PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

COMCAST VIEWS AT&T'S DELAY
IN TRACKING STOCK AS POSITIVE STEP

Shareholders Respond To Comcast's Proposal By Adding
Over $14 Billion In Market Valuation To AT&T

Philadelphia - July 18, 2001 - Comcast Corporation (Nasdaq: CMCSA, CMCSK) today announced that it viewed positively the decision by AT&T's (NYSE: T) Board of Directors to maximize shareholder value by examining strategic alternatives in addition to its planned initial public offering of its broadband assets. On July 8, 2001, Comcast made a proposal to merge with AT&T's broadband business in a tax-free transaction, which valued AT&T's core broadband assets at $58 billion based on Comcast stock's closing price on July 6, 2001, the last trading day prior to Comcast's proposal.

"We are pleased that AT&T's Board of Directors has responded to the market's overwhelming endorsement of our proposal by delaying its broadband tracking stock plan," said Mr. Brian L. Roberts, president of Comcast. "However, we disagree with the AT&T Board's characterization of our offer as inadequate. Since our announcement, AT&T shareholders have responded to our proposal by adding over $14 billion in market valuation to AT&T. As evidenced by the reaction of their shareholders, the Board's concern about our corporate governance has no foundation. We think our stock's historical performance speaks for itself."

Mr. Roberts continued, "We are surprised that AT&T's Board has yet to ask us for any further information. To that end, we remain prepared to hold immediate discussions with AT&T regarding our proposal."

Comcast reiterated that it is prepared to acquire AT&T's interests in Time Warner Entertainment, Cablevision, and Rainbow Media by assuming more debt and issuing more equity to reflect their agreed upon value.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Edgar Filing: AT&T CORP - Form 425

Subject to future developments, Comcast may file with the Commission (i) a preliminary proxy statement for solicitation of proxies from the shareholders of AT&T Corp. ("AT&T") in connection with AT&T's special meeting which is scheduled to take place in September 2001 and (ii) a registration statement to register the Comcast shares to be issued in the proposed transaction. Investors and security holders are urged to read the proxy statement and registration statement (when and if available) and any other relevant documents filed with the Commission, as well as any amendments or supplements to those documents, because they will contain important information. Investors and security holders may obtain a free copy of the proxy statement and the registration statement (when and if available) and other relevant documents at the Commission's Internet web site at www.sec.gov. The proxy statement and registration statement (when and if available) and such other documents may also be obtained free of charge from Comcast by directing such request to: Comcast Corporation, 1500 Market Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19102-2148, Attention: General Counsel.

Comcast, its directors and certain other Comcast employees and advisors may be deemed to be "participants" in Comcast's solicitation of proxies from AT&T's shareholders. A detailed list of the names, affiliations and interests of the participants in the solicitation is contained in a filing made by Comcast with the Commission pursuant to Rule 14a-12 on July 9, 2001.
