Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On July 10, 2015 (the “Closing Date”), Medical Transcription Billing, Corp. (the “Company”) entered into an Asset Purchase Agreement (the “APA”) with SoftCare Solutions, Inc., a Nevada corporation (“SoftCare”), the U.S. subsidiary of QHR Corporation (TSX-V:QHR) (“QHR”), a publicly traded, Canada-based healthcare technology company. Pursuant to this APA, the Company purchased substantially all of the assets of SoftCare’s clearinghouse, electronic data interchange (EDI), and billing divisions (the “Divisions”).

The Company paid $21,888 for the Divisions, which represented 5% of the trailing twelve months revenue from the customers of the Divisions (the “Acquired Customers”) less closing adjustments totaling $38,127. In addition, on a semiannual basis for three years, the Company will pay QHR 30% of the gross fees earned and collected from the Acquired Customers (the “Revenue Share Payment”); however, the Company’s obligation to make Revenue Share Payments is conditioned upon positive cash flow of the Divisions, as more fully described in the APA. Additionally, after 36 months, the Company will pay QHR an amount equal to 5% of the gross fees earned and received by the Company from the Acquired Customers during the 12 month period beginning on the second anniversary of the Closing Date. Finally, pursuant to the APA, QHR assigned to the Company the receivables of a certain customer amounting to approximately $260,000; while the collectability of the same is unknown, the Company has agreed to pay QHR 50% of any such collected accounts receivable, subject to the positive cash flow condition discussed above and in more detail in the APA.

The APA contains customary representations, warrants and covenants, subject to certain exceptions and limitations. The Company has agreed to use commercially reasonable efforts to maintain and grow the Divisions. The APA also contains covenants to transition specified employees of the Divisions to employment or contractor relationships with the Company. Furthermore, the APA restricts QHR, for a period of five years after the Closing Date, from soliciting the acquired customers or personnel.

The foregoing description of the APA does not purport to be complete and is qualified entirely by reference to the complete text of the Asset Purchase Agreement, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 10.1 to this Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

The above description and the APA have been included to provide investors and security holders with information regarding the terms of the APA. The representations and warranties in the APA were made for the purpose of allocating risk between the Company, on the one hand, and the Seller, on the other hand, instead of establishing these matters as facts. Investors and security holders are not third-party beneficiaries under the APA and should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the parties thereto or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of representations and warranties may change after the date of the APA, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the Company’s public disclosures.
