AT&T to buy BellSouth
Atlanta Journal-Constitution
Monday, March 6, 2006

Q: What is the impact on consumers?

A: Consumers here could see cheaper high-speed Internet service and a faster rollout of Internet TV, and benefit from a showdown between big phone and cable companies.

Anne Thompson: AT&T's acquisition of BellSouth will give it 71 million local phone customers, 54 million wireless subscribers, 9.8 million broadband customers in 22 states.

With BellSouth in its pocket, AT&T would extend its lead as the USA's undisputed No. 1 communications company and gain full control of the largest wireless phone provider.

Since people will be choosing one company for so many services, competition will pay off for the customers.
