "Forward-Looking Information."

FORWARD-LOOKING INFORMATION

We and our representatives from time to time make written or oral forward-looking statements, including statements contained in this and other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (including the statements contained in this prospectus under the caption "Recent Developments - Certain Forecasts), in our press releases and in our reports to stockholders. The words and phrases "will likely result," "expect," "believe," "planned," "will," "will continue," "is anticipated," "estimates," "projects" or similar expressions are intended to identify "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements include, without limitation, our expectations regarding sales, earnings or other future financial performance and liquidity, product introductions, entry into new geographic regions, new methods of sale and future operations or operating results. Although we believe that our expectations are based on reasonable assumptions within the bounds of our knowledge of our business and operations, we cannot assure that actual results will not differ materially from our expectations. Factors that could cause actual results to differ from expectations include, without limitation:

- (i) increased competitive activity from companies in the skin care, makeup, fragrance and hair care businesses, some of which have greater resources than we do;
- (ii) our ability to develop, produce and market new products on which

future operating results may depend;

(iii) consolidations and restructurings in the retail industry causing a decrease in the number of stores that sell our products, an increase in the ownership concentration within the retail industry, ownership of retailers by our competitors and ownership of competitors by our customers that are retailers;

(iv) shifts in the preferences of consumers as to where and how they shop for the types of products and services we sell;

(v) social, political and economic risks to our foreign manufacturing, distribution and retail operations, including changes in foreign investment and trade policies and regulations of the host countries and of the United States;

(vi) changes in the laws, regulations and policies, including changes in accounting standards, that affect, or will affect, us in the United States and abroad;

(vii) foreign currency fluctuations affecting our results of operations and the value of our foreign assets, the relative prices at which we sell our products and our foreign competitors sell their products in the same market and our operating and manufacturing costs outside of the United States;

(viii) changes in global or localized economic conditions that could affect consumer purchasing and the cost and availability of capital, which we may need for new equipment, facilities or acquisitions;

(ix) shipment delays, depletion of inventory and increased production costs resulting from disruptions of operations at any of the facilities which, due to consolidations in our manufacturing operations, now manufacture nearly all of our supply of a particular type of product (i.e., focus factories);

(x) real estate rates and availability, which may affect our ability to increase the number of retail locations at which we sell our products;

(xi) changes in product mix to products which are less profitable;

(xii) our ability to develop e-commerce capabilities, and other new information and distribution technologies on a timely basis and within our cost estimates; and,

(xiii) our ability to integrate acquired businesses and realize value therefrom.

We assume no responsibility to update forward-looking statements made in this prospectus or otherwise.

Morgan Securities Inc. and other designated underwriters or dealers, in negotiated transactions directly with purchasers, or through agents. If the selling stockholders sell shares to J.P. Morgan and other designated underwriters, the shares may be acquired by the underwriters for their own accounts and resold from time to time at fixed prices or at varying prices determined at the time of sale.

The names of J.P. Morgan Securities Inc. and other designated underwriters, as well as other important information, will be set forth in a prospectus supplement. The discounts and commissions that the selling stockholders will allow or pay to the underwriters and the discounts and commissions that the underwriters may allow or pay to dealers or agents, if any, will be set forth in, or may be calculated from, the prospectus supplement. We may indemnify any brokers, underwriters, dealers or agents against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act.

In effecting sales, brokers or dealers engaged by the selling stockholders or the purchasers of the shares of Class A common stock may arrange for other brokers or dealers to participate in the sales process. The selling stockholders and any broker-dealers participating in the distribution of the shares may be deemed to be "underwriters" within the meaning of the Securities Act and any profit on the sale of shares by the selling stockholders and any commissions or discounts given to any broker-dealers may be deemed to be underwriting commissions or discounts under the Securities Act.

- Over-allotments involving sales in excess of the offering size, creating a short position. Any underwriters, brokers or dealers may elect to reduce a short position by exercising some or all of any over-allotment option.
- Stabilizing and short covering purchases. Stabilizing bids to purchase the shares are permitted if they do not exceed a specified maximum price. After the distribution of shares has been completed, short covering purchases in the open market may also reduce the short position. These activities may cause the price of the shares to be higher than would otherwise exist in the open market.

- Penalty bids. Penalty bids permit any representatives to reclaim concessions from a syndicate member for the shares purchased in stabilizing or short covering transactions.

The above-mentioned activities, which may be commenced and discontinued at any time, may be effected on the NYSE, in the over-the-counter market or otherwise. Also, prior to the pricing of the shares, and until such time when a stabilizing bid may have been made, some of the underwriters who are market makers in the shares may make bids for or purchases of shares subject to certain restrictions, known as passive market making activities.

The Chase Manhattan Bank and Morgan Guaranty Trust Company of New York, both affiliates of J.P. Morgan Securities Inc. and J.P.
