REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Board of Directors and Stockholders
Network Installation Corporation and Subsidiaries
Las Vegas, Nevada

We have reviewed the accompanying consolidated balance sheet of Network Installation Corporation and Subsidiaries as of June 30, 2006, and the related consolidated statements of income and stockholders' equity, for the three and six month periods ended June 30, 2006 and cash flows for the six months ended June 30, 2006. These financial statements are the responsibility of the company's management.

We conducted our review in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). A review of interim financial information consists principally of applying analytical procedures and making inquiries of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters. It is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States), the objective of which is the expression of an opinion regarding the financial statements taken as a whole. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to the accompanying interim financial statements for them to be in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. As discussed in Note 3 to the financial statements, the Company's recurring losses from operations, stockholders' deficit, and other conditions exist which raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. Management's plans in regard to these matters are also described in Note 3. The consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS

OVERVIEW

Network Installation Corp. (the Company) was incorporated on July 18, 1997 under the laws of the state of California. The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements of the Company have been prepared without audit, pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles have been condensed or omitted pursuant to such rules and regulations. In the opinion of management, the accompanying consolidated financial statements reflect all adjustments of a normal recurring nature considered necessary to present fairly the Company's financial position, results of operations and cash flows for such periods. The accompanying interim consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and the notes thereto included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-KSB for the year ended December 31, 2005. Results of operations for interim periods are not necessarily indicative of results that may be expected for any other interim periods or the full fiscal year.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

The Company is a holding company that currently does business through its wholly owned subsidiaries. The Company's only subsidiary that is currently operating is Kelley Communication Company, Inc. (Kelley). Kelley specializes in the design, development and integration of communication technology and system networks for the gaming, resort and hospitality markets and has developed a patent-pending, proprietary, next-generation race & sports book platform designed for the gaming industry.

Kelley designs and manages projects, and builds and deploys communication technology for large entertainment technology and systems networks. Kelley's systems networks include: data, telecommunications, audio and video components, casino surveillance, security and access control systems, entertainment audio and video, special effects and multi-million dollar video conference systems. Kelley does work primarily in the Las Vegas area, but has also done projects in New Jersey, Oklahoma, Colorado, California, and the Caribbean. Kelley has distinguished itself from its peers by employing experienced and educated design personnel and by providing high quality products and service to the gaming industry.

ACQUISITION OF KELLEY COMMUNICATION COMPANY, INC. (d/b/a Kelley Technologies)

Pursuant to an acquisition agreement, the Company acquired 100% of the outstanding shares of common stock of Kelley Communication Company, Inc., a Nevada corporation, on September 22, 2005 for $10,232,101 in common stock. Goodwill of $11,144,216 was recorded upon the acquisition and was valued based on Kelley's customer pipeline and customer backlog at the time of acquisition. Kelley is a Las Vegas, Nevada-based business focusing on the design, project management, installation, and deployment of data, voice, video, audio/visual, security and surveillance systems, entertainment and special effects, and telecom systems. Mike Kelley, the 100% owner of Kelley prior to the acquisition, received 14,061,577 shares of the Company's common stock.

Table of Contents

The audit of Kelley as of September 22, 2005 has not yet been completed. However, the Company's preliminary financial analysis and due diligence related to the acquisition is complete. Kelley's unaudited balance sheet as of the date of acquisition is as follows.

Cash	$ 177,495
Accounts receivable	1,234,668
Inventory	965,927
Costs in excess of billings	488,370
Other assets	5,599
Fixed assets	713,220
Accumulated depreciation	(407,534)
Goodwill	11,144,216
Accounts payable	(879,995)
Notes payable	(2,297,227)
Billings in excess of earnings	(912,638)
Total	$ 10,232,101

The following pro forma information is presented as though the Company had completed the acquisition of Kelley as of the beginning of the year, on January 1, 2005 and to account for the restatement of the Company's Net Revenues and Net Loss as a result of the Company's decision to discontinue the operations of NIC and COM. Revenues represent total revenues and net loss represents total net loss of the Company for the three and six months ended June 30, 2005 if Kelley had been acquired as of January 1, 2005.

	Six Months Ended June 30, 2005	Three Months Ended June 30, 2005
Net Revenues	$ 3,035,615	$ 1,223,930
Net loss	$ (7,806,671)	$ (881,397)

ACQUISITION OF COM SERVICES, INC. (COM)

On January, 17, 2005, the Company purchased 100% of the outstanding shares of Com Services, Inc., a California corporation. The purchase price was $430,000, of which $50,000 was paid in cash, $200,000 was paid in Company stock, issued at market value, and $180,000 in promissory notes payable over a two year period, with interest at 6%. Below is the unaudited condensed balance sheet of Com Services, Inc. as of January 17, 2005, which is prepared only to present the major asset captions for which the Company has applied the purchase price of $430,000 towards.

Accounts receivable	$ 142,073
Fixed Assets	56,032
Goodwill	331,895
Bank Line of Credit	(100,000)
Total assets and liabilities	$ 430,000

The net revenues and net loss on a pro forma basis, as though the Company had completed the acquisition of Com as of the beginning of the year, on January 1, 2005 would not be materially different than the net revenues and net loss reported for the six months ended June 30, 2005 due to the lack of net revenues and expenses of Com from January 1, 2005 through January 16, 2005.

ACQUISITION OF DEL MAR SYSTEMS INTERNATIONAL, INC. (DMSI)

On March 1, 2004, NIC acquired 100% of the outstanding shares of common stock of DMSI, a telecommunication solutions provider. The operations of DMSI have been consolidated with the operations of the Company, since March 1, 2004 and the operations of DMSI have since been phased out.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

PRINCIPLES OF CONSOLIDATION

The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its 100% owned subsidiaries, Network Installation Corp. (NIC), Kelley, COM, and DMSI. All significant inter-company accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation. The results of operations included within these financial statements include the accounts of NIC and Kelley for the three and six months ended June 30, 2006, and 2005, respectively. The results of NIC and COM have been included in Loss from Discontinued Operations in the Company's accompanying consolidated financial statements for all periods presented.

CASH & CASH EQUIVALENTS

The Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments, purchased with an original maturity at date of purchase of three months or less, to be cash equivalents. Cash and cash equivalents are carried at cost, which approximates market value.

PROPERTY & EQUIPMENT

Property and equipment are stated at cost. Depreciation is provided using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the related assets, e.g. computers (5 years), software (3 years), office furniture and equipment (3 to 7 years), and tenant improvements (life of the lease-approximately 60 months).

ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE

The Company maintains an allowance for doubtful accounts for estimated losses that may arise if any of its consumers are unable to make required payments. Management specifically analyzes the age of customer balances, historical bad debt experience, customer credit-worthiness and changes in customer payment terms when making estimates of the uncollectibility of the Company's trade accounts receivable balances. If the Company determines that the financial conditions of any of its customers have deteriorated, whether due to customer specific or general economic issues, increase in the allowance may be made. Accounts receivable are written off when all collection attempts have failed.

INVENTORY

Inventory consists of networking materials and equipment in the process of being installed at the balance sheet date. Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or market. Cost is determined by the average cost method at the Kelley subsidiary. The Company has reviewed its inventory for obsolescence on a quarterly basis since operations began and has not written-off any inventory for obsolescence.

FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The Company's financial instruments, including cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued liabilities are carried at cost, which approximates their face value, due to the relatively short maturity of these instruments. As of June 30, 2006 and December 31, 2005, the Company's notes payable have stated borrowing rates that are consistent with those currently available to the Company and, accordingly, the Company believes the carrying value of these debt instruments approximates their fair value.

GOODWILL

Under SFAS No. 142. Goodwill and other Intangible Assets, all goodwill amortization ceased effective January 1, 2002. Rather, goodwill is now subject only to impairment reviews. A fair-value based test is applied at the reporting level. This test requires various judgments and estimates. A goodwill impairment loss will be recorded for any goodwill that is determined to be impaired. Goodwill is tested for impairment at least annually.

ACCOUNTING FOR IMPAIRMENTS IN LONG-LIVED ASSETS

Long-lived assets and identifiable intangibles are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amounts of assets may not be recoverable. Management periodically evaluates the carrying value and the economic useful life of its long-lived assets based on the Company's operating performance and the expected future undiscounted cash flows and will adjust the carrying amount of assets which may not be recoverable.

USE OF ESTIMATES

The preparation of financial statements, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States, requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Significant estimates made in preparing these financial statements include the allowance for doubtful accounts, deferred tax asset valuation allowance, impairment of goodwill, certain gross margins on long term construction contracts and useful lives for depreciable and amortizable assets. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

REVENUE RECOGNITION

The Company's revenue recognition policies are in compliance with all applicable accounting regulations, including American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) Statement of Position (SOP) 81-1, Accounting for Performance of Construction-Type and Certain Production-Type Contracts. Revenues from design, installations, and networking contracts are recognized using the percentage-of-completion method of accounting. Accordingly, income is recognized in the ratio that costs incurred bears to estimated total costs. Adjustments to cost estimates are made periodically, and losses expected to be incurred on contracts in progress are charged to operations in the period such losses are determined. The aggregate of costs incurred and income recognized on uncompleted contracts in excess of related billings is shown as a current asset, and the aggregate of billings on uncompleted contracts in excess of related costs incurred and income recognized is shown as a current liability.

The Company's revenue recognition policy for the sale of its products is in compliance with Staff accounting bulletin (SAB) 104. Revenue is recognized when a formal arrangement exists, the price is fixed or determinable, the delivery is completed and collectibility is reasonably assured. Generally, the Company extends credit to its customers and does not require collateral. STOCK-BASED COMPENSATION

In October 1995, the FASB issued SFAS No. 123R, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation amended by SFAS No 148, Accounting for Stock Based Compensation Transition and Disclosure. SFAS No. 123R prescribes accounting and reporting standards for all stock-based compensation plans, including employee stock options, restricted stock, employee stock purchase plans and stock appreciation rights. SFAS No. 123 requires compensation expense to be recorded (i) using the new fair value method or (ii) using the existing accounting rules prescribed by Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 25, Accounting for stock issued to employees (APB 25) and related interpretations with pro-forma disclosure of what net income and earnings per share would have been had the Company adopted the new fair value method. The Company uses the intrinsic value method prescribed by APB 25 and has opted for the disclosure provisions of SFAS No.123.

On October 20, 2005, the Company issued 972,500 stock options to various Kelley employees in accordance with the Company's 2005 Stock Option Plan. The exercise price at the time of grant was $.79 per share, which was equal to the fair market value of the common stock on the date of grant, and the right to exercise the options were subject to vesting provisions over a three year period. Subsequent to issuance, 382,500 of such options were retired resulting from employees who left the Company prior to vesting.

On March 30, 2006, the Company issued 1,347,500 stock options to various Kelley employees in accordance with the Company's 2005 Stock Option Plan. The exercise price at the time of grant was $.42 per share, which was equal to the fair market value of the common stock on the date of grant, and the right to exercise the options were subject to vesting provisions over a three year period. Subsequent to issuance, 62,500 of such options were retired resulting from employees who left the Company prior to vesting.

On June 2, 2006, the Company issued 600,000 stock options to two Kelley employees in accordance with the Company's 2005 Stock Option Plan. The exercise price at the time of grant was $.41 per share, which was equal to the fair market value of the common stock on the date of grant, and the right to exercise the options were subject to vesting provisions over a three year period.

On August 8, 2006, the Company issued 192,500 stock options to various Kelley employees in accordance with the Company's 2005 Stock Option Plan. The exercise price at the time of grant was $.21 per share, which was equal to the fair market value of the common stock on the date of grant, and the right to exercise the options were subject to vesting provisions over a three year period.

BASIC AND DILUTED NET LOSS PER SHARE

Net loss per share is calculated in accordance with the Statement of financial accounting standards No. 128 (SFAS No. 128), Earnings per share. Basic net loss per share is based upon the weighted average number of common shares outstanding. For all periods, all of the Company's common stock equivalents were excluded from the calculation of diluted loss per common share because they were anti-dilutive, due to the Company's net losses. The Company's significant components of common stock equivalents are its convertible debentures (which were retired effective June 30, 2006), warrants to purchase the Company's common stock and stock options.

Table of Contents

Stock options, which would have an anti-dilutive effect on the net loss per common share once exercised, to purchase 2,667,500 shares of common stock remained outstanding as of June 30, 2006. There were 972,500 stock options outstanding at December 31, 2005, 1,347,500 stock options were granted on March 30, 2006 and 600,000 stock options were granted on June 2, 2006. These stock options have a vesting period of three years from the date of grant. Prior to the retirement of all convertible debentures effective June 30, 2006, the convertible debentures which could be exercised on any date subsequent to the issuance of the convertible debentures, would have an anti-dilutive effect on the net loss per common share once and if the holders elected to exchange the convertible debentures for shares of the Company's common stock. The number of common shares which could be exchanged by the Company for a full release of the obligation to repay the principal and interest balances associated with all convertible debentures could possibly have been based in part on the Company's price per common share as quoted on the OTC bulletin board on the date of conversion. Since the Company was not able to determine the price per common share of its common stock in the future, it did not believe it could reasonably determine the number of common shares to be issued pursuant to an exchange of its convertible debentures for common shares. Therefore, the Company could not accurately determine the number of common shares which could be exchanged by the Company that are related to the convertible debentures as of December 31, 2005. There were no convertible debentures outstanding as of June 30, 2006.

3. GOING CONCERN

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles, which contemplates continuation of the Company as a going concern. However, the Company has accumulated deficit of $27,105,309, and is generating losses from operations. The continuing losses have adversely affected the liquidity of the Company. The Company faces continuing significant business risks, including but, not limited, to its ability to maintain vendor and supplier relationships by making timely payments when due.

In view of the matters described in the preceding paragraph, recoverability of a major portion of the recorded asset amounts shown in the accompanying balance sheet is dependent upon continued operations of the Company, which in turn is dependent upon the Company's ability to raise additional capital, obtain financing and to succeed in its future operations. The financial statements do not include any adjustments relating to the recoverability and classification of recorded asset amounts or amounts and classification of liabilities that might be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern. Management has taken the following steps to revise its operating and financial requirements, which it believes are sufficient to provide the Company with the ability to continue as a going concern in the near term. Management has restructured all of its convertible debt in exchange for promissory notes with payment terms ranging from two to five years, retiring the rights for the holders to convert the outstanding debt into common stock of the company and also retired all related warrants to purchase common stock of the company. In addition, management has devoted considerable effort toward obtaining additional equity financing and is endeavoring to improve operational performance using marketing methods, cost cutting and the like.

The Company is currently in the process of designing and building cable television and internet systems in order to provide such services to up to approximately 2,000 residential homeowners in a development in Henderson, Nevada. The Company and its Board of Directors have determined that providing cable television and internet service is not part of the Company's core business or business plan and, as a result, have approved a plan to sell the asset either during construction or shortly thereafter. The Company is in the process of meeting with potential buyers and/or joint venture partners, however, no transaction has been consummated to date. The operations to date consist of minimal billings to approximately 100 customers for cable television and internet services, less the costs to provide such services and maintain the equipment. The Company anticipates that it will cost approximately $500,000, in addition to the $519,249 already incurred, to complete the design and build of the systems and that the systems will be complete on or near September 1, 2006. 11. DISCONTINUED OPERATIONS

In the second quarter of 2006, the Company finalized its plans to shut down its operations at its NIC and COM subsidiaries. The Company decided to close down these operations primarily because they were incurring operating losses, low gross margins and cash flow shortages, in addition to the fact that these business were not consistent with the core business of the Company's subsidiary, Kelley. In conjunction with this decision, the Company has accrued $150,000 to cover the costs of closing the subsidiary companies. The net assets and liabilities of the discontinued operations are presented separately under the caption "Net Liabilities from Discontinued Operations" in the Company's balance sheet at June 30, 2006 and December 31, 2005 and consists of the following:

12. INCOME TAXES

No provision was made for Federal income tax since the Company has significant net operating losses. Through June 30, 2006, and December 31, 2005, the Company incurred net operating losses for tax purposes of approximately $27,105,000 and $25,170,000, respectively. The net operating loss carry forwards may be used to reduce taxable income through the year 2023. The availability of the Company's net operating loss carry-forwards are subject to limitation if there is a 50% or more positive change in the ownership of the Company's stock. A valuation allowance for 100% of the deferred taxes asset has been recorded due to the uncertainty of its realization.

Since the Company has not generated taxable income, no provision for income taxes has been provided.

The availability of the Company's net operating loss carry-forwards are subject to limitation if there is a 50% or more positive change in the ownership of the Company's stock. The Company's total deferred tax asset is as follows:

	June 30, 2006	December 31, 2005
Tax benefit of net operating loss carry-forward	$ 8,400,000	$ 7,800,000
Valuation allowance	(8,400,000)	(7,800,000)

The following is a reconciliation of the provision for income taxes at the U.S. federal income tax rate to the income taxes reflected in the Statement of Operations:

	June 30, 2006 and December 31, 2005
Tax expense (credit) at statutory rate-federal	(34)%	(34)%
State tax expense net of federal tax	(6)	(6)
Changes in valuation allowance	40	40
Tax expense at actual rate

The valuation allowance increased by approximately $148,000 and $452,000 in the three and six months ended June 30, 2006 and $5,282,000 in the year ended December 31, 2005. Since the realization of the operating loss carry-forwards are doubtful, it is reasonably possible that the Company's estimate of the valuation allowance will change.

Table of Contents13. COMMITMENTS & CONTINGENCIES*LITIGATION

On April 25, 2003 the Superior Court of the State of California, County of Orange, entered a judgment in the amount of $46,120 against the Company and its former management in favor of a vendor of the Company's former subsidiary, North Texas Circuit Board, or NTCB. On August 20, 2002 the Company sold NTCB to BC Electronics, Inc. Pursuant to terms of the share purchase agreement, BC Electronics assumed all liabilities of NTCB. In December 2003 the Company filed a motion to vacate the judgment for lack of personal service. In February 2004, the Court ruled in favor of the Company and the judgment was vacated. Although the Company was the guarantor on the loan, NTCB is the principal debtor (i) the Company will bring action against NTCB to seek relief or (ii) because partial payment was made by NTCB, it could affect the legal status of the guarantee, which the Company believes may absolve it of liability. In February 2004, the plaintiff re-filed the complaint. In March 2005, the complaint was settled for the sum of $25,000. Commencing in March 2005, the Company agreed to make five equal monthly installments of $5,000 to the vendor. As of December 31, 2005, the Company has paid this obligation in full.

On January 24, 2005, the Company filed an action in the Superior Court of California, County of Orange against the former principals of DMSI for damages and injunctive relief based on alleged fraud and breach of contract relating to the Company's purchase of Del Mar Systems International, Inc. The complaint was amended on March 14, 2005 to seek rescission of the Company's purchase of Del Mar Systems from its former owners. The Defendant also filed a cross-complaint in the above action seeking recovery under various employment and contract theories for unpaid compensation, expenses and benefits totaling approximately $90,000. Defendant also sought payment of an outstanding balance of a note related to the purchase by the Company of DMSI totaling approximately $85,000. Further, Defendant was seeking injunctive relief for enforcement of the stock purchase agreement of DMSI. This case was settled and the Company agreed to pay $84,000 over a 12 month period and also agreed to issue 300,000 shares of our common stock. During 2006, the Company paid seven of the required monthly installments and has issued 300,000 shares of common stock valued at $139,800 during the six months ended June 30, 2006.

In March 2006, Lisa Cox sued Kelley, NIC, and Kelley's CEO personally, claiming damages related to promises she alleges were made to her husband, prior to her husband's death. The alleged promises made resulted from business transactions between her husband and Kelley, prior to the Company's acquisition of Kelley. At this time, it is too early to determine the outcome of such allegations, however, management intends to vigorously defend the Company. No adjustments have been made in the accompanying financial statements as a result of this allegation, and management believes that in the event Ms. Cox is successful in her pursuit, the impact on the Company will not be material. The Company may be involved in litigation, negotiation and settlement matters that may occur in the day-to-day operations of the Company and its subsidiaries. Management does not believe implication of these litigations will have any material impact on the Company's financial statements.

OTHER COMMITMENTS

The Company is obligated to pay rent amounts as follows:

In addition, the Company is required to pay certain bonus amounts based on performance and consummation of successful fund raising efforts ranging from 3.5% to 5.5% of funds raised, depending on the nature of the funds raised. The agreement was extended on August 8, 2006 and the Company, at its discretion, may pay the monthly retainer going forward in either cash or in shares of the Company's stock equal to $50,000 divided by the closing price of the stock on the first day of each thirty day period in which services shall be provided.

Table of Contents

The founder and former CEO agreed to rescind 7,887,482 shares of common stock back to the Company. These shares of common stock had been acquired by the founder and former CEO in connection with the organization of the Company. As such, the shares were originally recorded with a $0 value and have been rescinded with a $0 value. A majority shareholder agreed to rescind 685,517 shares of common stock valued at $530,590 back to the Company. These shares of common stock were acquired in September 2003 by the majority shareholder in connection with various debt financings consummated in 2003 and were valued at $.774 per share at the time of issuance. Investor relations for the year ended December 31, 2005 includes a reduction of the total expense for the period, of $530,590, recorded as a result of the rescinding of these shares of common stock.

15. BASIC AND DILUTED NET LOSS PER SHARE

Basic and diluted net loss per share for the three and six months ended June 30, 2006 and 2005 was determined by dividing net loss for the periods by the weighted average number of basic and diluted shares of common stock outstanding. Weighted average number of shares used to compute basic and diluted loss per share is the same since the effect of dilutive securities is anti-dilutive.

The Company's significant components of common stock equivalents are its convertible debentures, warrants and stock options.

Stock options, which would have an anti-dilutive effect on the net loss per common share once exercised, to purchase 2,475,000 and 973,500 shares of common stock remained outstanding as of June 30, 2006 and December 31, 2005, respectively. These stock options have a vesting period of three years from the date of grant, October 20, 2005, March 30, 2006 and June 2, 2006, respectively.

Prior to the retirement of all convertible debentures effective June 30, 2006, the convertible debentures which could be exercised on any date subsequent to the issuance of the convertible debentures, would have an anti-dilutive effect on the net loss per common share once and if the holders elected to exchange the convertible debentures for shares of the Company's common stock. The number of common shares which could be exchanged by the Company for a full release of the obligation to repay the principal and interest balances associated with all convertible debentures could possibly have been based in part on the Company's price per common share as quoted on the OTC bulletin board on the date of conversion. Since the Company was not able to determine the price per common share of its common stock in the future, it did not believe it could reasonably determine the number of common shares to be issued pursuant to an exchange of its convertible debentures for common shares. Therefore, the Company could not accurately determine the number of common shares which could be exchanged by the Company that are related to the convertible debentures as of December 31, 2005.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OR PLAN OF OPERATION.

The discussion and financial statements contained herein are for the three and six months ended June 30, 2006 and June 30, 2005. The following discussion should be read in conjunction with our financial statements and notes included herewith.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT CONCERNING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This report contains forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. We generally use words such as believe, may, could, will, intend, expect, anticipate, plan, and similar expressions to identify forward-looking statements, including statements regarding our ability to continue to create innovative technology products, our ability to continue to generate new business based on referrals and existing relationships, our financing strategy and ability to access the capital markets and other risks discussed in our Risk Factor section in our annual report on Form 10-KSB. Although we believe the expectations expressed in the forward-looking statements included in this Form 10-QSB are based on reasonable assumptions within the bounds of our knowledge of our business, a number of factors could cause our actual results to differ materially from those expressed in any forward-looking statements. We cannot assure you that the results or developments expected or anticipated by us will be realized or, even if substantially realized, that those results or developments will result in the expected consequences for us or affect us, our business or our operations in the way we expect. We caution readers not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of their dates. We do not intend to, and undertake no duty to, update any of the forward-looking statements after the date of this document to conform these statements to actual results or to changes in our expectations.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

We have identified the policies below as critical to our business operations and the understanding of our results of operations. The impact and any associated risks related to these policies on our business operations are discussed throughout this section where such policies affect our reported and expected financial results. Our preparation of our Consolidated Financial Statements requires us to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of our financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Our actual results may differ from those estimates.

Table of Contents

Our accounting policies that are the most important to the portrayal of our financial condition and results, and which require the highest degree of management judgment relate to revenue recognition, the provision for uncollectible accounts receivable, analysis of the value of goodwill, and issuance of shares for service.

Revenue Recognition

Our revenue recognition policies are in compliance with all applicable accounting regulations, including American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) Statement of Position (SOP) 81-1, Accounting for Performance of Construction-Type and Certain Production-Type Contracts. Revenues from design, installations, and networking contracts are recognized using the percentage-of-completion method of accounting. Accordingly, income is recognized in the ratio that costs incurred bears to estimated total costs. Adjustments to cost estimates are made periodically, and losses expected to be incurred on contracts in progress are charged to operations in the period such losses are determined. The aggregate of costs incurred and income recognized on uncompleted contracts in excess of related billings is shown as a current asset, and the aggregate of billings on uncompleted contracts in excess of related costs incurred and income recognized is shown as a current liability.

Our revenue recognition policy for sale of our products is in compliance with Staff Accounting Bulletin (SAB) 104. Revenue is recognized when a formal arrangement exists, the price is fixed or determinable, the delivery is completed and collectibility is reasonably assured. Generally, we extend credit to our customers and do not require collateral. We perform ongoing credit evaluations of our customers and historic credit losses have been within management's expectations.

We estimate the likelihood of customer payment based principally on a customer's credit history and our general credit experience. To the extent our estimates differ materially from actual results, the timing and amount of revenues recognized or bad debt expense recorded may be materially misstated during a reporting period.

Accounts Receivable and Allowance for Doubtful Accounts

We maintain allowances for doubtful accounts, when appropriate, for estimated losses resulting from the inability of our customers to make required payments. If the financial condition of our customers were to deteriorate, our actual losses may exceed our estimates, and additional allowances would be required.

Goodwill

In June 2001, the FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 142, or SFAS 142, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets. As required by SFAS 142, goodwill is subject to annual impairment tests, or earlier if indicators of potential impairment exist and suggest that the carrying value of goodwill may not be recoverable from estimated discounted future cash flows. Because we have one reporting segment under SFAS 142, we utilize the entity-wide approach to assess goodwill for impairment and compare our market value to our net book value to determine if an impairment exists. These impairment tests have resulted in impairments of approximately $4.2 million in 2005 and may result in additional impairment losses that could have a material adverse impact on our results of operations in the future.

Stock-Based Compensation

In October 1995, the FASB issued SFAS No. 123R, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation amended by SFAS No 148, Accounting for Stock Based Compensation Transition and Disclosure. SFAS No. 123 prescribes accounting and reporting standards for all stock-based compensation plans, including employee stock options, restricted stock, employee stock purchase plans and stock appreciation rights. SFAS No. 123 requires compensation expense to be recorded (i) using the new fair value method or (ii) using the existing accounting rules prescribed by Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 25, Accounting for stock issued to employees (APB 25) and related interpretations with pro-forma disclosure of what net income and earnings per share would have been had the Company adopted the new fair value method. The Company uses the intrinsic value method prescribed by APB 25 and has opted for the disclosure provisions of SFAS No.123. On October 20, 2005, the Company issued 972,500 stock options to various Kelley employees in accordance with the Company's 2005 Stock Option Plan. The exercise price at the time of grant was $0.79 per share, which was equal to the fair market value of the common stock at the time of grant, and the right to exercise the options were subject to vesting provisions over a three year period. Subsequent to issuance, 132,500 of such options were retired resulting from employees who left the Company prior to vesting.

On March 30, 2006, the Company issued 1,347,500 stock options to various Kelley employees in accordance with the Company's 2005 Stock Option Plan. The exercise price at the time of grant was $0.42 per share, which was equal to the fair market value of the common stock at the time of grant, and the right to exercise the options were subject to vesting provisions over a three year period.

Table of Contents

On June 2, 2006, the Company issued 600,000 stock options to two Kelley employees in accordance with the Company's 2005 Stock Option Plan. The exercise price at the time of grant was $.41 per share, which was equal to the fair market value of the common stock on the date of grant, and the right to exercise the options were subject to vesting provisions over a three year period.

On August 8, 2006, the Company issued 192,500 stock options to various Kelley employees in accordance with the Company's 2005 Stock Option Plan. The exercise price at the time of grant was $.21 per share, which was equal to the fair market value of the common stock on the date of grant, and the right to exercise the options were subject to vesting provisions over a three year period.

Going Concern

Our audited financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005, reflect a net loss of ($15,534,423). These conditions raise substantial doubt about our ability to continue as a going concern if we do not acquire sufficient additional funding or alternative sources of capital to meet our working capital needs. Without such external funding, we would have to materially curtail our operations and plans for expansion.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

We consider all highly liquid debt instruments, purchased with an original maturity at date of purchase of three months or less, to be cash equivalents. Cash and cash equivalents are carried at cost, which approximates market value.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost. Depreciation is provided using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the related assets, e.g. computers (5 years), software (3 years), office furniture and equipment (3 to 7 years), and tenant improvements (life of the lease-approximately 60 months).

Inventory

Inventory consists of networking materials and equipment in the process of being installed at years end. Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or market. Cost is determined by the average cost method at the Kelley subsidiary. The Company has reviewed its inventory for obsolescence on a quarterly basis since operations began and has not written-off any inventory for obsolescence.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company's financial instruments, including cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued liabilities are carried at cost, which approximates their face value, due to the relatively short maturity of these instruments. As of June 30, 2006 and December 31, 2005, the Company's notes payable have stated borrowing rates that are consistent with those currently available to the Company and, accordingly, the Company believes the carrying value of these debt instruments approximates their fair value.

Accounting for Impairments in Long-Lived Assets

Long-lived assets and identifiable intangibles are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amounts of assets may not be recoverable. Management periodically evaluates the carrying value and the economic useful life of its long-lived assets based on the Company's operating performance and the expected future undiscounted cash flows and will adjust the carrying amount of assets which may not be recoverable.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States, requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Significant estimates made in preparing these financial statements include the allowance for doubtful accounts, deferred tax asset valuation allowance, impairment of goodwill, certain gross margins on long term construction contracts and useful lives for depreciable and amortizable assets. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Basic and Diluted Net Loss Per Share

Net loss per share is calculated in accordance with the Statement of financial accounting standards No. 128 (SFAS No. 128), Earnings per share. Basic net loss per share is based upon the weighted average number of common shares outstanding. For all

periods, all of the Company's common stock equivalents were excluded from the calculation of diluted loss per common share because they were anti-dilutive, due to the Company's net losses.

The Company's significant components of common stock equivalents are its convertible debentures (all of which have been retired effective June 30, 2006), warrants and stock options.

Stock options, which would have an anti-dilutive effect on the net loss per common share once exercised, to purchase 2,320,000 and 972,500 shares of common stock remained outstanding as of June 30, 2006 and December 31, 2005, respectively. These stock options have a vesting period of three years from the date of grant, October 20, 2005, May 30, 2006 and June 2, 2006, respectively.

Prior to the retirement of all convertible debentures effective June 30, 2006, the convertible debentures which could be exercised on any date subsequent to the issuance of the convertible debentures, would have an anti-dilutive effect on the net loss per common share once and if the holders elected to exchange the convertible debentures for shares of the Company's common stock. The number of common shares which could be exchanged by the Company for a full release of the obligation to repay the principal and interest balances associated with all convertible debentures could possibly have been based in part on the Company's price per common share as quoted on the OTC bulletin board on the date of conversion. Since the Company was not able to determine the price per common share of its common stock in the future, it did not believe it could reasonably determine the number of common shares to be issued pursuant to an exchange of its convertible debentures for common shares. Therefore, the Company could not accurately determine the number of common shares which could be exchanged by the Company that are related to the convertible debentures as of December 31, 2005.

SIX MONTH PERIOD ENDED JUNE 30, 2006 AS COMPARED TO SIX MONTH PERIOD ENDED JUNE 30, 2005

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

NET REVENUE

We generated consolidated net revenues of $11,643,300 for the six months ended June 30, 2006, as compared to $0 for the six month period ended June 30, 2005. The increase in revenues for this six month period when compared to the same six month period last year is due to the acquisition of Kelley during 2005, which accounted for all of our net revenues for the six months ended June 30, 2006. With the acquisition of Kelley, we acquired in excess of 60 contracts with over 50 customers. All of our net revenues for the six months ended June 30, 2005 were generated by NIC and COM, which have subsequently been wound down due to management's decision to relocate the business from California to Nevada and to focus on Kelley's operations and reclassified into Loss from Discontinued Operations in the accompanying financial statements.

COST OF REVENUES

Cost of revenues for the six months ended June 30, 2006 were $9,518,873 compared to $0 for the six months ended June 30, 2005. All of our cost of revenues for the six months ended June 30, 2005 were generated by NIC and COM, which have subsequently been wound down due to management's decision to relocate the business from California to Nevada and to focus on the Kelley's operations and reclassified into Loss from Discontinued Operations in the accompanying financial statements.

The gross margins for the six months ended June 30, 2005, were all generated by NIC and COM which have subsequently been wound down due to management's decision to relocate the business from California to Nevada and focus on Kelley's operations, and as a result, have been reclassified into Loss from Discontinued Operations.

Table of ContentsOPERATING EXPENSES

Operating expenses for the six months ended June 30, 2006 amounted to $2,261,718 compared to $6,953,289 for the six months ended June 30, 2005. The decrease was due to issuance of warrants to Company executives that resulted in a non-cash officer compensation charge of $6,575,426 during the six months ended June 30, 2005. Additionally, investor relations costs decreased from $241,685 for the six months ended June 30, 2005 to $65,783 for the six months ended June 30, 2006. Such decreases were offset by an increase in salaries from $0 for the six months ended June 30, 2005 to $1,002,763 for the six months ended June 30, 2006, as a result of our acquisition of Kelley in 2005, which employed approximately 60 employees. Other significant components of operating expenses for the six months ended June 30, 2006 included consulting fees of $156,239, insurance expense of $174,925, and rent of $163,178, substantially all of which were incurred by Kelley.

Without the continued availability of external funding, we would have to materially curtail our operations and plans for expansion. Our plan to continue operations in relation to our going concern opinion is to continue to secure additional equity or debt capital although there can be no guarantee that we will be successful in our efforts.

FINANCING ACTIVITIES

During the six months ended June 30, 2006, we entered into the following factoring and security agreements to sell, transfer and assign certain accounts receivable to Dutchess Private Equities Fund, LP. The difference between the face amount of each purchased account and advance on the purchased account would be reserved and would be released after deductions of discount and charge backs. In addition, Dutchess charges finance fees in connection with these agreements. On April 1, 2003, Kelley entered into a lease agreement with RMS Limited Partnership, for office and warehouse space located at 5625 Arville Street, Las Vegas, Nevada. The lease term is for 66 months and ends on September 30, 2008. We acquired this obligation with the acquisition of Kelley. For the year ended:

Kelley may extend the lease for two additional terms of three years from October 1, 2008 to September 30, 2011 and from October 1, 2011 to September 30, 2014, at a 4% annual increase in rent.

Payroll tax liabilities of $318,281 and $371,213, were payable at June 30, 2006 and December 31, 2005, respectively. These liabilities arose at NIC and COM during 2003 and 2004. On July 27, 2006, the Internal Revenue Service approved a payment plan that we presented whereby we are obligated to pay $15,000 per month through May 2008 and $25,000 per month from May 2008 until the balance is paid in full. Interest and penalties will continue to accrue until the balance is paid in full.

We are obligated to pay $84,000 over a 12-month period in settlement of a lawsuit. We have paid the first seven monthly installments as of June 30, 2006.

Table of Contents

We are obligated to complete the design and build-out of a cable television and internet system to approximately 2,000 homeowners located in Henderson, Nevada. We anticipate that it will cost an additional $500,000 approximately, to complete the design and build-out of these systems. In addition, we anticipate additional costs once the systems are designed and built, in order to install the systems into the residential homes.

MATERIAL TRENDS AND UNCERTAINTIES

During the second quarter of 2006, we continued to wind down business operations at our COM and NIC subsidiaries, and have now classified these two entities as Discontinued Operations. We believe that we will complete the wind down of these entities entirely in the next 90 to 180 days.

We successfully completed the restructuring of $9.1 million in convertible debt into $7.5 million in promissory notes and removed the potential for up to 50% shareholder dilution. Along with this debt restructuring we were successful in restructuring $900,000 of the aforementioned convertible debt that was coming due in September 2006 into term loans payable over a two-year period in the principal amount of $780,000 at 7% interest, with payments not beginning until January of 2007. In addition we retired over 5.9 million warrants. All of these transactions were consummated without the use of any of our cash.

We are continuing to focus on the growth of our Kelley subsidiary and have increased our margins from 15% in the first quarter of 2006 to in excess of 21% in the second quarter of 2006. We are continuing to execute management's turnaround plan of the Company and expect to continue to improve our financial performance due to our focus on increasing gross margins, our strong customer base including our backlog and our pipeline of potential business, completion of the wind down of NIC and COM and a decrease in interest expense going forward as a result of our debt restructuring. For example, interest expense in the second quarter of 2006 was in excess of $1 million. We are projecting interest expense to be less than $200,000 in each of the third and fourth quarters of 2006. However, we still need to increase our gross margins and close on new business in order to generate positive cash flows and profitability. There can be no assurance that our gross margins will be sufficient enough to cover our operating costs, nor can there be any assurance that we will close on enough new contracts to reach profitability. If we do not increase our margins to a sufficient level and if we do not close on new business in sufficient amounts, our financial condition and results of operations could be adversely impacted.

As a result of winding down our NIC and COM subsidiaries and focusing on our Kelley subsidiary and its revenue streams and lines of business, we believe that our Company name of Network Installation Corp. is no longer indicative of the business that we are in. As a result of this and the aforementioned factors related to management's turnaround plan, we are considering changing the name of our company to Siena Technologies and consummating a Quasi-Reorganization of the Company to eliminate accumulated deficits from past operations. We anticipate that our new name and resulting financial statements will have more credibility and we believe that, in addition to our turnaround and our top line revenue growth, coupled with our improved balance sheet will enhance our ability to raise capital to support our business and growth plans, although we cannot guarantee our financing efforts will be successful. Although our corporate entity will remain unchanged in a Quasi-Reorganization, a new basis of accounting will be established and our retained deficit will be raised to a zero balance by charging our deficits accumulated to date to Additional Paid in Capital. Our new retained earnings account will be dated to show that the balance in our retained earnings account will have accumulated since the date of the Quasi-Reorganization. We intend to change our name, pending shareholder approval, during the third or fourth quarter, at the latest, of 2006 and we also intend to contemplate the Quasi-Reorganization transaction during the third quarter of 2006 as well, if management believes that transaction is to the benefit of the Company and its shareholders.

During the second quarter of 2006, we continued to service, and completed the majority of the remaining work on Kelley's largest contract, the Red Rock Casino project in Las Vegas, Nevada. This contract required us to design and install most of the audio/visual systems in the Casino in addition to the design and installation of the Race and Sports book technology and designing and installing various other systems throughout the hotel and casino. In addition, during the second quarter of 2006, we completed the design and installation of the Race Book technology and other audio/visual systems at Borgata in Atlantic City, New Jersey. We also delivered approximately 50% of the design and installation for certain audio/visual systems in addition to the design and installation of the Race and Sports Book technology at Green Valley Ranch Hotel and Casino in Las Vegas, Nevada during the second quarter of 2006. These three projects combined for approximately $3.7 million of our $4.9 million in revenues for the second quarter 2006. While we expect to complete the Green Valley Ranch contract in the third quarter of 2006 and we also expect to complete approximately 60% of our work on a $3 million contract for the design and installation for certain audio/visual systems in addition to the design and installation of the Race and Sports Book technology at Santa Fe Hotel and Casino in Las Vegas, Nevada, we do expect a slight decrease in our revenues in the third and fourth quarters of 2006, as compared to the second quarter of 2006. However, such projected decreases in revenues for the third and fourth quarters are expected to be slightly offset by an increase in our gross margins for both quarters. Red Rock, Green Valley Ranch and Santa Fe are all owned by Station Casinos, which is by far our largest customer. However, we may experience cash shortages from time to time during this period due to the nature of the timing of our material purchasing requirements and our general and administrative costs, related to our billing cycles and the timing of our cash collections.

Table of Contents

If and when we experience such cash shortages, we plan to continue to factor our receivables from Station Casinos with Dutchess, or another factoring source should Dutchess not lend against such receivables. If we are unsuccessful in collecting our receivables timely and are unable to factor our receivables, if and when cash shortages arise, we will scale back operations, including reductions in head count and other general and administrative expenses, which may have a detrimental impact on our ability to continue as a going concern.

It is management's intention to continue to expand our service offerings and deploy our expertise in hi-end design, build and project management for our hotel and casino customers into other commercial and residential buildings that are using smart building technologies similar to those that we provide. During the second quarter, we continued our penetration into the MDU (Multiple Dwelling Units) markets in Las Vegas, Nevada and are currently providing services to the building owners, real estate developers and home owners associations at Pinnacle, Mira Villa and One Las Vegas, all in the Las Vegas market. In the near future, we will also be providing our services to residential home owners at these developments. Services to both the building owners, real estate developers, home owners associations as well as to residential home owners at these developments constitute a significant portion of our projected future growth. There can be no assurance that we will be successful in expanding our business to service these new customers, nor can there be any assurance given that even if we are successful in attracting new customers and growing into these markets, that we will be able to finance our short term capital needs or that we will be able to deliver our services with sufficient gross margins and profits.

Even though gross margins are increasing at the Kelley subsidiary, they are still lower than what is necessary to cover our operating costs. Low gross margins, coupled with the large dollar value that is held in retention on the projects that we are contracted for with Station Casinos, have created continued cash flow shortages at the Company. We believe that we have enough cash on hand, coupled with pending accounts receivable to cover our operating costs through the end of November 2006. We have deployed aggressive strategies to increase our margins and reduce our operating costs including improving our contract pricing with our customers, negotiating more favorable contract terms that will allow us to bill for additional work, longer lead times for purchasing of materials, negotiating with better payment terms and obtaining discounts with vendors and suppliers, and a slight reduction in our head count. In addition, we have been successful at restructuring our debt situation that burdened the Company with high interest charges and a capital structure that was unattractive to new investors and fresh capital. While we believe these strategies will improve our cash flows from operations in addition to making our company more attractive to capital investment, should our cash flow shortfalls continue, and should we be unsuccessful in raising capital, it will have an adverse impact on our relationships with our vendors and may impact our ability to service our clients and deliver our projects on time and on budget, which will have an adverse impact on our financial condition and results of operations. While we are actively assessing our cash flow needs and pursuing multiple avenues of financing and cash flow generation, there can be no assurance that our activities will be successful.

As a result of winding down the operations of our NIC and COM subsidiaries, we no longer generate revenues from these subsidiaries. However, we continue to pay monthly amounts to various third parties for obligations related to the past operations of NIC and COM. Between July 2006 and December 2006, we are obligated to pay approximately $100,000 per month, on average. Should our cash flows from operations be insufficient to cover such monthly obligations, we intend to renegotiate such obligations for extended payment terms. However, there can be no assurance that we will be successful in renegotiating such payment amounts.

Monthly principal and interest payments related to our debt restructuring will begin in January of 2007. If our cash flows are insufficient to cover the repayment terms of such debt, we intend to aggressively pursue refinancing such obligations and/or raising additional financing from third parties and to use such proceeds to pay down the amounts owed. However, there can be no assurance that such refinancing efforts or such fund raising efforts will be successful. If we are unable to refinance such debt obligations and should we be unable to raise financing from outside sources to repay amounts owed and/or to cover our operating expenses, we will scale back operations, including reductions in head count and other general and administrative expenses, which may have a detrimental impact on our ability to continue as a going concern.

SUBSIDIARIES

ITEM 3. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES.

As of June 30, 2006, management, including the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, conducted an evaluation of disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Exchange Act Rule 13a-15 (e)) pursuant to Exchange Act Rules 13a-14 and 13a-15 as of the end of the period covered by this report. Based on that evaluation, the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer have concluded that such disclosure controls and procedures are effective. During the three months ended June 30, 2006, there have been no changes in internal controls, or in factors that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal controls over financial reporting.

PART II OTHER INFORMATION

ITEM 1. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS.

On January 24, 2005, we filed an action in the Superior Court of California, County of Orange against Steve and Dorota Pearson for damages and injunctive relief based on alleged fraud and breach of contract relating to our purchase of Del Mar Systems International, Inc. from Steve and Dorota Pearson. The complaint was amended on March 14, 2005 to seek rescission of our purchase of Del Mar Systems from Steve and Dorota Pearson. The Defendant filed a cross-complaint in the above action seeking recovery under various employment and contract theories for unpaid compensation, expenses and benefits totaling approximately $90,000. Defendant also sought payment of an outstanding balance of a note related to the purchase by us of Del Mar Systems totaling approximately $85,000. Further, Defendant was seeking injunctive relief for enforcement of the stock purchase agreement of Del Mar Systems. This case was settled and we agreed to pay $84,000 over a 12 month period and we also agreed to issue 300,000 shares of our common stock. To date, we have paid seven of the required monthly installments and we have issued the 300,000 shares of common stock at $.45 per share on the date of issuance. At December 31, 2005, we had accrued $170,000 in our financial statements related to this matter.

In March 2006, Lisa Cox sued Kelley Technologies, Mr. Kelley personally and us, claiming damages related to promises she alleges were made to her husband, prior to her husband's death. The alleged promises made resulted from business transactions with Kelley and/or its affiliates and/or subsidiaries, prior to our acquisition of Kelley. The suit was filed in Clark County, Nevada. At this time, it is too early to determine the outcome of such allegations, however, management intends to vigorously defend the claim. No adjustments have been made in the accompanying financial statements as a result of this allegation, and management believes that in the event Ms. Cox is successful in her pursuit, the impact on us will not be material.

We may be involved in litigation, negotiation and settlement matters that may occur in our day-to-day operations. Management does not believe the implication of these litigations will, including those discussed above, have a material impact on our financial statements.
