Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On November 11, 2011, Athersys, Inc. and ABT Holding Company, a subsidiary of Athersys, Inc. (together, Athersys or the Company) entered into a Termination Agreement with Angiotech Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (Angiotech) to terminate the Strategic Alliance Agreement, License Agreement and ancillary agreements (the Angiotech Agreements) dated May 5, 2006 between the parties, reflecting a change in Angiotech's business and financial strategy. Pursuant to the terms of the Termination Agreement, Athersys regained all rights for developing its stem cell technologies and products for cardiovascular disease indications, including acute myocardial infarction (AMI), congestive heart failure, chronic ischemia, and peripheral vascular disease, and Angiotech will no longer have any license rights or options with respect to Athersys' technologies and products.

Pursuant to the terms of the Termination Agreement, Angiotech will make its final payment of $160,000 in connection with collaboration activities through September 30, 2011, but will have no further obligations to Athersys. In the case of a new AMI collaboration, Angiotech will be entitled to a future payment from Athersys equal to a percentage of cash license fee payments Athersys receives within the first six months from a third-party related to such AMI collaboration, and is not entitled to other downstream payments, such as milestone payments, royalties or any profit-sharing payments. The future payment, if any, will be either (i) 25% of third-party license fees if an AMI collaboration is established prior to the initiation of enrollment in a Phase II AMI clinical trial and within 12 months of the termination agreement, or (ii) 15% of third-party license fees if an AMI collaboration is established after the initiation of enrollment in a Phase II AMI clinical trial, but before Athersys has spent $5.0 million on the clinical trial, and within 24 months of the termination agreement, or (iii) 10% of third-party license fees up to a maximum of $5.0 million to Angiotech if an AMI collaboration is established after the initiation of enrollment in a Phase II AMI clinical trial, and after Athersys has spent $5.0 million on the clinical trial, and within 36 months of the termination agreement.

Additionally, while Angiotech will retain its 1.9 million shares of Athersys common stock, Athersys will receive advance notice of Angiotech's intention to sell these shares and the parties will cooperate in such sale.

The description of the Termination Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Termination Agreement, a copy of which is being filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.
