REPORT OF INDEPENDENT CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

To the Board of Members of
Parkdale America, LLC:

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of Parkdale America, LLC (the Company) as of December 30, 2006, and December 31, 2005, and the related statements of operations, members' equity and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. The financial statements of Parkdale America, LLC as of and for the year ended January 1, 2005, were audited by other auditors. Those auditors expressed an unqualified opinion on those financial statements in their report dated March 4, 2005.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America as established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Parkdale America, LLC as of December 30, 2006, and December 31, 2005, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 30, 2006, December 31, 2005, and January 1, 2005

Note A Nature of Business and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Organization

On June 30, 1997, Parkdale Mills, Inc. (Parkdale) and Unifi, Inc. (Unifi) entered into a Contribution Agreement (the Agreement) that set forth the terms and conditions by which the two companies contributed all of the assets of their spun cotton yarn operations utilizing open-end and airjet spinning technologies to create Parkdale America, LLC (the Company). In exchange for their respective contributions, Parkdale and Unifi received a 66% and 34% ownership interest in the Company, respectively.

Operations

The Company is a producer of cotton and synthetic yarns for sale to the textile and apparel industries, both foreign and domestic. The Company has 14 manufacturing facilities primarily located in central and western North Carolina.

Fiscal Year

The Company's fiscal year ends the Saturday nearest to December 31. The Company's fiscal years ended December 30, 2006, December 31, 2005, and January 1, 2005. Each contained 52 weeks.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenues in accordance with SEC Staff Accounting Bulletin (SAB) No. 101, Revenue Recognition in Financial Statements, as amended by SAB No. 104, Revenue Recognition. Under those rules, revenue should be recognized when persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, the related services are provided, the price is fixed and determinable and collectibility is reasonably assured. The Company recognizes revenue when goods are shipped and the title and risk of loss is transferred to the customer.

Parkdale America, LLC

Notes to Financial Statements

December 30, 2006, December 31, 2005, and January 1, 2005

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly-liquid investments with a maturity of three months or less to be cash and cash equivalents. The Company maintains cash deposits with major banks which may exceed federally insured limits. The Company periodically assesses the financial condition of the institutions and believes the risk of loss to be remote.

Available-for-sale Securities

In fiscal 2005, the Company purchased available-for-sale securities, which consist of auction-rate bonds with variable interest rates. The securities have 35-day auction periods and were designed to maintain a price of 100% of par. Therefore, current carrying values approximate fair value at December 31, 2005. Interest earned on the bonds was $103,000 for the year ended December 30, 2006 and $72,000 for the year ended December 31, 2005. The Company disposed of the bonds in 2006.

Concentration of Credit Risk

Substantially all of the Company's accounts receivable are due from companies in the textile and apparel markets located primarily throughout North America. The Company generally does not require collateral for its accounts receivable. The Company performs ongoing credit evaluations of its customers' financial condition and establishes an allowance for doubtful accounts based upon factors surrounding the credit risk of specific customers, historical trends and other information. In the event of cash recoveries, the Company replaces the previously reserved amounts in the allowance for doubtful accounts. Total write-offs of accounts receivable, net of recoveries, totaled $733,000, $231,000 and $2,451,000 for the years ended December 30, 2006, December 31, 2005, and January 1, 2005, respectively. Sales to four customers accounted for approximately 45% of total gross sales in fiscal 2006, sales to one customer accounted for approximately 12% of total gross sales in fiscal 2005 and sales to two customers accounted for approximately 27% of total gross sales in fiscal 2004. As of December 31, 2005, accounts receivable for one customer comprised 13% of total gross accounts receivable outstanding. As of December 30, 2006, and January 1, 2005, accounts receivable for two customers comprised 25% and 30%, respectively, of total gross accounts receivable outstanding.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The book values of cash and cash equivalents, available-for-sale securities, accounts receivable, accounts payable and other financial instruments approximate their fair values principally due to the short-term maturities of these instruments.

Parkdale America, LLCNotes to Financial Statements*December 30, 2006, December 31, 2005, and January 1, 2005*Property, Plant and Equipment

Assets contributed from Parkdale were transferred to the Company at Parkdale's historical net book value. Assets contributed from Unifi were recorded at fair value which company management has represented approximated net book value at June 30, 1997. All subsequent additions to property, plant and equipment are recorded at cost. Provisions for repairs and maintenance, which do not extend the life of the applicable assets, are expensed. Provisions for depreciation are determined principally by an accelerated method over the estimated useful lives of the assets or the remaining capital lease term, whichever is shorter. The following is a summary:

	Useful Lives in Years	2006	2005	2004
Land and land improvements	15	$ 5,178,000	$ 5,157,000	$ 4,630,000
Buildings	15 to 39	91,257,000	89,994,000	104,698,000

Office furniture and fixtures	5 to 7	10,018,000	7,110,000	7,268,000
		558,223,000	564,578,000	562,294,000
Less Accumulated depreciation		(460,315,000)	(453,834,000)	(468,671,000)
Construction-in-progress		1,178,000	6,523,000	17,606,000
Property, plant and equipment, net		$ 99,086,000	$ 117,267,000	$ 111,229,000

Depreciation expense for the years ended December 30, 2006, December 31, 2005, and January 1, 2005, was $25,396,000, $25,440,000 and $21,084,000, respectively.

Impairment of Long-lived Assets

The Company evaluates long-lived assets to determine impairment based on estimated future undiscounted cash flows attributable to the assets. In the event such cash flows are not expected to be sufficient to recover the carrying value of the assets, the assets are written down to their estimated fair values.

In fiscal 2005, the Company made the decision to terminate the portion of its capital lease (Note K) related to its Eden, North Carolina, manufacturing facility. The leased assets and associated leasehold improvements had a total net book value of $8,093,000 before impairment charges. As a result of this decision, the Company evaluated the related assets for impairment. For the year ended December 31, 2005, the Company recognized a net impairment loss of $5,823,000 on the disposal of the leased assets and leasehold improvements. In fiscal 2006, the Company completed the transaction and effectively transferred the lease and the associated leasehold improvements to a third-party. For purposes of the impairment write-down, the fair value of the facilities and equipment was based on the total proceeds from the transaction, which included $2,000,000 in cash and a one year rent-free period granted by the new lessee of the facility (valued at $1,155,000), net of losses on the early termination of the lease of $885,000. The impairment loss was reported in other (expense) income in the statements of operations for the period ended December 31, 2005. These assets were included in assets held for sale on the balance sheet as of December 31, 2005.

Parkdale America, LLC

Notes to Financial Statements

December 30, 2006, December 31, 2005, and January 1, 2005

In fiscal 2006, the Company terminated operations at one of its Sanford, North Carolina, manufacturing facilities. This land and building of this facility are part of the Company's capital lease (Note K). As of December 30, 2006, management believes that the fair value of this facility exceeds its carrying value, and no impairment charge is needed. Management continues to assess the available options for this facility. The assets related to this facility are included in property, plant and equipment, net on the balance sheet as of December 30, 2006.

Cotton Rebate Program

During a portion of the current year and in prior years, the Company received a rebate from the U.S. Government for consuming cotton grown in the United States. The rebate is based on the pounds of cotton consumed and the difference between U.S. and foreign cotton prices. Rebate income, included as a reduction to cost of goods sold in the accompanying statements of operations, amounted to $7,233,000, $18,720,000 and $10,357,000, respectively, for the years ended December 30, 2006, December 31, 2005, and January 1, 2005. The receivable associated with this rebate amounted to $1,553,000 and $1,380,000 as of December 31, 2005, and January 1, 2005, respectively, and was included in accounts receivable in the accompanying balance sheets. As of July 31, 2006, the agreement under which the Company was receiving the rebate was eliminated due to a change in federal legislation and is no longer available to the Company.

Intangible Assets

The Company reviews intangible assets for impairment annually, unless specific circumstances indicate that a more timely review is warranted. Intangible assets subject to amortization consisted primarily of customer lists acquired and are being amortized over the useful life of the asset, principally five years. As of December 30, 2006, all of the Company's intangible assets are fully amortized.

Shipping Costs

The costs to ship products to customers of approximately $5,400,000, $3,656,000 and $3,078,000 during the years ended December 30, 2006, December 31, 2005, and January 1, 2005, respectively, are included as a component of cost of goods sold in the accompanying consolidated statements of operations.

Deferred Revenue

The Company periodically records deferred revenue related to advance deposit payments from a foreign customer. The Company records revenue related to these deposits upon shipment of goods to the customer. As of December 1, 2005, the balance of the customer deposits was $347,000. There were no customer deposits as of December 30, 2006 and January 1, 2005.

Recent Accounting Pronouncement

In December 2003, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued FASB Interpretation (FIN) No. 46(R),

Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities, an interpretation of Accounting Research Bulletin No. 51. FIN No. 46(R) provides criteria for determining whether the financial statement issuer must consolidate other entities in its financial statements. The provisions of FIN No. 46(R) are effective for entities created before December 31, 2003, and for financial statements for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2004. For entities created after December 31, 2003, the provisions of FIN No. 46(R) will be effective as of the date they first become involved with the certain entity. The Company adopted the provisions of FIN No. 46(R) during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005.

In November 2004, the FASB issued SFAS No. 151, Inventory Costs, which clarifies the accounting for abnormal amounts of idle facility expense, freight, handling costs and wasted material. SFAS No. 151 will be effective for inventory costs incurred during fiscal years beginning after June 15, 2005. The Company adopted SFAS No. 151 effective January 1, 2006. The adoption of Statement 151 had no effect on the Company's financial statements.

In September 2006, the FASB issued SFAS No. 157, Fair Value Measurements. The Statement does not change existing accounting rules governing what can or what must be recognized and reported at fair value in the Company's financial statements, or disclosed at fair value in the Company's notes to the financial statements. Additionally, SFAS No. 157 does not eliminate practicability exceptions that exist in accounting pronouncements amended by this Statement when measuring fair value. As a result, the Company will not be required to recognize any new instruments at fair value.

SFAS No. 157 creates a single definition of fair value, along with a conceptual framework to measure fair value.

SFAS No. 157 defines fair value as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The Statement will require the Company to apply valuation techniques that (1) place greater reliance on observable inputs and less reliance on unobservable inputs and (2) are consistent with the market approach, the income approach, and/or the cost approach. The Statement will also require the Company to include enhanced disclosures of fair value measurements in its financial statements. SFAS No. 157 is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007, and for interim periods that fall within those fiscal years. Early adoption is permitted; however, the Company does not intend to adopt SFAS No. 157 prior to the required effective date of January 1, 2008. The Company is evaluating the impact SFAS No. 157 will have on its financial statements.

Parkdale America, LLCNotes to Financial Statements*December 30, 2006, December 31, 2005, and January 1, 2005

In September 2006, the FASB ratified a consensus opinion reached by the Emerging Issues Task Force (EITF) on EITF Issue 06-5, Accounting for Purchases of Life Insurance – Determining the Amount That Could Be Realized in Accordance with FASB Technical Bulletin No. 85-4. The guidance in EITF Issue 06-5 requires policyholders to consider other amounts included in the contractual terms of an insurance policy, in addition to cash surrender value, for purposes of determining the amount that could be realized under the terms of the insurance contract. If it is probable that contractual terms would limit the amount that could be realized under the insurance contract, those contractual limitations should be considered when determining the realizable amounts. The amount that could be realized under the insurance contract should be determined on an individual policy (or certificate) level and should include any amount realized on the assumed surrender of the last individual policy or certificate in a group policy. The consensus in EITF Issue 06-5 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2006. The Company intends to adopt EITF Issue 06-5 effective January 1, 2007, and does not believe that the adoption will have a significant effect on its financial statements.

Reclassifications

Certain fiscal 2005 amounts have been reclassified to conform to the financial statement presentation in fiscal 2006.

Note B Business Combinations

On January 5, 2005, the Company purchased certain assets of the Edgefield plant of Delta Apparel, Inc. for $11,288,000. The transaction was accounted for under the provisions of SFAS No. 141, Business Combinations. Accordingly, the Company recorded the acquired assets at their estimated fair values.

There were no post-closing purchase price adjustments or other refinements. As such, the original purchase price allocation equals the final purchase price allocation to the acquired assets of the Edgefield plant of Delta Apparel, Inc., and is as follows:

Land and buildings	$ 6,000,000
Machinery and equipment	4,000,000
Inventories	1,288,000
	$ 11,288,000

Parkdale America, LLCNotes to Financial Statements*December 30, 2006, December 31, 2005, and January 1, 2005*Note C Inventories

Inventories are stated at lower of cost or market. During fiscal 2006, 2005 and 2004, cost was determined using the specific identification method for raw materials, yarn-in-process and finished yarn inventories. During fiscal 2003, cost was determined using the specific identification method for raw material inventories and the moving-average method for yarn-in-process and finished yarn inventories. The new method of valuing inventory results from the Company's ability to specifically track labor and overhead for finished yarn products. The effect of the change resulted in an increase to net income in fiscal 2004 of approximately $1,562,000. The Company performs periodic assessments to determine the existence of obsolete, slow-moving and nonsalable inventories and records necessary provisions to reduce such inventories to net realizable value. Inventories consist of the following as of December 30, 2006, December 31, 2005, and January 1, 2005:

	2006	2005	2004
Cotton and synthetics	$ 9,532,000	$ 10,507,000	$ 18,120,000
Yarn in process	4,130,000	4,717,000	3,773,000
Finished yarn	14,630,000	20,101,000	13,226,000
Supplies	813,000	1,340,000	1,168,000
	$ 29,105,000	$ 36,665,000	$ 36,287,000

Note D Income Taxes

The Company is a Limited Liability Company treated as a partnership for federal and state income tax reporting purposes. As a result, the Company's results of operations are included in the income tax returns of its individual members. Accordingly, no provision for federal or state income taxes has been recorded in the accompanying financial statements.

Note E Deferred Financing Costs

On February 1, 2005, the Company entered into a new revolving credit facility, which replaced the revolving credit facility in place at January 1, 2005 (Note F). Financing costs consist primarily of commitment fees, legal fees and other direct costs incurred to obtain the Company's revolving line of credit. These costs are amortized over the term of the debt agreement, which matures on February 1, 2008. Total deferred financing costs capitalized were approximately $766,000. Amortization expense was $255,000 and $234,000 for the years ended December 30, 2006 and December 31, 2005, respectively. Accumulated amortization approximated $489,000 and $234,000 for the years ended December 30, 2006 and December 31, 2005, respectively. The Company also wrote off approximately $155,000 related to the original revolving line of credit during the year ended December 31, 2005. Expected future amortization of these deferred financing costs at December 30, 2006, is as follows:

2007	$ 255,000
2008	22,000
	$ 277,000

Parkdale America, LLC

Notes to Financial Statements

December 30, 2006, December 31, 2005, and January 1, 2005

Note F Debt

On October 31, 2001, the Company authorized the issuance and sale of $40,000,000 Senior Secured Notes (the Notes) due October 31, 2008, at a fixed interest rate of 6.82% to four insurance and finance companies. Interest payments were due on a semi-annual basis, beginning April 30, 2002. Beginning October 31, 2004, the Company was required to pay principal amounts of $8,000,000 annually until the maturity date for the Notes. The Note Purchase Agreement contained certain penalties for prepayment of the Notes. On January 26, 2005, the Company extinguished the Notes through utilization of working capital and recognized a loss on extinguishment of debt of $2,111,000. In association with the extinguishment of the Notes, the Company terminated all outstanding interest rate swaps throughout the course of fiscal 2005 (Note G). The principal amount of the Notes at January 1, 2005, totaled $32,000,000. The Notes had an estimated fair value of $33,146,000 at January 1, 2005. The Company's debt agreements contained restrictive covenants which, among other things, required the maintenance of minimum levels of cash flow coverage and net worth, restricted payments of dividends and limited unsecured borrowings. For the year ended January 1, 2005, the Company was not in compliance with certain of the debt covenants. The Notes totaling $32,000,000 were classified as short-term liabilities at January 1, 2005.

Lines of Credit

In connection with the issuance of the Notes on October 31, 2001, the Company entered into an agreement for a line of credit with a group of banks, which provided for borrowings up to $90,000,000. Borrowings under this agreement bore interest at either the prime rate plus an applicable margin or a LIBOR rate plus an applicable margin, as chosen by the Company. The line of credit was originally scheduled to terminate October 31, 2004; however, it was amended during fiscal 2004 to reduce the line to $50,000,000 and to change the termination date to February 15, 2005. The line of credit was terminated on February 1, 2005.

On February 1, 2005, the Company entered into a new revolving credit facility with maximum borrowings of $90,000,000, subject to a $20,000,000 sub-limit for letters of credit. The revolving credit facility was subsequently amended to reduce the maximum borrowings to $75,000,000. The new debt facility matures on February 1, 2008, and bears interest at either the LIBOR rate or the base rate plus the applicable margin. If liquidity falls below agreed-upon requirements, the most restrictive covenants will require the Company to maintain minimum fixed charge coverage ratio and maximum funded debt-to-EBITDA ratio. As of December 30, 2006 and December 31, 2005, there were no outstanding borrowings under the revolving credit facility.

Note G Derivative Instruments

The Company accounts for derivative instruments and hedging activities according to the provisions of SFAS No. 133, Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities. SFAS No. 133, as amended, establishes accounting and reporting standards for derivative instruments and for hedging activities. All derivatives, whether designated in hedging relationships or not, are required to be recorded on the balance sheet at fair value. If the derivative is designated as a fair-value hedge, the changes in the fair value of the derivative and the hedged item are recognized in earnings. If the derivative is designated as a cash flow hedge, the effective portions of changes in the fair value of the derivative are recorded in other comprehensive income or loss and are recognized in earnings when the hedged item affects earnings. Any material ineffective portions of changes in the fair value of cash flow hedges are recognized in earnings as they occur.

The Company is subject to price risk related to anticipated, fixed-price yarn sales. In the normal course of business, under procedures and controls established by the Company's financial risk management framework, the Company enters into cotton futures to manage changes in raw materials prices in order to protect the gross margin of fixed-price yarn sales. As of December 30, 2006, December 31, 2005, and January 1, 2005, the Company has recorded these instruments at fair value of $539,000, $837,000 and $3,462,000 in the accompanying balance sheets.

The Company designates certain futures contracts as cash flow hedges. As of December 30, 2006 and December 31, 2005, the Company had unrealized gains on futures contracts designated as cash flow hedges of $667,000 and $3,051,000, respectively, recorded in other comprehensive income. For contracts which were not designated as hedges, or for the ineffective portions of contracts designated as hedges, the Company recorded an increase to earnings of approximately $87,000 for the year ended December 30, 2006 and a charge to earnings of $1,168,000 for the year ended December 31, 2005.

In 2004, the Company did not apply hedge accounting for these contracts and recorded a charge to earnings of approximately $15,595,000 for the year ended January 1, 2005.

In addition, the Company enters into forward contracts for cotton purchases, which qualify as derivative instruments under SFAS No. 133. However, these contracts meet the applicable criteria to qualify for the normal purchases or normal sales exemption. Therefore, the provisions of SFAS No. 133 are not applicable to these contracts.

The Company uses interest rate swap agreements to manage the risk that changes in interest rates will affect the amount of future interest payments. The differential paid or received under these agreements is recognized as an adjustment to interest expense. These agreements are required to be recognized at their fair value in the accompanying balance sheets. In fiscal 2005, in conjunction with the payoff of the Notes (Note F), the Company terminated the interest rate swap agreements. At termination, the Company received cash of $388,000.

The fair values of the agreements are the estimated amounts that the Company would pay or receive to terminate these agreements at the reporting date, taking into account current interest rates. The estimated fair values do not necessarily reflect the potential income or loss that would be realized on an actual settlement of the agreements. The Company did not apply hedge accounting treatment and has recorded the unrealized gains and losses in the accompanying statements of operations. As of December 31, 2005, and January 1, 2005, the Company reported a gain (loss) on interest rate swap derivative instruments of $50,000 and ($307,000), respectively.

Note H Investment in Summit Yarn Joint Venture

On June 4, 1998, Parkdale and Burlington Industries, Inc. (Burlington) entered into a Joint Venture and Contribution Agreement (the Agreement) whereby Parkdale and Burlington agreed to contribute certain assets and cash for the purpose of constructing, operating and managing a yarn manufacturing facility (the Joint Venture), which qualifies under the Maquiladora program in accordance with applicable Mexican law, and for the marketing and sale of yarn manufactured by the Joint Venture, Summit Yarn, LLC (Summit). In exchange for their respective contributions, Parkdale and Burlington each received a 50% ownership interest in Summit. Concurrent with the formation of Summit, Parkdale and Burlington formed Summit Yarn Holding I, which serves as the holding company for Parkdale's and Burlington's investment in various Mexican corporations, related to the Joint Venture. Parkdale and Burlington each received a 50% ownership interest in Summit Yarn Holding I. Effective January 15, 2002, Parkdale transferred its ownership in Summit to the Company. The investment was transferred at Parkdale's historical basis of $14,257,000, which included notes receivable from Summit totaling $5,227,000. The Agreement expires in 2018 and has stated renewal options. The Company accounts for its investment in Summit and Summit Yarn Holding I based on the equity method of accounting.

On November 15, 2001, Burlington declared Chapter 11 bankruptcy. On November 9, 2003, the purchase of Burlington by W.L. Ross & Co. was completed and Burlington emerged from bankruptcy. During March 2004, W.L. Ross & Co. completed the integration of Burlington and Cone Mills into the newly formed International Textile Group. As part of the new structure, Cone Mills assumed responsibility of Burlington's Burlmex denim plant in Mexico. Cone Mills and Burlington operate under separate business units of the International Textile Group. Effective August 2, 2004, Burlington transferred its ownership in Summit to Cone Denim LLC.

Rent expense for the year ended December 30, 2006, includes recognition of $1,155,000 related to a rent-free period granted by the new lessee of a manufacturing facility, as discussed in Note A.

Purchase and Sales Commitments

The Company had unfulfilled cotton purchase commitments at December 30, 2006, for approximately 170,825,000 pounds of cotton to be used in the production process at varying prices. The Company had unfulfilled yarn sales contracts with various customers at varying prices at December 30, 2006, December 31, 2005, and January 1, 2005.

Contingencies

During fiscal 2003, the Company disclosed to the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ) that it participated in certain anticompetitive activities that may have resulted in a violation of antitrust laws. Subject to the Company's cooperation, the DOJ agreed to provide protection for the Company and the Company's officers, directors and employees from criminal prosecution related to the reported anticompetitive activities. As a result of the Company's disclosure to the DOJ, several class action claims were filed against the Company, alleging that it attempted to fix and stabilize prices of open-end and airjet poly/cotton yarn in the United States.

In mid-2005, the Company proposed a cash settlement in the amount of $7.8 million. On November 1, 2005, the Court granted preliminary approval of the Company's proposed settlement. Final approval of the settlement was granted on February 14, 2006. The expense related to this settlement was recorded in 2005 and distributed entirely to Parkdale, in accordance with the first amendment to the Agreement.

The Company is also involved in various legal actions and claims arising in the normal course of business.

Management believes that the resolution of such matters will not have a material effect on the financial condition or the results of operations of the Company.
