INFORMATION TO BE INCLUDED IN THE REPORT

Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

Sterling Financial Corporation ( Sterling ) hereby amends its Current Report on Form 8-K, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on September 18, 2006 (the Original Filing), by replacing Slide No. 15 of the Investor Presentation attached as Exhibit 99.2 to the Original Filing with Exhibit 99.1 attached hereto. The attached exhibit supersedes in its entirety Slide No. 15 of the Investor Presentation attached as Exhibit 99.2 to the Original Filing.

Sterling reaffirmed that preliminary discussions with regulatory authorities have indicated that the current concentration of commercial real estate loans held by Sonoma National Bank, Northern Empire Bancshares ( Northern Empire ) wholly owned subsidiary, is not expected to be an issue following the proposed merger of Northern Empire with and into Sterling because of Sterling s geographic diversity and the mix of loans anticipated to be in Sterling s portfolio following the closing of the merger.

Additional Information And Where To Find It

Sterling intends to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission a registration statement on Form S-4, and Sterling and Northern Empire expect to mail a proxy statement/prospectus to their respective security holders, containing information about the transaction. Investors and security holders of Sterling and Northern Empire are urged to read the proxy statement/prospectus and other relevant materials when they become available because they will contain important information about Sterling, Northern Empire and the proposed merger. In addition to the registration statement to be filed by Sterling and the proxy statement/prospectus to be mailed to the security holders of Sterling and Northern Empire, Sterling and Northern Empire file annual, quarterly and current reports, proxy statements and other information with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Investors and security holders may obtain a free copy of the proxy statement/prospectus and other relevant documents (when they become available) and any other documents filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission at its website at www.sec.gov. The documents filed by Sterling, may also be obtained free of charge from Sterling by requesting them in writing at Sterling Financial Corporation, 111 North Wall Street, Spokane, WA 99201, or by telephone at (509) 227-5389. In addition, investors and security holders may access copies of the documents filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission by Sterling on its website at www.sterlingfinancialcorporation-spokane.com. The documents filed by Northern Empire may also be obtained by requesting them in writing at Northern Empire Bancshares, 801 Fourth Street, Santa Rosa, CA 95404 or by telephone at (707) 591-9000. In addition, investors and security holders may access copies of the documents filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission by Northern Empire on its website at www.snbank.com.

Sterling, Northern Empire and their respective officers and directors may be deemed to be participants in the solicitation of proxies from the security holders of Northern Empire with respect to the transactions contemplated by the proposed merger. Information regarding Sterling s officers and directors is included in Sterling s proxy statement for its 2006 annual meeting of shareholders filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on March 24, 2006. Information regarding Northern Empire s officers and directors is included in Northern Empire s proxy statement for its 2006 annual meeting of shareholders filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on April 13, 2006. A description of the interests of the directors and executive officers of Sterling and Northern Empire in the merger will be set forth in Northern Empire s proxy statement/prospectus and other relevant documents filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission when they become available.

This Form 8-K and the Exhibits hereto may contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements about: (i) the benefits of the merger between Sterling and Northern Empire, including future financial and operating results, cost savings, enhancements to revenue and accretion to reported earnings that may be realized from the merger; (ii) Sterling's or Northern Empire's plans, objectives, expectations and intentions and other statements that are not historical facts; and (iii) other statements identified by words such as expects, anticipates, intends, plans, seeks, estimates or words of similar meaning generally intended to identify forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are based upon the current beliefs and expectations of the management of Sterling and Northern Empire and are inherently subject to significant business, economic and competitive uncertainties and contingencies, many of which are beyond our control. In addition, these forward-looking statements are subject to assumptions with respect to future business strategies and decisions that are subject to change. Actual results may differ materially from the anticipated results discussed in these forward-looking statements because of numerous possible uncertainties.

The following factors, among others, could cause actual results to differ materially from the anticipated results or other expectations expressed in the forward-looking statements: (1) the businesses of Sterling and Northern Empire may not be combined successfully, or such combination may take longer, be more difficult, time-consuming or costly to accomplish than expected; (2) the expected growth opportunities and cost savings from the merger may not be fully realized or may take longer to realize than expected; (3) operating costs, customer losses and business disruption following the merger, including adverse effects on relationships with employees, may be greater than expected; (4) governmental approvals of the merger may not be obtained, or adverse regulatory conditions may be imposed in connection with governmental approvals of the merger; (5) the shareholders of Sterling or Northern Empire may fail to approve the merger; (6) adverse governmental or regulatory policies may be enacted; (7) the interest rate environment may further compress margins and adversely affect net interest income; (8) results may be adversely affected by continued diversification of assets and adverse changes to credit quality; (9) competition from other financial services companies in Sterling's and Northern Empire's markets could adversely affect operations; and (10) an economic slowdown could adversely affect credit quality and loan originations. Additional factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in the forward-looking statements are discussed in Sterling's and Northern Empire's reports (such as Annual Reports on Form 10-K, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and Current Reports on Form 8-K) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission and available at the SEC's website at www.sec.gov.

Sterling cautions that the foregoing list of factors is not exclusive. All subsequent written and oral forward-looking statements concerning the proposed transaction or other matters attributable to Sterling or any person acting on Sterling's behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements above. Sterling does not undertake any obligation to update any forward-looking statement to reflect circumstances or events that occur after the date the forward-looking statements are made.
