Edgar Filing: CHINA FUND INC - Form PRE 14A

(2) APPROVAL OR REJECTION OF A NEW INVESTMENT ADVISORY AND MANAGEMENT AGREEMENT

Termination of Existing Investment Advisory and Management Agreement; Approval of New Advisory and Investment Management Agreement

HSBC Management has served as manager of the Fund's assets allocated to listed investments pursuant to the Existing Investment Advisory and Management Agreement since 1992. In January, 2001, when the Board of Directors of the Fund determined to retain a new manager of the Fund's direct investments, it also decided to consider retaining a new manager for the Fund's listed investments. Potential managers of the Fund's listed investments, including HSBC Management, were then requested to submit proposals, and, with the assistance of a consulting firm, the Board requested a number of those submitting proposals to make presentations to the Board of Directors. The information about potential investment managers reviewed by the Board included information regarding the investment managers' presence and experience in China; the number and types of clients including other investment funds; the amount of assets under management; the number of persons employed and information regarding the education and employment experience of their principal investment officers; their compliance systems and personnel; their affiliations; their performance in investing in the China markets; and the proposed fees. Based on its review of this information and the presentations made to the Board of Directors, the Board of Directors of the Fund, including a majority of the Directors of the Fund who are not "interested persons" (as defined in the 1940 Act), approved entering into a new investment advisory and management agreement (the "New Investment Advisory and Management Agreement") with Martin Currie Global Investors Ltd. ("Martin Currie"). The Board anticipates that the New Investment Advisory and Management Agreement will become effective at such time as the stockholders approve the New Investment Advisory and Management Agreement.

Following the selection of Martin Currie as the Fund's new investment manager for the portion of the Fund's assets allocated to listed investments, the Fund provided HSBC Management with written notice of termination as investment manager of the Fund under the Existing Investment Advisory and Management Agreement. The effective date of the termination will be such date between June 15 and June 30, 2001 as is mutually acceptable to HSBC Management and to Martin Currie provided that the stockholders approve Martin Currie at the Annual Meeting, or, if the stockholders do not approve Martin Currie as the new investment manager at the Annual Meeting, then on such other date as the stockholders approve a new investment manager. In the event that Martin Currie is approved by the stockholders prior to June 30, 2001, but HSBC Management and Martin Currie cannot agree on a mutually acceptable date of termination, then the Existing Investment Advisory and Management Agreement will terminate on June 30, 2001.

If so approved, the New Investment Advisory and Management Agreement will continue in effect for an initial two-year term and thereafter for successive annual periods as long as such continuance is approved in accordance with the 1940 Act.

A description of the New Investment Advisory and Management Agreement, including the services to be provided by Martin Currie, thereunder, is set forth below. The description is qualified in its entirety by reference to the form of the New Investment Advisory and Management Agreement attached to this

Proxy Statement as Exhibit B.

The New Investment Manager

Martin Currie is a company incorporated in Scotland on January 21, 2000 under the 1985 Companies Act and is regulated in the conduct of its investment business by the Investment Management Regulatory Organization Limited ("IMRO"). Martin Currie is a wholly owned subsidiary of Martin Currie Ltd. ("MC Ltd."). The Martin Currie Group, as defined below, is a leading Scottish investment management company, privately owned, controlled and managed by its full time executives, founded in 1881. Martin Currie's and MC Ltd.'s principal address is Saltire Court, 20 Castle Terrace, Edinburgh, Scotland EH1 2ES. Investment management activities are run from the Edinburgh headquarters. However, in the case of the Fund, Chris Ruffle, who will be the portfolio manager, is based in Taiwan and the China research team is based in Edinburgh and in Shanghai, China.

Martin Currie is a registered investment adviser under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 and offers portfolio management services to taxable and nontaxable institutional investors investing in United States and international equity. Martin Currie is part of a group of companies owned by MC Ltd. which includes four other fully operating subsidiaries: Martin Currie Inc, Martin Currie Investment Management Ltd., ("MCIM"), Martin Currie Unit Trusts and Martin Currie Private Clients Ltd. (collectively, the "Martin Currie Group"). As of March 31, 2001, the Martin Currie Group had assets under management totaling approximately $9.3 billion. Funds managed by the Martin Currie Group in the Asia Pacific region (excluding Japan) currently amount to approximately $1.1 billion.

The Martin Currie Group has been investing in emerging markets since the 1930s and has been managing open-ended specialist country funds since the early 1990s. Two of those funds, which are managed by MCIM, The China Heartland Fund and The Taiwan Opportunities Fund, both led by Chris Ruffle, have an AA rating from Standard and Poor's Fund Research. In addition, MCIM's four year old research joint venture with China Securities gives Martin Currie an insight into the Chinese market which Martin Currie believes results in beneficial investment decisions for clients. Martin Currie has managers and analysts based in Edinburgh, Shanghai and Taipei focusing upon China and Taiwan. Led by Chris Ruffle, who is based in Taipei, this team has a combined experience of approximately 40 years investing in the region and includes two former heads of research.

The following table sets forth the name and principal occupation of the principal executive officers and of each director of the New Investment Manager. The business address of each person listed below (except for Steve Johnson) is: Saltire Court, 20 Castle Terrace, Edinburgh, Scotland EH1 2ES. Biography of portfolio manager:

Chris Ruffle

Mr. Ruffle joined MCIM in 1994. Mr. Ruffle has over 13 years investment experience in Asia. Fluent in Mandarin and Japanese, Mr. Ruffle has worked in the Far East since 1983. He worked originally in Beijing and Shanghai and then in Australia for a metal trading company. He moved to Warburg Securities in 1987 as an analyst in Tokyo, before establishing Warburg's office in Taiwan (1990-1993). Mr. Ruffle manages The Taiwan Opportunities Fund and The China Heartland Fund.

MCIM manages two funds with a similar investment objective as the Fund, The China Heartland Fund and The Taiwan Opportunities Fund. MCIM has never waived or reduced compensation for either fund and their details are as follows:

Fund	Net Assets at March 31, 2001	Annual Compensation
China Heartland Fund.....	US$38 million	1.5% of fund's net assets
Taiwan Opportunities Fund.....	US$70 million	1.5% of fund's net assets

The Existing Investment Advisory and Management Agreement

The Existing Investment Advisory and Management Agreement was last approved by the stockholders of the Fund on March 13, 1998 and was last approved by the Board of Directors of the Fund, including a majority of the directors who are not "interested persons" (as defined in the 1940 Act) of any party thereto, at a meeting of the Board of Directors held on June 8, 2000.

Under the terms of the Existing Investment Advisory and Management Agreement, HSBC Management manages the portion of the Fund's assets invested in listed investments (the "Listed Assets"), including furnishing advice and making recommendations regarding the purchase and sale of the Fund's Listed Assets. HSBC Management, with respect to the Fund's Listed Assets, places all orders for the purchase or sale of portfolio securities for the Fund with brokers or dealers it selects, and is authorized as agent of the Fund to give instructions to the custodians of the Fund's Listed Assets as to deliveries of securities and payments of cash for the account of the Fund. HSBC Management is responsible for the compensation and expenses of those of the Fund's Directors who are directors, officers and employees of HSBC Management, except that the Fund bears travel expenses or an appropriate fraction thereof of Directors and officers of the Fund to the extent such expenses relate to attendance at meetings of the Board of Directors or any committee thereof.

Under the terms of the Existing Investment Advisory and Management Agreement, HSBC Management is permitted to provide investment advisory services to other clients, including clients who may invest in China companies so long as the investment management services to the Fund are not impaired thereby.

The Existing Investment Advisory and Management Agreement provides that HSBC

Edgar Filing: CHINA FUND INC - Form PRE 14A

Management is not liable for any act or omission, error of judgment or mistake of law, or for any loss suffered by the Fund in connection with matters to which the Existing Investment Advisory and Management Agreement relates, except for losses resulting from willful misfeasance, bad faith or gross negligence on the part of HSBC Management in the performance of its duties, or from reckless disregard by HSBC Management of its obligations and duties under the Existing Investment Advisory and Management Agreement.

For its service under the Existing Investment Advisory and Management Agreement, HSBC Management receives a fee, computed weekly and payable monthly, at an annual rate of 1.10% of the Fund's average weekly net assets. For the fiscal year ended October 31, 2000, HSBC Management received a fee of US$1,658,470 from the Fund. Out of this fee, HSBC was responsible for paying fees to HSBC Private Equity for management of the Fund's direct investments. For the fiscal year ended October 31, 2000, the Fund incurred commissions on the purchase and sale of securities of US$799,249.

The New Investment Advisory and Management Agreement

The terms of the New Advisory and Investment Management Agreement are substantially the same as the terms of the Existing Advisory and Investment Management Agreement. The holders of a majority of the outstanding voting securities (within the meaning of the 1940 Act) of the Fund are being asked to approve the New Investment Advisory and Management Agreement.

Under the terms of the New Investment Advisory and Management Agreement, Martin Currie will manage the Fund's Listed Assets. Martin Currie, with respect to the Fund's Listed Assets, will place all orders for the purchase or sale of portfolio securities for the Fund's Listed Assets with brokers or dealers it selects, and will be authorized as agent of the Fund to give instructions to the custodians of the Fund's Listed Assets as to deliveries of securities and payments of cash for the account of the Fund. Martin Currie will be responsible for the compensation and expenses of those of the Fund's Directors who are directors, officers and employees of Martin Currie, except that the Fund will bear travel expenses or an appropriate fraction thereof of Directors and officers of the Fund to the extent such expenses related to attendance at meetings of the Board of Directors or any committee thereof.

Under the terms of the New Investment Advisory and Management Agreement, Martin Currie will be permitted to provide investment advisory services to other clients, including clients who may invest in direct investment in China companies so long as the direct investment management services to the Fund are not impaired thereby.

The New Investment Advisory and Management Agreement provides that Martin Currie will not be liable for any act or omission, error of judgment or mistake of law, or for any loss suffered by the Fund in connection with matters to which the New Investment Advisory and Management Agreement relates, except for losses resulting from willful misfeasance, bad faith or gross negligence on the part of Martin Currie in the performance of its duties, or from reckless disregard by Martin Currie of its obligations and duties under the New Investment Advisory and Management Agreement. Martin Currie will perform its obligations under the New Investment Advisory and Management Agreement under the laws of IMRO.

For its services under the New Advisory and Investment Management Agreement, Martin Currie will receive a fee (the "New Investment Management Fee"), computed weekly and payable monthly, at the following annual rates: 1.00% of the first $25,000,000 of the Fund's average weekly net assets consisting of Listed Assets; 0.90% of the next $25,000,000 of the Fund's average weekly net assets consisting of Listed Assets; 0.70% of the next $25,000,000 of the Fund's average weekly net assets consisting of Listed Assets; and 0.50% of the Fund's average weekly net assets for all Listed Assets in excess of $75,000,000.

The New Investment Advisory and Management Agreement may be terminated at any time, without payment of any penalty, by the Fund or by Martin Currie upon sixty days' written notice or by vote of the stockholders of the Fund. The New Investment Advisory and Management Agreement will automatically terminate in the event of its assignment, as defined in the 1940 Act.

Based on the portion of the Fund's net assets invested in Listed Assets, and the portion of the Fund's net assets invested in direct investments, as of April [20], 2001, the Fund would have paid aggregate management fees under the New Investment Advisory and Management Agreement and under the New Direct Investment Management Agreement discussed under Proposal 3 below at the annual rate of .87%, or US$1,268,764, which is lower than the rate at which the Fund paid HSBC Management under the Existing Investment Advisory and Management Agreement (from which HSBC Management paid HSBC Private Equity for management of the Fund's direct investments). Of this amount, the New Investment Management Fee would be paid at the annual rate of 0.698%, or US$968,764. While the Fund has allocated 25% of its assets for direct investments, at [April 20], substantially less than 25% of its assets were invested in direct investments. If the full amount allocated to direct investment were in the future invested in direct investments, it is likely that the aggregate management fees paid by the Fund under the New Investment Advisory and Management Agreement and under the New Direct Investment Management Agreement would be at an annual rate greater than .87%.

In the event that stockholders of the Fund do not approve the New Investment Advisory and Management Agreement, the Board will take such action as it deems in the best interest of the Fund and its stockholders, which may include proposing that stockholders approve an agreement in lieu of the New Advisory and Investment Management Agreement.

Stockholder Approval

To become effective, the New Investment Advisory and Management Agreement must be approved by a vote of a majority of the outstanding voting securities of the Fund. The "vote of a majority of the outstanding voting securities" is defined under the 1940 Act as the lesser of the vote of (i) 67% or more of the shares of the Fund entitled to vote thereon present at the Meeting if the holders of more than 50% of the outstanding shares of the Fund are present in person or represented by proxy, or (ii) more than 50% of the outstanding shares of the Fund entitled to vote thereon.

The Board of Directors of the Fund recommends that you vote "FOR" approval of the New Investment Advisory and Management Agreement.

(3) APPROVAL OR REJECTION OF A NEW DIRECT INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT AGREEMENT

Termination of Former Direct Investment Management Agreement; Approval of New Direct Investment Management Agreement

HSBC Private Equity served as manager of the Fund's direct investments pursuant to the Former Direct Investment Management Agreement from 1992 until April 2001. In June 2000, HSBC Private Equity advised the Fund that it would not undertake any new direct investments on behalf of the Fund. The Board, believing that there are untapped opportunities for direct investments by the Fund, decided to pursue other options for management of the Fund's assets allocated to direct investments. With the assistance of a consulting firm, the Board gathered information about a number of direct investment managers, and, in December 2000, the Board reached the conclusion that Asian Direct Capital Management ("ADCM" or the "New Direct Investment Manager"), an affiliate of SSBT, the Fund's Administrator, was the most qualified candidate, and conducted an in-depth interview with

ADCM. In considering potential direct investment managers the Board reviewed the direct investment managers' presence and experience in China; information regarding the number and types of clients advised by the direct investment managers, including other investment funds; the amount of assets under management; the number of persons employed and information regarding the education and employment experience of their principal investment officers; the compliance systems and personnel; their affiliations; their performance; and the proposed fees. Based on its review of this information, the Board of Directors of the Fund, including a majority of the Directors of the Fund who are not "interested persons" (as defined in the 1940 Act), approved the appointment of ADCM as the Fund's new direct investment manager to take effect at such time as ADCM registers under the 1940 Act, as amended, and that the Former Direct Investment Management Agreement be terminated.

Following selection of ADCM as the Fund's new direct investment manager, the Fund provided HSBC Private Equity with written notice of termination as direct investment manager of the Fund under the Former Direct Investment Management Agreement. The Fund entered into the new direct investment management agreement with an affiliate of ADCM that became effective on April 3, 2001, with ADCM acting as a subadvisor to the affiliate, until ADCM obtained a Cayman Island companies management license. Upon receipt of this license, the new direct investment management agreement will be reformed with the Fund entering into an agreement with ADCM directly (the "New Direct Investment Management Agreement"). Continuance of the New Direct Investment Management Agreement for a period beyond 150 days from its effective date is subject to stockholder approval. If so approved, the New Direct Investment Management Agreement will continue in effect for an initial two-year term and thereafter for successive annual periods as long as such continuance is approved in accordance with the 1940 Act.

A description of the New Direct Investment Management Agreement, including the services to be provided by ADCM, thereunder, is set forth below. The description is qualified in its entirety by reference to the form of the New Direct Investment Management Agreement attached to this Proxy Statement as Exhibit C.

The New Direct Investment Manager

The New Direct Investment Manager was established in 1997 as part of State Street Global Advisors ("SSgA"), the investment management division of State Street Corporation ("State Street"), to build and conduct private equity investment activities in Asia. In January 2001, the Direct Investment Manager was incorporated as a separate legal entity in the Cayman Islands as an exempted company. The New Direct Investment Manager is a majority-owned (70%) indirect subsidiary of State Street and the New Direct Investment Manager's principal executives own the remaining minority share (30%).

State Street, one of the world's leading specialists in serving institutional investors, provides a full range of products and services for portfolios of investment assets. State Street conducts its business principally through its subsidiary, SSBT, and traces its beginnings to 1792. State Street is a market leader in providing investment advisory and management services. State Street has approximately US$5.8 trillion of assets under custody and over US$700 billion of assets under management as of March 31, 2001 (of which approximately US$28 million was under the management of the New Direct Investment Manager). Customers of State Street include mutual funds and other collective funds, corporate and public pension funds, corporations, unions and not for profit organizations globally. SSgA's principal address is Two International Place, Boston, Massachusetts 02110. The New Direct Investment Manager's principal address is Bank of China Tower, 48th Floor, 1 Garden Road, Hong Kong.

The New Direct Investment Manager is a registered investment adviser under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 and it provides investment advisory services to institutions seeking to invest in private equity in Asia. These advisory services include sourcing, managing, monitoring and executing private equity investments in Asia. The New Direct Investment Manager has not served as an investment adviser to any investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, other than the Fund. The New Direct Investment Manager draws upon the capabilities of its asset management specialists located in its various offices throughout Asia. It also draws upon the research capabilities of its affiliates in the State Street group of companies.

The following table sets forth the name and principal occupation of the principal executive officers and of each director of the New Direct Investment Manager. The Former Direct Investment Management Agreement

HSBC Private Equity has managed the Fund's direct investments since 1992.

Edgar Filing: CHINA FUND INC - Form PRE 14A

Under the terms of the Former Direct Investment Management Agreement, HSBC Private Equity managed the portion of the Fund's assets invested in direct investments, including furnishing advice and making recommendations regarding the purchase and sale of the Fund's assets allocated to direct investments. Under the Former Direct Investment Management Agreement, the Fund allocated 25% of the net proceeds of the Offering as defined in the Fund's Prospectus, dated July 10, 1992, to direct investments. HSBC Private Equity also monitored the execution of transactions and settlement and clearance of the Fund's securities in transactions in direct investments, and was authorized as agent of the Fund to give instructions to the custodians of the Fund's direct investments. HSBC Private Equity was responsible for the compensation and expenses of those of the Fund's Directors who were directors, officers and employees of HSBC Private Equity, except that the Fund bore travel expenses or an appropriate fraction thereof of Directors and officers of the Fund to the extent such expenses related to attendance at meetings of the Board of Directors or any committee thereof.

Under the terms of the Former Direct Investment Management Agreement, HSBC Private Equity was permitted to provide investment advisory services to other clients, including clients who may invest in direct investments in China companies so long as the direct investment management services to the Fund were not impaired thereby.

The Former Direct Investment Management Agreement provided that HSBC Private Equity was not liable for any act or omission, error of judgment or mistake of law, or for any loss suffered by the Fund in connection with matters to which the Former Direct Investment Management Agreement related, except for losses resulting from willful misfeasance, bad faith or gross negligence on the part of HSBC Private Equity in the performance of its duties, or from reckless disregard by HSBC Private Equity of its obligations and duties under the Former Direct Investment Management Agreement.

For its services under the Former Direct Investment Management Agreement, HSBC Private Equity received from HSBC Management a portion of the fee paid to HSBC Management. For the fiscal year ended October 31, 2000, HSBC Management received a fee of US$1,658,470 from the Fund. From this fee, HSBC Private Equity earned a fee of US$227,556, which was paid or payable by HSBC Management.

The New Direct Investment Management Agreement

The terms of the New Direct Investment Management Agreement are substantially the same as the terms of the Former Direct Investment Management Agreement. The holders of a majority of the outstanding voting securities (within the meaning of the 1940 Act) of the Fund are being asked to approve the New Direct Investment Management Agreement.

Under the terms of the New Direct Investment Management Agreement, ADCM manages the portion of the Fund's assets invested in direct investments, including furnishing advice and making recommendations regarding the purchase and sale of the Fund's assets allocated to direct investments. For purposes of determining the portion of the Fund's assets invested in direct investments, such assets are valued at their cost (i.e., the amount expended by the Fund to acquire them) rather than their then current value or on such other basis as may be agreed by ADCM and the Fund. ADCM monitors the execution of transactions and settlement and clearance of the Fund's securities in transactions in direct investments, and is authorized as agent of the Fund to give instructions to the custodians of the Fund's direct investments. ADCM is responsible for the compensation and expenses of those of the Fund's Directors who are directors, officers and employees of ADCM, except that the Fund will bear travel expenses or an appropriate fraction thereof of Directors and officers of the Fund to the extent such expenses related to attendance at meetings of the Board of Directors or any committee thereof.

Under the terms of the New Direct Investment Management Agreement, ADCM is permitted to provide investment advisory services to other clients, including clients who may invest in direct investment in China companies so long as the direct investment management services to the Fund are not impaired thereby.

The New Direct Investment Management Agreement provides that ADCM is not liable for any act or omission, error of judgment or mistake of law, or for any loss suffered by the Fund in connection with matters to which the New Direct Investment Management Agreement relates, except for losses resulting from willful misfeasance, bad faith or gross negligence on the part of ADCM in the performance of its duties, or from reckless disregard by ADCM of its obligations and duties under the New Direct Investment Management.

Until the New Direct Investment Management Agreement is approved by vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding voting Securities (within the meaning of the 1940 Act) (the "Approval Date"), ADCM has no obligation to select new direct investments for investment by the Fund, its obligations under the New Direct Investment Management Agreement being limited to monitoring the direct investments held by the Fund on April 3, 2001. Upon receipt of such approval, ADCM will be obligated to seek new direct investment opportunities for the Fund under the New Direct Investment Management Agreement.

Until the Approval Date, ADCM receives a fee for its services under the New Direct Investment Management Agreement computed weekly and payable monthly at an annual rate equal to 1.10% of the average weekly value of the assets of the Fund invested in direct investments on April 3, 2001.

For its services under the New Direct Investment Management Agreement after the Approval Date, ADCM will receive a fee (the "New Direct Investment Management Fee"), computed weekly and payable monthly at an annual rate equal to the greater of $300,000 or 2.2% of the average weekly value of the assets of the Fund invested in direct investments. This fee is higher than those paid by most other U.S. investment companies, primarily because of the considerable time and expense required in pursuing the Fund's objective of making direct investments in China companies.

The New Direct Investment Management Agreement may be terminated at any time, without payment of any penalty, by the Fund or by ADCM upon sixty days' written notice or by vote of the stockholders of the Fund. The New Direct Investment Management Agreement will automatically terminate in the event of its assignment, as defined in the 1940 Act.

Based on the portion of the Fund's net assets invested in Listed Assets, and the portion of the Fund's net assets invested in direct investments, as of April [20], 2001, the Fund would have paid aggregate management fees under the New Investment Advisory and Management Agreement and under the New Direct Investment Management Agreement at the annual rate of .87%, or US$1,268,764, which is lower than the rate at which the Fund paid HSBC Management under the Existing Investment Advisory and Management Agreement (from which HSBC Management paid HSBC Private Equity for management of the Fund's direct investments). Of this amount, New Direct Investment Management Fee of US$300,000 would have been paid. While the Fund has allocated 25% of its assets for direct investments, at [April 20], 2001, substantially less than 25% of its assets were invested in direct investments. If the full amount allocated to direct investment were in the future invested in direct investments, it is likely that the aggregate management fees paid by the Fund under the New Investment Advisory and Management Agreement and under the New Direct Investment Management Agreement would be at an annual rate greater than .87%.

In the event that stockholders of the Fund do not approve the New Direct Investment Management Agreement, the Board will take such action as it deems in the best interest of the Fund and its stockholders, which may include proposing that stockholders approve an agreement in lieu of the New Direct Investment Management Agreement.

Stockholder Approval

To become effective, the New Direct Investment Management Agreement must be approved by a vote of a majority of the outstanding voting securities of the Fund. The "vote of a majority of the outstanding voting securities" is defined under the 1940 Act as the lesser of the vote of (i) 67% or more of the shares of the Fund entitled to vote thereon present at the Meeting if the holders of more than 50% of the outstanding shares of the Fund are present in person or represented by proxy, or (ii) more than 50% of the outstanding shares of the Fund entitled to vote thereon.

The Board of Directors of the Fund recommends that you vote "FOR" approval of the New Direct Investment Management Agreement.

- (4) APPROVAL OR A REJECTION OF A PROPOSAL THAT THE STOCKHOLDERS RECOMMEND TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS THAT THE BOARD CONSIDER OPEN-ENDING THE FUND

The Board recognizes that the Fund's shares have been trading at a discount to net asset value and that this is a matter of concern to stockholders. This is a subject that the Board reviews at each of its regular meetings. The Board is concerned by the discount and it has taken a number of steps to reduce or eliminate the discount, including through the initiation of a share repurchase program and its decision to change investment advisers. Another possible measure that the Board can take to reduce the discount is to open end the Fund. The Board does not endorse open-ending the Fund, but it believes that stockholders should have the opportunity to express their views on this subject. The Board is submitting the open-ending resolution set forth below to the stockholders as a way to gauge the level of concern that stockholders have about the discount. The Board nevertheless believes, for the reasons discussed below, that open-ending is not in the best interests of stockholders and recommends that stockholders vote against the proposal. Approval of the resolution by stockholders will not in itself result in open-ending of the Fund, but will be considered by the Board, along with other factors, in determining what actions to take in respect of the discount.

Resolution

RESOLVED, that the stockholders recommend that the Board of Directors consider open-ending the Fund.

Past Action Taken by Board to Reduce the Discount

Edgar Filing: CHINA FUND INC - Form PRE 14A

The Board of Directors has regularly considered, and on a number of occasions, has taken steps directed at reducing the discount and increasing stockholder value. The Board believes that by increasing stockholder value, the Fund's shares will become more attractive to investors, which should help to reduce the discount. The following is a discussion of actions taken by the Board during the last several years to increase stockholder value.

On a number of occasions, the Board has acted to reduce the fees paid by the Fund to its service providers, or to replace service providers when it felt that another entity could better, and more economically, serve the interests of the Fund. For example, the Fund has terminated the arrangements with its Shareholder Servicing Agent on two different occasions in favor of a different entity that was able to provide services for a lesser fee. On March 15, 1996, the Board voted to terminate the services of Oppenheimer & Co., the Fund's Shareholder Servicing Agent at that time, and instead retained Dewe Rogerson in this capacity. This change in Shareholder Servicing Agents resulted in an estimated savings to the Fund of $16,000 per year. On March 9, 2000, the Board voted to terminate the services of Dewe Rogerson and to retain the services of Corporate Investor Communications as the Fund's new Shareholder Servicing Agent. This most recent change in Shareholder Servicing Agents resulted in estimated savings to the Fund of $72,000 per year. The Board of Directors also reduced the fees of HSBC Management several times during the course of the Fund's history. Since the Fund's inception, the fees paid to HSBC Management were reduced through several reductions from 1.5% to 1.1% of the Fund's average net assets.

Also, as discussed in this Proxy Statement, the Board has terminated the Former Direct Investment Management Agreement and has given notice of termination with respect to the Existing Investment Advisory and Management Services Agreement. The Board believes that, if the proposed new advisory arrangements are approved by the stockholders, the Fund's investment performance will be enhanced. The Board believes that, by increasing stockholder value by taking these steps, it is making the Fund's shares more attractive to investors, which should help to reduce the discount.

As mentioned above, the Board also adopted a share repurchase program in September 1998. Under this program, the Fund was authorized to repurchase up to $15 million of the Fund's outstanding shares over a period not to exceed one year. The purpose of the program was to increase stockholder value by purchasing shares at a discount and to reduce the discount to net asset value at which the Fund's shares traded. The Board believes that, the share repurchase program succeeded in temporarily reducing the discount to net asset value of Fund shares.

Explanation of Closed-End Funds vs. Open-End Funds

You may find the following background information useful in your consideration of Proposal 4. Additional information concerning differences between closed-end and open-end funds is set forth in the discussion of Proposal 4 below.

A closed-end fund like the Fund does not issue new shares or redeem shares each day. Instead, the Fund's shares trade freely on the New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE") like those of any public company. Supply and demand forces and other factors influence the market prices of the Fund's shares. Just as an industrial company's shares can trade above or below book value, the Fund's shares can trade at levels above their net asset value (called a "market premium") or below their net asset value (called a "market discount").

In contrast, an open-end fund's shares are not traded on any stock exchange. Stockholders obtain liquidity by selling their shares back to the fund at their net asset value (called a "redemption"). By law, an open-end fund must stand ready to redeem its shares on any business day with no advance notice. The open-end fund must continuously offer and sell new shares to offset these redemptions. Otherwise, the open-end fund will become too small to invest in an adequately diversified portfolio, and its fixed expenses will become a heavy burden on investment returns.

Both the closed-end and open-end fund formats have advantages. The open-end format works well when investing in highly liquid securities, presented as part of a broad family of open-end funds having a variety of investment objectives, offered with stockholder services such as exchange privileges, and sold through an established broker or direct distribution network.

The closed-end format is especially well suited for specialty investing, such as in the stocks of companies in a particular foreign country or region. As many of those securities are relatively illiquid, the closed-end format frees the portfolio manager or managers to concentrate on investments, rather than holding part of the assets in easier-to-sell securities to meet redemptions. For these situations the closed-end format is more suitable.

Certain Effects of Conversion on the Fund

In addition to the inherent characteristics of open-end investment companies described above, the Fund's conversion to an open-end fund potentially would have the consequences described below.

ELIMINATION OF DISCOUNT AND PREMIUM. Open-end funds are required to redeem their shares at a price based upon their then-current net asset value (except under certain circumstances, such as when the NYSE is closed or trading thereon is restricted, or when redemptions may otherwise be suspended in an emergency as permitted by the 1940 Act). The open-end fund structure thus precludes the possibility of the open-end fund's shares trading at a discount from, or a premium to, net asset value. Open-end funds generally are required to value their assets on each business day in order to determine the current net asset value on the basis of which their shares may be redeemed by stockholders or purchased by investors. Net asset values of most open-end funds are published daily by leading financial publications. The shares of closed-end investment companies, on the other hand, are bought and sold in the securities markets at prevailing market prices, which may be equal to, less than, or more than net asset value.

Upon conversion of the Fund to an open-end investment company, stockholders who wished to realize the value of their shares would be able to do so by redeeming their shares at net asset value (less a redemption fee, which may be imposed by the Fund). As a result, the discount from net asset value at which the Fund's shares currently trade on the NYSE would be eliminated. Conversion also would eliminate, however, any possibility that the Fund's shares could trade at a premium over net asset value and could result in the potential adverse effects on the Fund's portfolio management and expense ratio, as discussed below.

RAISING CAPITAL. A closed-end fund trading at a discount may not be able to raise capital through share sales (other than through a rights offering) when it believes further investment would be advantageous, because the 1940 Act restricts the ability of a closed-end fund to sell its shares at a price below net asset value. Open-end funds, on the other hand, are priced at net asset value and therefore can sell additional shares at any time. This ability to raise new money can achieve greater economies of scale and improve investment management by making more capital available for investment.

ELIMINATION OF ANNUAL STOCKHOLDER MEETINGS. As a closed-end fund listed on the NYSE, the Fund is subject to NYSE rules requiring annual meetings of stockholders. Unlike the Fund, open-end funds are not required to hold annual stockholder meetings, except in special circumstances where stockholder approval is required under the 1940 Act. Consequently, the Fund would save the annual fees associated with annual stockholder meetings and the annual exchange listing fees. (See "Registration of Securities" below.)

Your Board of Directors urges you to vote "against" Proposal 4.

The Board of Directors certainly understands, as described above that if the Fund were open-ended the ability of stockholders to redeem their shares at net asset value less the applicable redemption fee, if any, and the fact that the Fund's shares would not trade at a discount or a premium would benefit certain stockholders. Nevertheless, your Board of Directors does not believe that open-ending the Fund would benefit stockholders generally, particularly longer-term stockholders, and is strongly opposed to Proposal 4 for the following reasons:

NEED TO ELIMINATE OR SUBSTANTIALLY REDUCE INVESTMENTS IN DIRECT INVESTMENTS. If the Fund were converted to an open-end fund, it would not be permitted to have more than 15% of the value of its net assets invested in illiquid securities. As a result, the Fund would need to substantially reduce or eliminate its direct investment activities, which the Board of Directors considers to be one of the unique features of the Fund.

POTENTIAL INCREASE IN EXPENSE RATIO AND DECREASE IN SIZE. Conversion to an open-end fund would raise the possibility of the Fund's suffering substantial redemptions of its shares, particularly in the period immediately following the conversion. Unless the Fund was able to retain a distributor to sell its shares that was able to generate sales of new shares sufficient to offset these redemptions, the asset size of the Fund would shrink. Because certain of the Fund's operating expenses are fixed or substantially fixed, a decrease in the Fund's asset size would likely increase the ratio of its operating expenses to its income and net assets and thereby decrease the Fund's net income available for dividends.

If the Fund were to experience substantial redemptions of its shares following its conversion to an open-end fund, it would likely be required to sell portfolio securities and incur increased transaction costs in order to raise cash to meet such redemptions. Also, unless the Fund were able to develop an effective distribution system for the sale of its shares, the Fund may be faced with a possible need to liquidate because the Fund could become too small. Any sale of portfolio securities effected to fund redemption obligations would be a taxable transaction. Neither the Fund nor its stockholders will realize any gain or loss for tax purposes as a direct result of the Fund's conversion. However, the stockholders will recognize a gain or loss if they later redeem their shares to the extent that the redemption proceeds are greater of less than the respective adjusted tax basis of their shares. (See "Capital Gains" below.)

PORTFOLIO MANAGEMENT. As noted above, a closed-end fund operates with a relatively fixed capitalization, while the capitalization of an open-end fund fluctuates depending upon whether it experiences net sales or net redemptions of its shares. Most open-end funds maintain reserves of cash or cash equivalents in order to meet net redemptions as they arise. Because closed-end funds do not have to meet redemptions, their level of cash reserves depends primarily on the investment manager's perception of market conditions and on decisions to use fund assets to repurchase shares. The larger reserves of cash or cash equivalents required to operate prudently as an open-end fund when net redemptions are anticipated could reduce the Fund's investment flexibility and the scope of its investment opportunities. As an open-end fund, the Fund may have to sell portfolio securities in order to accommodate the need for larger reserves of cash or cash equivalents, and such sales may be expected to occur under unfavorable market conditions. While the Fund is a closed-end fund, however, neither of the Fund's investment advisers are required to liquidate portfolio holdings at inopportune times, and can manage the Fund's portfolio with a greater emphasis on long-term considerations.

CAPITAL GAINS. The treatment of capital gains required under U.S. tax law could be very onerous to non-redeeming stockholder in the event of the Fund's conversion to an open-end fund. To raise cash to satisfy redeeming stockholders, the Fund may be required to sell portfolio securities to satisfy redemption requests. If the Fund's basis in the portfolio securities sold is less than the sale price obtained, net capital gain may be realized. U.S. tax law imposes both an income tax and an excise tax on net capital gain realized by closed-end and open-end funds unless the fund distributes net capital gain to all stockholders, in which case the stockholders would be subject to tax on such gain. In the event of the Fund's conversion to an open-end fund, two negative results may occur: first, because the Fund would sell securities, non-redeeming stockholders would recognize a greater amount of capital gain than would be the case if the Fund held such securities; and, second, to make the capital gains distribution necessary to avoid capital gain recognition by the Fund, the Fund may need to sell additional portfolio securities, thereby reducing further the size of the Fund and, possibly, creating additional capital gain.

DISTRIBUTION COSTS. Open-end funds typically provide more service to stockholders and incur correspondingly higher servicing expenses. For example, if the Fund converts to open-end status, it will need to have an effective distribution system in place in order to avoid erosion in its asset base through redemption. The distribution and marketing of open-end funds involve additional costs. These costs may be paid either by purchasers (in the case of a front-end sales charge) or by current stockholders (in the case of a plan of distribution adopted under Rule 12b-1 (a "12b-1 Plan"), which would require approval by stockholders). Implementation of a 12b-1 Plan would provide for payments by the Fund at an annual rate ranging from 0.25% to 1.00% of the Fund's average net assets. Redemption fees and contingent deferred sales charges may also be employed.

DELISTING OF THE FUND. The Fund's shares currently are listed and traded on the NYSE (Symbol: CHN). If the Fund converts to an open-end fund, its shares would immediately be delisted from the NYSE. Delisting would save the Fund the annual exchange listing fees of approximately $35,000; but, the Fund would have to pay Federal and State registration fees on sales of new shares. Any net savings or increased cost to the Fund because of the different expenses is not expected to materially affect the Fund's expense ratio.

CONVERSION COSTS. The process of converting the Fund to an open-end investment company would involve legal and other expenses to the Fund, estimated to be approximately [US$300,000]. Based on the Fund's total net assets as of [April 30, 2001] and its expenses for the first six months of fiscal year 2001 on an annualized basis, it currently is anticipated that conversion costs would increase the Fund's expense ratio by approximately [%] in the year of conversion.

Conclusion

For all the foregoing reasons, the Board of Directors strongly believes that, notwithstanding the benefit which those stockholders who would wish to redeem their shares over the short term would derive from open-ending the Fund, on balance the best interests of the Fund and its stockholders would be substantially disserved by such action. The Board of Directors does not believe that the Fund could operate in open-end form in a manner consistent with the reasonable expectations, or more broadly, the best interests of its stockholders.

The Board of Directors of the Fund recommends that you vote "against" the proposal that the Stockholders recommend to the Board of Directors that the Board consider open-ending the Fund.
