ITEM 6. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS.

Under Texas law, a corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to an action by reason of his service as a director or officer of the corporation, against (a) expenses (including attorneys' fees) that are actually and reasonably incurred by him ("Expenses") and (b) judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement that are actually and reasonably incurred by him, in connection with the defense or settlement of such action, provided that he acted in good faith and reasonably believed that his conduct (i) was in the best and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the corporation's best interests, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

Although Texas law permits a corporation to indemnify any person referred to above against Expenses in connection with the defense or settlement of a suit brought to obtain a judgment in the corporation's favor, provided that he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the corporation's best interests, if such person is judged liable to the corporation, indemnification is limited to Expenses, and is not allowed at all if such person shall have been judged liable for willful or intentional misconduct.

The Texas Business Corporation Act also provides for mandatory indemnification of any director or officer against Expenses to the extent such person has been wholly successful in any proceeding covered by the statute. In addition, the Texas Business Corporation Act provides the general authorization of advancement of a director's or officer's litigation expenses in lieu of requiring the authorization of such advancement by the board of directors in specific cases.

The Company's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation (the "Articles") provide for the broad indemnification of its directors and officers and for advancement of litigation expenses to the fullest extent permitted by Texas law.

The Company's Articles also eliminate or limit the personal liability of directors for damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for (i) a breach of a director's duty of loyalty to Mitcham Industries; (ii) an act or omission not in good faith or that involves intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law; (iii) a transaction from which a director received an improper benefit, whether or not the benefit resulted from an action taken within the scope of the director's office; or (iv) an act or omission for which the liability of a director is expressed provided for by an applicable statute. These provisions may reduce the likelihood of derivative action against directors for breaches of their fiduciary duties.

The Company maintains an insurance policy covering directors and officers under which the insurer agrees to pay, subject to certain exclusions, for claims made against directors and officers of the Company for a wrongful act that they may become legally obligated to pay or for which the Company is required to indemnify the directors or officers, including liabilities under federal and state securities laws.

ITEM 9. UNDERTAKINGS.

A. Undertaking to Update

Mitcham Industries hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which it offers or sells securities, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement to:

(i) include any prospectus required by section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act");

(ii) reflect in the prospectus any facts or events that, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information in this Registration Statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in the volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective Registration Statement; and

(iii) include any additional or changed material information on the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in this Registration Statement or any material change to such information in this Registration Statement unless the information required by (i) and (ii) is included in the periodic reports Mitcham Industries has filed under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference into this Registration Statement.

Edgar Filing: MITCHAM INDUSTRIES INC - Form S-8

(2) For determining any liability under the Securities Act, to treat each post-effective amendment as a new Registration Statement of the securities offered and the offering of such securities at that time to be deemed the initial bona fide offering thereof; and

(3) To file a post-effective amendment to remove from registration any of the securities that remain unsold at the end of the offering.

B. Undertaking Regarding Documents Incorporated by Reference

Mitcham Industries hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of Mitcham Industries' annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Exchange Act that is incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement shall be a new Registration Statement relating to the securities offered, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

C. Undertaking Regarding Indemnification

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of Mitcham Industries under the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, Mitcham Industries has been advised that in the Securities and Exchange Commission's opinion, such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. If there is a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than Mitcham Industries' payment of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer, or controlling person of Mitcham Industries in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) asserted by such director, officer, or controlling person of Mitcham Industries in connection with the securities being registered, Mitcham Industries will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
