OF
METROPOLITAN HEALTH NETWORKS, INC.

PROXY STATEMENT

INTRODUCTION

The accompanying proxy is solicited by the Board of Directors (the Board) of Metropolitan Health Networks, Inc. (the Company) to be voted at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held on June 25, 2002 (the Annual Meeting), and any adjournments thereof. When such proxy is properly executed and returned, the shares it represents will be voted at the meeting as directed. If no specifications are indicated, the shares will be voted in accordance with the recommendation of the Board with respect to each matter submitted to the Company's shareholders for approval. The election of the directors nominated requires the affirmative vote of a plurality of the shares of our Common Stock voting at the Annual Meeting in person or by proxy. The ratification of the appointment of our auditors requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of our Common Stock voting at the Annual Meeting in person or by proxy. The quorum necessary to conduct business at the Annual Meeting consists of a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock as of the record date. Any stockholder giving a proxy has the power to revoke it prior to its exercise by notice of revocation the Company in writing, by voting in person at the Annual Meeting or by execution of a subsequent proxy; however, that such action must be taken in sufficient time to permit the necessary examination and tabulation of the subsequent proxy or revocation before the vote is taken.

The shares entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting consist of outstanding shares of the Company's Common Stock, with each share entitling the holder to one (1) vote. At the close of business on May 8, 2002, the record date for the Annual Meeting, there were issued and outstanding 27,903,621 shares of the Company's Common Stock. This Proxy Statement and the accompanying form of proxy are first being sent to stockholders on or about May 18 2002.

In addition to the use of the mails, employees of the Company may make solicitations by telephone, mailgram, facsimile, telegraph, cable and personal interview. The Company shall bear all expenses for the solicitation of proxies and has not retained a solicitation firm.

INFORMATION CONCERNING THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

During the year ended December 31, 2001 the Company's Board of Directors had 14 meetings and took action 2 additional times by Unanimous Written Consent. Each member of the Board participated in each action of the Board.

The Executive Committee, which consists of Messrs. Cahr, Harrison, and Bulger, may exercise the power of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation at any time when the Board of Directors is not in session. The Executive Committee shall, however, be subject to the specific direction of the Board of Directors and all actions must be by unanimous vote.

The Audit Committee, which consists of Messrs. Cahr, Buchanan and Heiman reviews the professional services provided by our independent auditors, the independence of our auditors from our management, our annual financial statements and our system of internal accounting controls. The Audit Committee also reviews other matters with respect to our accounting, auditing and financial reporting practices and procedures as it may find appropriate or may be brought to its attention. The members of the Audit Committee are all independent, as defined in the National Association of Securities Dealers' listing standards. There were 2 meetings of the Audit Committee during 2001.

The Regulatory Compliance Committee, which consists of Messrs. Buchanan and Harrison, review the policy and procedures, current compliance rules and regulations and the Company's compliance methods.

The Compensation Committee, which consists of Messrs. Bulger, Cahr and Harrison, makes recommendations to the Board of Directors regarding the compensation for executive officers and consultants to the Company.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

The Audit Committee reviews the financial reporting process, the system of internal controls, and the audit process. The Audit Committee has not adopted a written charter that has been approved by the Board of Directors.

The Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed the Company's audited financial statements with management, which has primary responsibility for the financial statements. The Audit Committee has discussed with Kaufman, Rossin & Company, our independent auditors, the matters that are required to be discussed by Statement of Auditing Standards No. 61 (COMMUNICATION WITH AUDIT COMMITTEES). The Audit Committee received from Kaufman, Rossin & Company the written disclosures required by Independence Standards Board Standard No.1 (INDEPENDENCE DISCUSSIONS WITH AUDIT COMMITTEES), and discussed with Kaufman, Rossin & Company their independence.

Based on the review and discussions noted above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors, and the Board has approved, that the audited financial statements be included in our Annual Report on Form 10-KSB for the year ended December 31, 2001, for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission, and that Kaufman, Rossin & Company be appointed independent auditors for the Company for 2002.

Submitted by,
AUDIT COMMITTEE:

Michael Cahr
Marvin Heiman
J. Robert Buchanan

DIRECTOR'S COMPENSATION

Directors who are not employees of the Company receive $18,000 per year as compensation for serving on the Board of Directors. The Directors have elected to receive this compensation for the present time in stock. Each outside director also receives 40,000 options upon joining the Board, of which 20,000 vest immediately and the other 20,000 after one year. In addition, the Company reimburses all Directors for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with their attendance at Board of Directors' meetings.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR ELECTION OF THE DIRECTOR NOMINEES.

PROPOSAL 2
PROPOSAL TO RATIFY THE APPOINTMENT OF KAUFMAN, ROSSIN & CO.
AS INDEPENDENT AUDITORS OF THE COMPANY

The Board of Directors has appointed Kaufman, Rossin & Company as our independent auditors for the current fiscal year. Kaufman, Rossin & Company has served as our auditors since 1996. Fees paid to the independent auditors were as follows: Audit Fees: $130,000 for the audit of the consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001 and for the review of the consolidated financial statements included in the Company's quarterly filings on Form 10-QSB; and Other Fees: $40,000 for non-audit-related services. Audit related services generally include fees for business acquisitions, accounting consultations and SEC registration statements. The company's audit committee has discussed whether the providing of services with respect to the fees listed under the caption on "Other Fees" above is compatible with maintaining Kaufman, Rossin & Company's independence.

The appointment of Kaufman, Rossin & Company as independent auditors of the Company for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001 will be ratified. Although the Board of Directors of the Company is submitting the appointment of Kaufman, Rossin & Company for shareholder approval, it reserves the right to change the selection of Kaufman, Rossin & Company as auditors, at any time during the fiscal year, if it deems such change to be in the best interest of the Company, even after stockholder approval. Representatives of Kaufman, Rossin & Company are expected to be present at the Annual Meeting and are expected to be available to respond to appropriate questions from Shareholders.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR RATIFICATION OF KAUFMAN, ROSSIN & COMPANY AS INDEPENDENT AUDITORS OF THE COMPANY.

COMPLIANCE WITH SECTION 16(a) OF THE SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934

Section 16(a) of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), requires the Company's directors and executive officers, and personal who own more than ten percent (10%) of a registered class of the Company's equity securities, to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in ownership of Common Stock and other equity securities of the Company. Officers, directors and greater than ten percent (10%) stockholders are required by Commission regulation to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file.

To the Company's knowledge, based solely on a review of the copies of such reports furnished to the Company and written representations that no other reports were required, all Section 16(a) beneficial owners have complied with the Section 16(a) requirements for the period to which this proxy is related.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENTS

Fred Sternberg

In January 2000 the Company entered into an employment agreement, subsequently amended, with Fred Sternberg, the Company's President, Chief Executive Officer and a director. The term of the agreement is for five years from the effective date. The annual salary under the Agreement is $150,000 with a 10% annual increase. However, effective April 1, 2001 the Board of Directors has approved an increase in Mr. Sternberg's annual salary to $250,000 per year. The annual 10% increase remains the same. Mr. Sternberg is also eligible to receive a discretionary bonus. Additionally, Mr. Sternberg was granted options to purchase 300,000 shares of Common Stock at $0.30 per share and options to purchase 360,000 shares of Common stock at $0.50 per share upon the signing of the Agreement. Additional longevity options were granted at the rate of 25,000 options per year of employment at a price of $1.00 per share. The Agreement also provides for an additional 700,000 options at $0.75 per share vesting on various dates over the life of the contract.

The Agreement also provides, among other things, for (i) participation in any profit-sharing or retirement plan and in other employee benefits applicable to employees and executives of the Company; (ii) an automobile allowance of $800 per month and fringe benefits commensurate with the duties and responsibilities of Mr. Sternberg and (iii) benefits in the event of death or disability. The Agreement also contains certain non-disclosure and non-competition provisions.

Under the terms of the Agreement, the Company may terminate the employment of Mr. Sternberg either with or without cause. If the Agreement is terminated by the Company without good cause, the Company would be obligated to continue to pay Mr. Sternberg's salary and current and future bonuses, and Mr. Sternberg would be entitled to all stock options earned or not yet earned through the full term of the Agreement.

Table of Contents

Debra Finnel

In January 2001, the Company entered into an employment agreement with Debra Finnel, Chief Operating Officer. The term of the agreement is five years and calls for an annual salary of $225,000, increasing to $250,000 on July 1, 2001. Ms. Finnel is also eligible to receive a discretionary bonus and has been granted options to purchase 300,000 shares of Common Stock at $1.00 per share with vesting over five years. The Agreement also calls for an automobile allowance of $1,500 per month and fringe benefits commensurate with Ms. Finnel's responsibilities as well as certain non-compete provisions.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

The Company previously had a consulting agreement with Sternco, Inc., an affiliate of Fred Sternberg that provided for commissions on any acquisition for which Sternco is or was the introducing party or materially contributed to such acquisition. The consulting agreement was terminated upon the execution of Mr. Sternberg's employment agreement.

Effective February 29, 2000 Mr. Guillama resigned as President, CEO and as a Director of the Company. Mr. Guillama had entered into a consulting agreement for one year. As part of his termination agreement he received 200,000 options at an average price of $1.00, which shall expire within thirty (30) months from February 29, 2000.

At December 31, 2001, amounts owed to the Company by officers totaled approximately $104,000. These amounts are expected to be paid in 2002.

All future transactions between the Company and any officer, director or 5% shareholder will be on terms no less favorable than could be obtained from independent third parties and will be approved by a majority of the independent disinterested directors of the Company. The Company believes that all prior affiliated transactions except those identified above were made on terms no less favorable to the Company than available from unaffiliated parties. Loans, if any, made by the Company to any officer, director or 5% stockholder, will only be made for bona fide business purposes.

STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS

Proposals of stockholders of the Company which are intended to be presented by such stockholders at the 2003 Annual Meeting must be received by the Company no later than January 14, 2003 in order to have them included in the proxy statement and form of proxy relating to that meeting.

OTHER MATTERS

Management is not aware of any other matters to be presented for action at the Meeting. However, if any other matter is properly presented, it is the intention of the persons named in the enclosed form of proxy to vote in accordance with their best judgment on such matters.
