Internet Gold Receives Notice of Alleged Violation of Ministry of Communications License

Thursday August 25, 10:25 am ET

PETACH TIKVA, Israel, August 25 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- Internet Gold (NASDAQ: IGLD - News) today announced that it has received a letter from the general manager of the Israeli Ministry of Communication claiming that the company has violated its license by allowing third party adult content services to use its international calls network. The general manager further informed Internet Gold that he is contemplating imposing a fine in the amount of Nis 5,160,000 on Internet Gold. The letter indicated that Internet Gold will have the opportunity to raise objections and defenses with respect to the claim.

Internet Gold has cooperated with the Israeli Ministry of Communication in the above matter and denies the allegations. The company plans to vigorously defend itself and to object to any fine, if imposed.

About Internet Gold

Internet Gold is a communications group that provides Internet access and related value-added services, international telephony, e-Advertising, content and e-Commerce services throughout Israel to both residential and business customers.

The group's operations are carried out through four main companies. Internet Gold, the publicly traded parent company serves as HQ to the group and also is the ISP which provides access and telephony services. Through MSN Israel, its joint-venture (50.1% owned) with Microsoft Corp. (49.9% owned), the Company operates Israel's leading Internet portal. Its fully-owned subsidiary, GoldMind, focuses on the provision of Internet value-added services and is the owner of 100% of the Start portal. Through GoldTrade, its fully-owned e-Commerce subsidiary, the Company has established itself as one of Israel's leading e-Commerce providers, P1000. In addition, its fully-owned subsidiary Internet Gold International specializes in the provision of international Internet and communication services.
