On August 22, 2011, Satyam Computer Services Ltd (Mahindra Satyam) (the Company ) intimated to the Indian Stock Exchanges in which the Company shares are listed, that the Company has received from the Additional Commissioner of Income Tax, draft of proposed assessment orders together with draft notices of demand under the Income Tax Act, 1961, for Rs. 1037.69 crores and Rs 1075.73 crores for Assessment Years 2002-03 and 2007-08 respectively. The draft of the proposed assessment orders proposes inter-alia, disallowance of tax exemptions / deductions claimed by the Company. However, it does not exclude fictitious income wrongly offered to tax by the earlier management. The existence of fictitious sales and fictitious interest has even been confirmed by other Government of India agencies. The Company has in several writ petitions filed before the Hon ble High Court of Andhra Pradesh inter-alia challenged the re-opening of the assessment for AY 2002-03 and sought directions that fresh assessments should be carried out after removing the fictitious sales and fictitious interest. These petitions are pending before the High Court.
