Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On September 23, 2004, Kaiser Aluminum Corporation (the Company or Kaiser) issued a press release announcing that it had requested approval from the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for certain agreements to sell its interests in and related to the Queensland Alumina Ltd. (QAL) alumina refinery in Australia and the Volta Aluminium Company Ltd. (Valco) aluminum smelter in Ghana. A copy of the press release issued by the Company, which discusses the proposed transactions, is filed as Exhibit 99.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.

The Company's Form 10-Q for the period ending June 30, 2004 provides additional discussion of the various impacts of the proposed sales of Kaiser's interests in and related to QAL and Valco, including required approvals, the likely escrowing of proceeds, etc.

The Company's press release outlines that a two-pronged approach to the sale of its interests in and related to QAL that includes separate agreements between two of the Company's subsidiaries (Kaiser Aluminum & Chemical Corporation and Kaiser Alumina Australia Corporation) with Comalco Aluminium Limited (Comalco) and Glencore AG (Glencore). The agreements with Comalco and Glencore were signed on September 22, 2004. The Company and its affiliates have the following other material business relationships with Comalco and Glencore:

Comalco's ultimate parent company, Rio Tinto PLC, owns a 51% interest in Anglesey Aluminum Limited, a company in which the Company owns the remaining 49% interest.

Glencore was the ultimate purchaser of the Company's interests in and related to Alumina Partners of Jamaica, which transaction closed on July 1, 2004.

Glencore owns an interest in Century Aluminum Company (Century). The Company has previously disclosed that on May 17, 2004, it entered into an agreement to sell its interests in and related to its alumina refinery in Gramercy, Louisiana and in the Kaiser Jamaican Bauxite Company bauxite mining operation to entities formed by Century and Noranda Inc.

The Company and its affiliates engage in a wide variety of commercial transactions with both Comalco and Glencore and their respective affiliates in the ordinary course of business.

Item 8.01 Other Events

On September 27, 2004, the Company issued a press release in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 99.2, which press release is incorporated herein by reference.
