Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Pitney Bowes Inc. (“PBI”) entered into an Asset Purchase Agreement (the “Purchase Agreement”), dated as of April 27, 2018, with Stark Acquisition Corporation (the “Purchaser”), an affiliate of Platinum Equity, LLC, pursuant to which PBI has agreed to sell its Document Messaging Technologies production mail business and supporting software (collectively, the “Business”) to the Purchaser for $361,000,000 in cash consideration, subject to certain adjustments.

The consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Purchase Agreement is subject to customary conditions, including the expiration or termination of any applicable waiting period (and any extension thereof) under any applicable antitrust law and the absence of any government order or other legal restraint prohibiting the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Purchase Agreement.

The Purchase Agreement contains provisions giving each of PBI and the Purchaser rights to terminate the Purchase Agreement under specified circumstances, including if the closing has not occurred on or before September 27, 2018.

The Purchase Agreement includes customary representations, warranties and covenants of PBI and the Purchaser.

The foregoing description of the Purchase Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby is qualified in its entirety by the full text of the Purchase Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 and incorporated herein by reference.

The Purchase Agreement has been included to provide investors and security holders with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about PBI, the Business or the Purchaser or any of their respective businesses, subsidiaries or affiliates. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Purchase Agreement (a) were made by the parties thereto only for purposes of that agreement and as of specific dates; (b) were made solely for the benefit of the parties to the Purchase Agreement; (c) may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures exchanged between the parties in connection with the execution of the Purchase Agreement (such disclosures include information that has been included in public disclosures, as well as additional non-public information); (d) may have been made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Purchase Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts; and (e) may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Investors should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of PBI, the Business or the Purchaser or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Additionally, the representations, warranties, covenants, conditions and other terms of the Purchase Agreement may be subject to subsequent waiver or modification. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties and covenants may change after the date of the Purchase Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in PBI’s public disclosures. The Purchase Agreement should not be read alone, but should instead be read in conjunction with the other information regarding PBI that is or will be contained in, or incorporated by reference into, the Forms 10-K, Forms 10-Q and other documents that are filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

On April 30, 2018, PBI issued a press release announcing the entry into the Purchase Agreement. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is hereby incorporated by reference into this Current Report.

Words such as “estimate”, “believe”, “expect”, “anticipate”, “intend”, and similar expressions may identify such forward-looking statements.
