On November 8, 2002, CenterPoint Energy, Inc. announced that it had successfully negotiated a new $1.310 billion senior secured credit facility at its transmission and distribution subsidiary, CenterPoint Energy Houston Electric, LLC. For additional information regarding the new facility, please refer to CenterPoint Energy, Inc.'s press release attached to this report as Exhibit 99.1 which is incorporated by reference herein.

Reliant Resources Trading Matter. On October 29, 2002, Reliant Resources, Inc. (RRI) announced that a review of its trading activities had identified a series of four related natural gas financial swap transactions that should not have been recorded in the company's records. According to RRI, the transactions had the effect of decreasing its net income approximately $13 million in 2000 and increasing net income by the same amount in 2001. RRI further reported that it had determined, after discussion with its independent auditors and the staff of the Securities and Exchange Commission, that a restatement of its prior period financial statements was not required.

At the time of the transactions described above, RRI was a subsidiary of Reliant Energy, Incorporated, the predecessor of the CenterPoint Energy.
