2. The Registrant's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 27, 2009;
3. The Registrant's Current Reports on Form 8-K filed on December 31, 2008, February 26, 2009, April 7, 2009, May 11, 2009, June 8, 2009, June 12, 2009, June 18, 2009 and June 30, 2009; and
4. The Registrant's Registration Statement on Form 8-A/A filed on July 5, 2000 describing the Registrant's Common Stock, including any amendment or reports filed for the purpose of updating such description.

All documents and reports filed by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13(a), 13(c), 14 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the Exchange Act ) after the date of this Registration Statement and prior to the filing of a post-effective amendment hereto which indicates that all securities offered hereby have been sold or which deregisters all securities then remaining unsold, shall be deemed to be incorporated by reference herein and to be a part hereof from the date of filing of such documents or reports. Any statement contained in a document incorporated or deemed to be incorporated by reference herein shall be deemed to be modified or superseded for purposes of this Registration Statement to the extent that a statement contained herein or in any other subsequently filed document which also is or is deemed to be incorporated by reference herein modifies or supersedes such statement. Any such statement so modified shall not be deemed to constitute a part of the Registration Statement except as so modified and any statement so superseded shall not be deemed to constitute a part of this Registration Statement.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

The validity of the authorized and unissued shares of Common Stock to be issued under the Plan was passed upon by Brian E. Morrissey, Esq., Corporate Counsel, of the Registrant. As of July 8, 2009, Mr. Morrissey beneficially owns, or has the right to acquire under any employee benefit plan of the Registrant, an aggregate of 1,900 shares of Common Stock of the Registrant.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

The Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law generally provides that a company shall have the power to indemnify its officers, directors and others against liability incurred by them by reason of their position with the company if such person acted in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interest of the company, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding related to a third-party action, the indemnified party had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful.

Section 1 of Article VII of the Registrant's Bylaws provides for mandatory indemnification of directors and officers against third-party actions in such circumstances. Section 2 of Article VII of the Registrant's Bylaws provides for mandatory indemnification for any director or officer made party to any derivative suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interest of the Registrant; provided, however, no indemnification against expenses will be made where the person shall have been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duty to the Registrant unless and to the extent that the applicable Court of Common Pleas shall determine such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity. Under Section 3 of Article VII, an independent determination of disinterested directors, legal counsel or shareholders of the Registrant will determine whether the person is entitled to indemnification under Sections 1 and 2, unless indemnification is ordered by a court. In addition, Section 5 of Article VII of the Bylaws provides for advancement of expenses in advance of the final disposition of any action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking, by or on behalf of the person who may be entitled to indemnification under Sections 1, 2 and 4 of Article VII, to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the Registrant.

The Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law also permits a corporation to include in its bylaws, and in agreements between the corporation and its directors and officers, provisions expanding the scope of indemnification beyond that specifically provided by the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law; provided, however, indemnification shall not be permitted in any case where the act giving rise to the claim for indemnification is determined by a court to have constituted willful misconduct or recklessness. Section 4 of Article VII of the Registrant's Bylaws generally provides for mandatory indemnification of officers and directors acting on behalf of the Registrant, except that indemnification shall not be permitted in any case where the act giving rise to the claim for indemnification is determined by a court to have constituted willful misconduct or recklessness. Indemnification under Section 4 of Article VII of the Registrant's Bylaws will be provided without the independent determination or court order required by Section 3 as described above.

The Registrant also has entered into an Indemnification Agreement with each of the executive officers and directors of the Registrant. The Indemnification Agreements provide the same scope of indemnification as provided under the Bylaws. The Indemnification Agreements are direct contractual obligations of the Registrant in favor of the directors and officers. Therefore, in the event that the Bylaws are subsequently changed to reduce the scope of indemnification, executive officers and directors with Indemnification Agreements will not be affected by such changes.

In addition, the Registrant maintains directors and officers insurance under which its directors and officers are insured against certain liabilities that may be incurred by them in their capacities as such.
