Item 2.01. Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.

On January 16, 2007, Blackbaud, Inc. acquired privately owned Target Software, Inc. and Target Analysis Group, Inc., companies that were related through common ownership based in Cambridge, Massachusetts. The acquisition was completed pursuant to a Stock Purchase Agreement dated as of the same date, pursuant to which Blackbaud acquired all of the outstanding shares of capital stock of Target Software and Target Analysis. Target Software and Target Analysis will continue as wholly owned subsidiaries of Blackbaud.

Under the terms of the Stock Purchase Agreement, Blackbaud initially paid approximately $54.0 million to the stockholders of Target Software and Target Analysis, which includes $7.8 million that was placed into an escrow account to satisfy any indemnification claims pursuant to the terms of the Stock Purchase Agreement. The stockholders of Target Software and Target Analysis are also entitled to receive up to an additional $2.4 million pursuant to a one-year earnout arrangement. Blackbaud also paid approximately $2.1 million to holders of options to purchase shares of Target Software and Target Analysis stock as well as $800,000 to certain senior executives of Target Software and Target Analysis in connection with entering into noncompetition agreements.

Blackbaud financed the acquisitions through a combination of cash and borrowings under its credit facility with Wachovia Bank, N.A. The Stock Purchase Agreement was negotiated between Blackbaud, the Target entities and the stockholders of the Target Entities. Prior to the acquisition, there were no material relationships between Blackbaud, the Target entities, any of their respective affiliates, directors or officers or any associates of such directors or officers, or any of the stockholders of the Target entities.

Charles Longfield, who was the chief executive officer, a director and a significant stockholder of the Target entities, will become chief scientist for Blackbaud. Lee Gartley, who was the president, a director and a stockholder of the Target entities, will remain as president of the Target entities as well as becoming a senior vice president of Blackbaud.

The summary description of the transaction set forth above is qualified in its entirety by the terms of the Stock Purchase Agreement, which is attached to this report as Exhibit 2.2. Blackbaud issued a press release regarding the acquisition on January 16, 2007, a copy of which is attached to this report as Exhibit 99.1.
