Here is Why We Are Seeking Your Support

CHANGE IS NEEDED VOTE GOLD The Committee of Concerned Shareholders Mission We believe that The Children s Place recent deterioration in performance is just the beginning of a downward trend, and that the Company urgently requires talented, experienced directors with a vision and a plan for growing the Company If elected, the Committee s Nominees intend to work with the Board to take definitive action towards: Identifying and recommending a permanent CEO and non-executive Chairman Articulating a clear vision for the future of the Company Reversing the loss of management and retaining and attracting key talent Positioning the Company for profitability and growth In light of baseless claims made by the Company, let us once and for all extinguish the argument that control is being sought If the Committee s three Independent Nominees are elected to the Board, Stanley Silverstein will immediately resign from the Board, removing any question regarding control of your Company s Board [4]

CHANGE IS NEEDED VOTE GOLD Urgent Concerns Regarding the Current Children's Place Leadership The Children's Place's current leadership is putting at risk the Company, its growth prospects and its ability to realize higher shareholder value The Company's slate has a poor track record Slate Does Not Have- Ms. Kasaks oversaw as CEO declines of 84% and 27% at PacSun and Ann Taylor, respectively(1) Mr. Matthews has been on the Board of three companies that have filed for Bankruptcy The Necessary- Mr. Elvey does not possess the requisite retail experience ExpertiseLacks expertise in real estate strategy, marketing and branding - all are necessary for success The Board's The Board collectively owns less than 1.0% of the common shares outstanding(2) Economic Interests Are Not Adequately AlignedNone of the Incumbent Board members have ever purchased any shares of the Company's common stock in the open market(3) With Shareholders The Company's Stock price has fallen (0.3%) from $25.80 to $25.72 since Mr. Crovitz's appointment Performance And Stock price has fallen (30.1%) from $36.79 to $25.72 since the beginning of June Stock Price HaveOne month of comp growth since Nov 2008, culminating in a decline of 9% in May 2009 and a Declineddecline of 12% in June 2009 two worst monthly comp store sales results in over three years There Has Not Been The Board by its own admission has failed to install a permanent CEO after 22 months Anyone Your Company has been led by an Interim Chairman and Interim CEO for almost two years In Charge On We believe this Interim Leadership has resulted in a significant loss of key management talent A Permanent Basis Change is needed: the value of your investment is at risk (1)Ms. Kasaks was CEO of PacSun from 2007 to 2009; she was CEO of Ann Taylor from 1992 to 1996; We note that stock prices can be affected by many factors[5] (2)Excludes Mr. Dabah and Mr. Silverstein (3)Excludes Mr. Dabah. Although none of the Committee's nominees currently owns any shares of the Company's common stock, each has committed to purchasing shares if elected to the Board

CHANGE IS NEEDED VOTE GOLD The Children's Place Needs Relevant Growth Minded Experience in the Boardroom The Committee has nominated three experienced and independent director candidates for election at the Company's upcoming 2009 Annual Meeting of Shareholders 25+ years specialty retail experience -Izod Lacoste, The Limited Inc. and United Retail Group (Chairman and CEO) RAPHAEL BENAROYA -F.A.O. Schwarz (Chairman post bankruptcy) Qualified Retail CEO Current Chairman of Russ Berrie -Public company specializing in children's consumer products Mr. Dabah does not have any prior 20+ years mass marketing and brand management expertise social, JEREMY J. FINGERMAN Recently served as President and CEO of R.A.B. Food Group, LLC business or professional Marketing and Branding Former President of the largest division of Campbell Soup relationship Company, the U.S. Soup Division with any of the Committee 35+ years specialty retail and real estate strategy experience Nominees Current Chairman and CEO of Urban Retail Properties ROSS GLICKMAN Real estate firm specializing in retail shopping centers Real Estate Strategy -28m sq. ft. under management Former Director of Real Estate for The Limited Inc. The new independent Nominees are committed to enhancing shareholder value and are proven executives with successful track records [6]

CHANGE IS NEEDED VOTE GOLD The New Independent Directors Will Address These Current Leadership Concerns If elected, the Committee's new Nominees will work proactively with the Board to address the Company's current deficiencies The Committee's Nominees address Board's deficiencies with expertise in specialty retail, real estate strategy, Slate Has The marketing and branding Expertise And Nominees have established successful growth track records Track Record The Economic Interests With 22% ownership, the Committee's economic interests are aligned with shareholders Of The Committee's The Committee's Nominees will purchase stock upon their election Nominees Will Be Aligned The Committee's Nominees are focused on increasing shareholder value With Shareholders Initiate growth plans to maximize short- and long-term shareholder value The Company Will- Stop the loss of key management personnel and attract and retain new talent Be Headed In The Including but not limited to: shoe concept, small market concept and big box format Right Direction Utilize Nominees' expertise in real estate strategy and marketing to enhance brand and to take advantage of current real estate market The Committee's Among the Committee's Nominees' highest priority will be identifying a new, permanent CEO Nominees Will We recommend that the Board of Directors give consideration to Raphael Benaroya for the Prioritize Identifying position of CEO A Permanent CEO The Committee's independent Nominees will significantly enhance the Board and will actively work with the Board and management to increase shareholder value [7]

The Company's Slate Does Not Have The Necessary Expertise

CHANGE IS NEEDED VOTE GOLD Incumbent Nominee: Sally F. Kasaks Track Record Does Not Support Nomination Ms. Kasaks was replaced as CEO after she oversaw an 84% erosion in shareholder value at Pacific Sunwear; Ms. Kasaks also oversaw a 27% decline in Ann Taylor's stock price during her tenure as CEO(1) 5/23/07: ($19.74)10/24/07: ($15.42) Ms. Kasaks named CEO Announced plans to close One 6/17/09: ($3.20) and Chairman of PSUNThousand Steps conceptMs. Kasaks replaced as $25CEO and Chairman40% 12/9/08: ($1.86) 1/4/08: ($12.28)PacSun Division 4/3/09: ($1.67) $20Closed its Demo Concept President resigns Proxy fight with 30% storesAdrenalina resolved $15 6/11/07: ($20.56) 20% Eliminated position 2/12/09: ($1.50) $10of COOAdrenalina launched Proxy Fight with PSUN 10% 10% $56%6% 5%4% 3%2%3% $00% (1%) (3%)(3%)84% (5%)(4%) (6%) (5%)stock (7%)(8%) price (11%)(10%)(10%)(11%) decline Comp. May-07Sep-07Jan-08May-08Oct-08Feb-09June-09 If Ms. Kasaks is not good enough to be Chairman and CEO of Pacific Sunwear, is she good enough to be on the Board of The Children's Place? (1)Ms. Kasaks was CEO of PacSun from 2007 to 2009; she was CEO of Ann Taylor from 1992 to 1996; We note that stock prices can be affected by many factors[9] (2)Pacific Sunwear stopped reporting monthly comps in FY 2009

CHANGE IS NEEDED VOTE GOLD Incumbent Nominee: Norman Matthews Not the Right Choice
Mr. Matthews, 76, brings a less than impressive resume that includes directorship at companies with weak performance and several bankruptcies Last full-time position with a public company was 21 years ago (at Federated Department Stores in 1988) We do not believe Mr. Matthews can bring the forward outlook necessary to understanding and preserving the youthful, contemporary image unique to The Children's Place brand Company YearPositionCompanyBankruptcyEvent 2005DirectorLevitzLevitz filed for Chapter 11 in October 2005 and was ultimately liquidated 2004ChairmanGalyan's Trading Reported seven straight quarters of declining same-store sales Companyand 18% decline in share price over 3 years since IPO before being acquired 2001DirectorLeichters Inc.Resigned less than four months before Chapter 11 filing; Leichters was liquidated in October 2001 1999DirectorLoehmann's, Inc.Resigned from Board of Directors after Chapter 11 filing Do you want someone with this retail track record on your Board? [10]

CHANGE IS NEEDED VOTE GOLD Incumbent Nominee: Malcolm Elvey Lack of Relevant Expertise Malcolm Elvey has served as a director since 2002 Only retail experience was at Metro Cash and Carry over 30 years ago -CEO of LimoRes.net, a ground transportation company he helped found in New York (2004 to 2006) -Founder of Esquire Communications, Ltd., a court reporting and legal services company
-A venture capitalist focused on technology companies Previous Board member affiliations -ADT Ltd.
(The Hawley Group), a provider of electronic security systems and services -Pritchard Services, a provider of housekeeping services Do you believe Mr. Elvey's lack of relevant retail experience provides him with the ability to guide the strategic direction of the Company? [11]

CHANGE IS NEEDED VOTE GOLD Summary of Incumbent Nominees Ask yourself: Do the incumbent nominees have: the focus to complete the CEO search after 22 months? the requisite skills (i.e. real estate strategy, marketing and branding) to lead the Company in this difficult retail environment? the right track record to protect your investment? the same incentive as shareholders? Do you want your investment under the stewardship of the Incumbent Nominees given their track record and lack of requisite expertise? [12]

The Board's Economic Interests Are Not Adequately Aligned With Shareholders

CHANGE IS NEEDED VOTE GOLD Current Board's Economic Interests are Not Adequately Aligned With Shareholders None of the Company's Nominees have ever purchased a single share of the Company's stock in the open market(1) The interests of the Committee, which owns 22% of the Company's outstanding shares, are closely aligned with shareholders(2) The current Board as a whole owns less than 1% of the shares outstanding(3) Our Nominees will purchase shares upon election We note that The Children's Place stock price is down (0.3%) from $25.80 to $25.72 since Mr. Crovitz's appointment as Interim CEO is down (30.1%) from $36.79 to $25.72 since the beginning of June 2009

Do you want your investment under the stewardship of a group of directors who, unlike you, have never invested their own capital in the Company? (1)Based on 29,605,114 common shares outstanding as of June 9, 2009[14] (2)While the directors are not legally required to own shares in the Company and otherwise have fiduciary duties to act in the interests of shareholders, the Committee believes shareholders would be better served by a Board that has a greater economic ownership interest in the Company (3)Excludes Mr. Dabah and Mr. Silverstein

The Company's Performance and Stock Price Have Declined; The Time for Change is Now

CHANGE IS NEEDED VOTE GOLD We Believe the Company's Strong Foundation is Undermined by Inexperienced Interim Management The Children's Place demonstrated significant growth prior to the current Interim Management team Store Count Reported Net Sales ($m) Reported Operating Profit ($m) Reported Earnings Per Share 1,194 $119 $2,018 $2.92 % % % % 599 226 22 : R:R:: RR GGG G CAAAA CC 155 $14 $193 $0.29 FY 1997 FY 2006 FY 1997 FY 2006 FY 1997 FY 2006 FY 1997 FY 2006 The period from FY 1997 to FY 2006 positioned the Company for growth...however, the Interim Management team has failed to carry that growth forward Note: Financials reflect reported results and include Disney store operations [16]

CHANGE IS NEEDED VOTE GOLD Recent Weak Sales Should Sound the Alarm for Stockholders
Recent performance confirms our concerns Since November 2008 the Company has only reported one month of comparable store sales growth, culminating in a decline of 9% in May 2009 and a decline of 12% in June 2009, the two worst monthly comparable store sales results during the past three years (as far back as the Company has disclosed its new comparable store sales methodology) -June comp decline is particularly troubling 10% lower than the median comparable sales of other value retailers Investors have taken note of the Company's erratic sales - We expect shares of PLCE to be weak following disappointing May sales as investors examine the company's erratic sales trends the potential for limited gross margin restoration given indications of higher product cost continuing into Q2 Betty Chan, Wedbush Equity Research The Company's stock price has decreased (30.1%) since the beginning of June 2009 LTM The Children's Place Comp Store Sales June 2009 Comps (Value Retailers)(1) Old Methodology Change in Reporting 20% 16% Method Median: (2%) 20% 12% 10% 5% 4% 10% 4% 3% 1% 0% 0% 0% 0% 0% 0% 0% 0% (2%)(10%)(6%) (6%) (7%) (8%) (10%)(7%)(12%) (9%)(20%) (11%)(12%) xxsoet (20%) aBJ cNavy PLCE . CHANGE IS NEEDED VOTE GOLD The Company is Masking the Top-line Trend In Q4 2008, the Company changed its comparable store sales reporting method to adjust for constant dollars and to include e-commerce sales... This is a highly uncommon practice among specialty retailers The new methodology seems to enhance the results as highlighted by the fact that Q4 2008 results were 6% better as compared to the old methodology 20% 15% 10% 5% 0% (5%) (10%) (15%) Oct-07 Jan-08 Apr-08 Jul-08 Oct-08 Jan-09 New MethodologyOld Methodology We do not believe current interim management is being forthright with shareholders regarding recent top-line trends [18]

CHANGE IS NEEDED VOTE GOLD Current Interim Management is Taking Undue Credit for 2008 Results ...and top-line results under current management s sole influence have been weak Vertically-integrated, specialty retailers, including The Children s Place, design and merchandise their product selection a year in advance of being presented in stores Consequently, 2008 s successful sales and profitability was overwhelmingly dependent on merchandising, planning, purchasing, and marketing decisions made in 2007 Reflects Decisions Made in 2007 25% 16% 15% Methodology 15% Mean: 6% Change 9% 10% 8% 8% 6% 4% 5% 5% 2% 0% 0% 0% 0% 0% (5%) (3%) (2%) (4%) (7%) (9%) Mean: (4%) (15%) (12%)

CHANGE IS NEEDED VOTE GOLD In Our View, Weak Sales are the Direct Result of a Lack of Innovation and Growth Initiatives For example, the Board of Directors and Interim Management have not actively pursued the Company's promising footwear initiative Shoe concept launched during back-to-school season in FY 2007 with 54 stores CHILDREN'S US FOOTWEAR MARKET ($m)(1) Roll-out slowed down to a halt with only four new shoe stores in FY 2008 5 % R : A G$5,642 Shoe concept is trending towards realizing square C footage productivity and profitability of the Company's overall chain average$5,468 The Children's Place has the potential to reach high single digit market share driven by its unique, value, fashion position The US Children's Footwear market represents an attractive market opportunity$5,120 -Measured $5.7 billion 2007, up 3% from 2006 -Grew at a CAGR of 4.9% between 2005 and 2007 2005 2006 2007 Despite the compelling opportunity the footwear initiative presents, current leadership has not actively pursued the project (1)NPD press release dated February 14, 2008[20]

CHANGE IS NEEDED VOTE GOLD Questionable Management Decisions: Repatriation of Cash We question certain decisions by Interim Leadership that have led to shareholder value losses In Q4 2007, Company unnecessarily repatriated cash of ~$45 million from its Hong Kong subsidiary Severely impaired the Company's long-standing tax strategy for years to come and increased the Company's income tax percentage from approximately 37% to 42% We estimate this decision destroyed approximately $56 million in shareholder value(1) Was the $45 million repatriation of cash worth destroying the Company's long-term tax strategy? (1)Based on stock price close on July 10th, 2009 [22]

CHANGE IS NEEDED VOTE GOLD Questionable Management Decisions: Imprudent Financing We question certain decisions by management and the Board of Directors, for example: Issued $85 million term loan in July 2008 despite -Average quarterly cash balance FY2008 $169 million clearly indicates sufficient liquidity available to Company -Plus a largely undrawn and underutilized $200 million ABL Company repaid $47 million through April 2009 (< 9 months after issuance) Quarterly Cash Balance ($m) Quarterly ABL Availability ($m) (1) $85M TERM LOAN RENEWED AND UPSIZED ABL (July 31, 2008) $226.2 $224.3 (July 31, 2008) $186.0 $145.5 $146.7 $114.2 $108.1 $118.3 $98.2 $71.1 1Q 082Q 083Q 084Q 081Q 091Q 082Q 083Q 084Q 081Q 09 Was the financing necessary? CHANGE IS NEEDED VOTE GOLD Company Currently Operating With No Permanent Leadership
The Company has been led by an Interim Chairman for over two years... INTERIM CHAIRMAN (30 MONTHS AND COUNTING): SALLY FRAME KASAKS Recently replaced as CEO and Chair of the Board at Pacific Sunwear Oversaw significant stock price declines at both Pacific Sunwear and Ann Taylor(1) during tenure as CEO -Pacific Sun stock declined (84%) -Ann Taylor stock declined (27%) Chair of Compensation Committee that approved Mr. Crovitz's 2008 compensation Failed to find CEO as head of CEO Search Committee Why should shareholders be content with an Interim Chairman who, in our view, has a poor track record? Isn't it time for a permanent Chairman? (1)We note that many factors affect stock price; Ms. Kasaks was CEO of Pacific Sunwear from 2007 to 2009; she was CEO of Ann Taylor from 1992 to 1996 [26]

CHANGE IS NEEDED VOTE GOLD Company Currently Operating With No Permanent Leadership
(cont d) ...and an Interim CEO for almost two years and has failed to adequately explain why this is the case INTERIM CEO (22 MONTHS AND COUNTING): CHARLES CROVITZ No previous experience as a CEO No previous experience in children s market No product development, merchandising, marketing, nor real estate experience Has failed to develop sufficient growth initiatives for the Company, in our view Excessive compensation for an Interim CEO It is unacceptable that The Children s Place has been operating with both an Interim CEO and Interim Chairman (neither of whom permanently resides near the Company s headquarters) for almost two years [27]

CHANGE IS NEEDED VOTE GOLD Excessive Compensation for an Interim CEO The Board of Directors has provided Mr. Crovitz, an Interim CEO, excessive compensation that is significantly higher than the compensation of other retail Interim CEOs COMPENSATION OF SELECT OTHER INTERIM CEOs

Company Name	Name	Period Served	Interim CEO Tenure	Revenues ($mm)	Year	Total Comp

Mr. Crovitz's compensation is almost 3.5x higher than the median of those listed above. Observations (exclusive of his ~$1 million February 2009 stock award). Mr. Crovitz has been Interim CEO ~3.5x as long as those listed above. Mr. Crovitz's excessive compensation was approved by the Compensation Committee's chairman, Ms. Kasaks. (1) Total compensation annualized in instances where the term of service was less than one year for the reported proxy amount [28]. (2) Gap Interim CEO Robert Fisher did not receive any additional compensation for services provided as Interim President and CEO. (3) Excludes stock award received on February 5, 2009.

On February 5, 2009, Mr. Crovitz received an additional stock award valued at ~$1 million - not tied to any performance metrics

Observations Mr. Crovitz's employment contract calls for tax gross-up payments for certain perquisites

Ms. Kasaks served as chairman of the Compensation Committee at the time of the award

Ask yourself: How quickly would you act to give up an interim position for which you receive almost $4 million a year including over $500,000 in perks? (1) Represents companies used by the Company to review its compensation practices per Proxy [29] (2) Ceased serving as CEO effective January 7, 2009; served as CEO for 8 years

CHANGE IS NEEDED VOTE GOLD Excessive Perquisites for an Interim CEO Mr. Crovitz s perquisites are, in our view, excessive and inappropriate for an Interim CEO MR. CROVITZ S PERQUISITES Mr. Crovitz compensation package includes the following perquisites: -Eligibility in all executive benefit plans and eligible to receive and be provided with substantially the same benefits and perquisites as are maintained by the Company -Plus: transportation service to and from the Company s headquarters -Plus: temporary living allowance for an apartment in the amount of $15,500 per month -Plus: commissions, security deposit and utilities related to the lease of the apartment -Plus: furniture rental allowance in the amount of $2,000 per month -Plus: roundtrip airfare for two to Mr. Crovitz s permanent residence in Martha s Vineyard(1) -Plus: tax gross up payments or payments intended to result in a net after-tax payment, for perquisites including rental costs and relocation and travel costs Are Mr. Crovitz s perquisites (approved by the compensation committee chaired by Ms. Kasaks) providing incentives that serve to motivate him to support the search for a permanent CEO? (1)Increased from a monthly basis to a weekly basis in February 2009 [30]

Setting The Record Straight

CHANGE IS NEEDED VOTE GOLD Setting the Record Straight Mr. Dabah is not a nominee for election he was elected a director last year by shareholders after having received the unanimous nomination of the Board Mr. Dabah is not attempting to gain control of the Company -No plans to return as Chairman or CEO The Committee has nominated three independent and experienced candidates who will provide expertise in key areas of the Company s business that we believe the current Board lacks, including real estate strategy, marketing and branding experience Rather than debate the merits of the respective Nominees, the Company has made a series of false and misleading statements about Mr. Dabah in an attempt to deflect attention from the incumbent Nominees and their track records [40]

CHANGE IS NEEDED VOTE GOLD Setting the Record Straight (cont d) Company s Mr. Dabah is attempting to gain control of the Company and will have de facto control of the Misleading Company if his Nominees are elected to the Board Statements Mr. Dabah is not attempting to gain control of the Company and will not have de facto control of the Company if the Committee s Nominees are elected to the Board Mr. Dabah is exercising his right as a shareholder of the Company to nominate qualified and independent directors to the Board Facts Each of the Committee s Nominees is independent under Nasdaq rules and Mr. Dabah has no preexisting social, business or professional relationship with any of the Committee s Nominees Additionally, if the Committee s Nominees are elected to the Board, Mr. Dabah s father-in-law, Stanley Silverstein, will retire contingent upon and simultaneously with their election Company s Mr. Dabah was forced to resign as CEO of the Company after the Company s auditors determined Misleading that they were no longer willing to rely on Mr. Dabah s representations Statements Mr. Dabah s fellow directors did not question his integrity and planned to terminate Deloitte and engage BDO Seidman, which was willing to accept Mr. Dabah s representations. Although the FactsBoard considered Deloitte s position unreasonable, Mr. Dabah stepped down as CEO to facilitate the completion of audits and to avoid further delay in completing the Company s SEC filings In fact, Mr. Dabah was offered the opportunity to stay on as senior advisor to the Company [41]

CHANGE IS NEEDED VOTE GOLD Setting the Record Straight (cont d) Company s Mr. Dabah resigned as CEO in September 2007 under a cloud of securities trading and stock Misleading option investigations Statements Mr. Dabah s resignation did not result from the Company s stock option or code of conduct investigations The stock option investigation did not involve back-dating by Mr. Dabah Mr. Dabah had no knowledge of and did not participate in any of the conduct that was investigated The investigation concluded that Mr. Dabah received no options that were not properly approved and was found not to have engaged in any wrongdoing Facts Ms. Kasaks and Mr. Elvey were members of the Compensation Committee, which oversaw the Company s options plans and grant procedures Mr. Dabah has never traded shares in violation of the Company s internal policies or the securities laws The Audit Committee found that Mr. Dabah merely pledged shares in a customary brokerage margin account without first notifying the Company, and inadvertently failed to report an immaterial increase in his wife s ownership of shares in the Company as a result of the dissolution of a family trust The Board concluded that Mr. Dabah did not obtain any personal benefit Company s Misleading Mr. Dabah filed a lawsuit to change the date of Annual Stockholder Meeting but the date stands Statements Mr. Dabah brought the lawsuit so that shareholders would have the opportunity to vote for directors without delay, as the Company had not held an annual shareholders meeting in nearly 20 Facts months. As a result of Mr. Dabah s lawsuit, the Company was required, to give shareholders the opportunity to elect five directors rather than two [42]

CHANGE IS NEEDED VOTE GOLD Setting the Record Straight (cont d) Company s Ross Glickman is conflicted. He receives approximately $1 million in rent and occupancy fees from Misleading the Company and is seeking more PLCE stores Statements Mr. Glickman s company, Urban Retail Properties, receives an insignificant amount (less than Facts$10,000 annually) in rent for one store location from the Company. This does not constitute a conflict and Mr. Glickman is completely independent under Nasdaq standards Company s During fiscal 2008 and fiscal 2009 year-to-date, under the new management team, The Children s Misleading Place stock price has increased nearly 40% Statements The Company s stock price has remained virtually unchanged since Mr. Crovitz became Interim Facts CEO in September 2007 [43]
