Fiat cars to be available in India through Tata dealers from March 2006

NEW DELHI, January 13, 2006: Fiat Group and Tata Motors announced today signing of an agreement to co-operate on dealer network sharing, which encompasses the sale of Fiat branded cars through selected Tata outlets throughout India. Tata Motors will manage the marketing and distribution of the Fiat branded cars in India.

Following this agreement, a targeted selection of Fiat cars and the Tata product range along with service and sale of spare parts will be available from March 2006 through the Tata dealership network. Dealers will display the new Fiat logo alongside the Tata logo at their outlets.

This deal is the first result of the joint activity started after the signature of the Memorandum of Understanding between Fiat and Tata Motors in September 2005. As the analysis of feasibility and specificity of the nature of the cooperation goes on, further specific agreements are expected.

Commenting on this deal, Mr. Sergio Marchionne, CEO of Fiat S.p.A, said: "This agreement is a milestone in our presence in India. It enables us to increase our customer base in the country and to provide superior quality service and facilities to our existing customers. The joint team is doing an excellent job and I am confident that our cooperation with Tata will further expand in the areas of product development, manufacturing and sourcing."

Commenting on the agreement, Mr. Ratan Tata, Chairman of the Tata Group and Tata Motors, said: "I am very pleased at this quick and definitive start of a potential long-term relationship. We believe this will soon result in more strategic alliances between the two organizations and across various markets."

About Fiat
