MATERIAL CHANGE REPORT

1. NAME AND ADDRESS OF COMPANY

Ivanhoe Mines Ltd. (Ivanhoe)
654 999 Canada Place
Vancouver, BC V6C 3E1

2. DATE OF MATERIAL CHANGE

October 18, 2010

3. NEWS RELEASE

The press release was issued on October 18, 2010 and was disseminated through the facilities of recognized newswire services.

4. SUMMARY OF MATERIAL CHANGE

On October 18, 2010, Ivanhoe announced that the company is launching a strategic, conditional rights offering in which all existing shareholders, subject to applicable law, may participate on an equal, proportional basis in purchasing additional common shares of Ivanhoe.

5. FULL DESCRIPTION OF MATERIAL CHANGE

On October 18, 2010, Ivanhoe Mines announced that the company is launching a strategic, conditional rights offering in which all existing shareholders, subject to applicable law, may participate on an equal, proportional basis in purchasing additional common shares of Ivanhoe. The rights offering is expected to raise between approximately US$800 million to US$1.0 billion. The completion of the rights offering is conditional on at least 85% of the rights being exercised by holders, but this condition can be waived in the sole discretion of Ivanhoe Mines. Mr. Friedland, the founder and largest individual shareholder of Ivanhoe Mines, intends to participate in the rights offering to the maximum permitted level to maintain his present 18.3% ownership stake in the company's future. An application will be submitted to the Toronto Stock Exchange to approve the listing of the rights and the common shares issuable upon the exercise of the rights. Similar applications also will be made to the New York Stock Exchange and the Nasdaq Stock Market to admit the rights for trading and list the common shares issuable upon the exercise of the rights, subject to Ivanhoe Mines fulfilling listing requirements.

Each common share of Ivanhoe available for purchase by rights holders will be offered at a discount to the company's current market price. Subject to applicable law, all Ivanhoe shareholders will have the choice of deciding whether to participate in the rights offering and, by doing so, to maintain their existing levels of ownership. Shareholders who do not wish to exercise their rights to buy new common shares under the rights offering will have the option of selling the rights that they receive from Ivanhoe through the Toronto Stock Exchange, the New York Stock Exchange or the Nasdaq Stock Market, where the rights will trade for at least 21 days. Shareholders who do not exercise all of their rights consequently will have their present ownership interests in Ivanhoe, as a percentage of the total outstanding common shares, reduced as a result of the rights offering.

Rio Tinto, as an accredited shareholder, will be fully entitled to exercise its rights in the rights offering. Rio Tinto currently owns 34.9% of Ivanhoe's common shares. Ivanhoe Mines believes that the rights offering is exempt from Rio Tinto's right of first offer to acquire shares issued by Ivanhoe under terms of Ivanhoe's 2006 five-year private-placement agreement with Rio Tinto.

A preliminary prospectus for the offering has been filed with securities regulators in each province and territory in Canada and a registration statement on Form F-10 containing such preliminary prospectus has been filed in the United States with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, and such filings are available on SEDAR and EDGAR, respectively. Full details of the offering, including pricing, will be disclosed in the subsequent filing of a final prospectus in Canada and an amended Form F-10 with such final prospectus included therein.

Ivanhoe Mines initiates strategic rights offering open to all shareholders on a dilution-free, equal participation basis Financing will support progress toward early start-up of Oyu Tolgoi copper-gold complex in Mongolia

LONDON, ENGLAND Robert Friedland, Executive Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Ivanhoe Mines, announced today that the company is launching a strategic, conditional rights offering in which all existing shareholders, subject to applicable law, may participate on an equal, proportional basis in purchasing additional common shares.

The rights offering is expected to raise between approximately US$800 million to US$1.0 billion.

The goal of the offering is to ensure that Ivanhoe Mines remains in a strong financial position to bring the Oyu Tolgoi copper-gold mining complex into operation ahead of schedule in 2012 and to reinforce the company's independence to pursue strategic alternatives to protect and enhance shareholder value, Mr. Friedland said.

The Ivanhoe Mines Board of Directors unanimously approved the rights offering on October 15. A preliminary prospectus for the offering has been filed with securities regulators in Canada and the United States. Full details of the offering, including pricing, will be disclosed in the subsequent filing of a final prospectus.

Mr. Friedland, the founder and largest individual shareholder of Ivanhoe Mines, intends to participate in the rights offering to the maximum permitted level to maintain his present 18.3% ownership stake in the company's future.

Successful completion of this offering will significantly de-risk the Oyu Tolgoi project, which we are developing in partnership with the Government of Mongolia to be one of the world's largest and lowest-cost copper and gold producers, Mr. Friedland said.

We already have 5,300 people working on the project and Oyu Tolgoi LLC is investing $58 million in skills training, instruction centres and scholarships so Mongolians can play key roles in building a sustainable future by developing their mineral endowment.

Mr. Friedland said discussions are progressing with a group of international financial institutions on a separate debt-financing package that is expected to close in the first half of 2011. The proposed multi-billion-dollar package is being considered by a core lending group comprised of the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development, the International Finance Corporation, Export Development Canada, BNP Paribas and Standard Chartered.

In the meantime, the Ivanhoe Mines Board of Directors has chosen to proceed with a rights offering as the best of several available alternative measures to help secure the independence and flexibility of the company to maintain the accelerated construction schedule at Oyu Tolgoi and to establish a financing bridge to the planned debt package. Subject to applicable law, a rights certificate and a prospectus will be mailed to each shareholder after a record date has been set for issuance of the rights in conjunction with the filing of the final prospectus. The rights offering will be open for exercise for at least 21 days from the date of mailing to shareholders.

In keeping with international practice in rights offerings, each new common share of Ivanhoe Mines available for purchase by rights holders will be offered at a discount to the company's current market price. Subject to applicable law, all Ivanhoe Mines shareholders will have the choice of deciding whether to participate and, by doing so, to maintain their existing levels of ownership. It means, for example, that an individual shareholder with a one per cent stake in Ivanhoe will be issued rights to buy a maximum number of new shares that would maintain that shareholder's stake at one per cent following completion of the offering.

The completion of the rights offering also is conditional on at least 85% of the rights being exercised by holders, but this condition can be waived at the sole discretion of Ivanhoe Mines.

An application will be submitted to the Toronto Stock Exchange to approve the listing of the rights and the common shares issuable upon the exercise of the rights. Similar applications also will be made to the New York Stock Exchange and the Nasdaq Stock Market to admit the rights for trading and list the common shares issuable upon the exercise of the rights, subject to Ivanhoe Mines fulfilling listing requirements.

Shareholders who do not wish to exercise their rights to buy new common shares under the offering plan will have the option of selling the rights that they receive from the company through the Toronto Stock Exchange, the New York Stock Exchange or the Nasdaq Stock Market, where the rights will trade for at least 21 days. Shareholders who do not exercise all of their rights consequently will have their present ownership interests in Ivanhoe Mines, as a percentage of the total outstanding common shares, reduced as a result of the rights offering.

Rio Tinto, as an accredited shareholder, will be fully entitled to exercise its rights in the offering announced today. Rio Tinto currently owns 34.9% of Ivanhoe's common shares. Ivanhoe Mines believes that the rights offering is exempt from Rio Tinto's right of first offer to acquire shares issued by Ivanhoe Mines under terms of Ivanhoe's 2006 five-year private-placement agreement with Rio Tinto.

Citi has been appointed dealer manager for the rights offering.

This news release does not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy any securities, nor shall there be any sale of these securities in any state or jurisdiction in which such offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to registration or qualification under the securities laws of any such state or jurisdiction.
