Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement; Item 2.03. Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation of a Registrant.

On March 15, 2007, Leap Wireless International, Inc., or Leap, and its wholly owned subsidiary Cricket Communications, Inc. (as borrower), or Cricket, entered into an Amendment No. 1 to the Amended and Restated Credit Agreement (the First Amendment ) with the lenders named therein and Bank of America, N.A. (as Administrative Agent).

The new facilities under the Amended and Restated Credit Agreement, as amended by the First Amendment, consist of a six year $895.5 million term loan, which was fully drawn at closing, and an undrawn four-year $200 million revolving credit facility. The new term loan bears interest at the London Interbank Offered Rate (LIBOR) plus 2.25 percent or the bank base rate plus 1.25 percent, as selected by Cricket, with the rate subject to adjustment based on Leap's corporate family debt rating. This is a reduction of 50 basis points from the rates applicable to term loan borrowings prior to the closing of the First Amendment. Outstanding borrowings under the new term loan must be repaid in 22 quarterly payments of $2.25 million each, commencing March 31, 2007, followed by four quarterly payments of $211.5 million each, commencing September 30, 2012. The First Amendment did not modify the terms of the revolving credit facility.

The proceeds of the new term loan were used exclusively to refinance and replace the outstanding term loan under the existing Amended and Restated Credit Agreement. If the new term loan is prepaid in connection with a re-pricing transaction prior to March 15, 2008, a prepayment premium in the amount of 1.00% of the principal amount prepaid will be payable by Cricket. Affiliates of Highland Capital Management, L.P. (a beneficial shareholder of Leap and an affiliate of James D. Dondero, a director of Leap) participated in the syndication of the new term loan in an amount equal to $222.9 million of the $895.5 million term loan. Additionally, Highland Capital Management, L.P. continues to hold $40 million of the $200 million revolving credit facilities.

The First Amendment also removes the previous limit of $400 million on the incremental increases Cricket may request under the credit facilities, allows Cricket to create subsidiaries to provide certain insurance services and procurement services, and makes certain other modifications to the credit facilities.

The description set forth in this Item 1.01 is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the First Amendment and the Consent of the Guarantors, copies of which are filed with this Current Report on Form 8-K as Exhibits 10.1 and 10.2, respectively. The terms of the existing Amended and Restated Credit Agreement are described in Leap's Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on June 19, 2006, which is hereby incorporated by this reference.
