return at maturity: $600 per security (60% of the stated principal amount)

Selected Risk Considerations

You may lose a significant portion of your investment. Unlike conventional debt securities, the securities do not repay a fixed amount of principal at maturity. Instead, your payment at maturity will depend on the final underlying value of the worst performing underlying. If the final underlying value of the worst performing underlying is less than its barrier value, you will lose 1% of the stated principal amount of the securities for every 1% by which its final underlying value is less than its initial underlying value. There is no minimum payment at maturity on the securities, and you may lose up to all of your investment..

The securities do not pay interest.

Your potential return on the securities is limited. Your potential total return on the securities at maturity is limited to the maximum return at maturity.

The return on the securities depends solely on the performance of the worst performing underlying, and you will not benefit in any way from the performance of any better performing underlying.

You will be subject to risks relating to the relationship between the underlyings.

Investing in the securities is not equivalent to investing in any underlying. You will not have voting rights or any other rights with respect to the underlyings or the stocks included in the underlyings.

The securities are subject to the credit risk of Citigroup Global Markets Holdings Inc. and Citigroup Inc. If Citigroup Global Markets Holdings Inc. defaults on its obligations under the securities and Citigroup Inc. defaults on its guarantee obligations, you may not receive anything owed to you under the securities.

The securities will not be listed on any securities exchange and you may not be able to sell them prior to maturity.

The estimated value of the securities on the pricing date will be less than the issue price. For more information about the estimated value of the securities, see the accompanying preliminary pricing supplement.

The value of the securities prior to maturity will fluctuate based on many unpredictable factors.

The Russell 2000[®] Index is subject to risks associated with small capitalization stocks.

The issuer and its affiliates may have conflicts of interest with you.

The U.S. federal tax consequences of an investment in the securities are unclear.

The above summary of selected risks does not describe all of the risks associated with an investment in the securities. You should read the accompanying preliminary pricing supplement and product supplement for a more complete description of risks relating to the securities.
