Item 3.01. Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing

On December 30, 2010, Community Central Bank Corporation (the "Company") received a notice from The Nasdaq Stock Market stating that the minimum market value of the Company's publicly held shares of common stock was below $1,000,000 for 30 consecutive business days and that the Company was therefore not in compliance with Nasdaq Marketplace Rule 5550(a)(5). The notification letter does not affect the listing of the Company's common stock on The Nasdaq Capital Market at this time and it will continue to trade under the symbol CCBD.

The notification letter states that the Company will be afforded 180 calendar days, or until June 28, 2011, to regain compliance with the minimum market value requirement. To regain compliance, the minimum market value of the Company's publicly held shares of common stock must meet or exceed $1,000,000 for at least ten consecutive business days. If the Company does not regain compliance by June 28, 2011, Nasdaq will provide the Company a written notification that its common stock will be delisted.

During the 180 calendar period described above, the Company will monitor the market value of the publicly held shares of its common stock and will consider available options to resolve the deficiency and regain compliance with the Nasdaq minimum market value requirement. There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to regain or maintain compliance with the minimum market value rule or other listing criteria.
