ITEM 7.01 REGULATION FD DISCLOSURE.

On July 26, 2006, Michael P. Daly, President and Chief Executive Officer of Berkshire Hills Bancorp, Inc. (the "Company"), the holding company for Berkshire Bank, provided earnings guidance on a post-earnings conference call. Specifically, Mr. Daly announced that the Company expects the Company's core earnings (which are earnings computed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles as adjusted for any gain on the sale of securities and certain non-recurring items) to be between $0.50 and $0.55 per share on a diluted basis for each of the third and fourth quarters in the 2006 fiscal year.

Statements contained in this report contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements are based on the beliefs and expectations of management, as well as the assumptions made using information currently available to management. Since these statements reflect the views of management concerning future events, these statements involve risks, uncertainties and assumptions. These risks and uncertainties include, among others: changes in market interest rates and general and regional economic conditions; changes in government regulations; changes in accounting principles; and the quality or composition of the loan and investment portfolios and other factors that may be described in the Company's quarterly reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended March 31, June 30 and September 30 and in its annual report on Form 10-K, each filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, which are available at the Securities and Exchange Commission's internet website (www.sec.gov) and to which reference is hereby made. Therefore, actual future results may differ significantly from results discussed in these forward-looking statements.
