PROXY STATEMENT
QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
ABOUT THE 2006 ANNUAL MEETING

Why did I receive this proxy?

The Board of Directors of EastGroup Properties, Inc. (the Company) is soliciting proxies to be voted at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders. The Annual Meeting will be held Wednesday, May 31, 2006, at 9:00 a.m., Jackson time, at the Company's offices, 300 One Jackson Place, 188 East Capitol Street, Jackson, Mississippi. This proxy statement summarizes the information you need to know to vote by proxy or in person at the Annual Meeting. You do not need to attend the Annual Meeting in person in order to vote.

Who is entitled to vote?

All stockholders of record as of the close of business on Thursday, April 13, 2006 (the Record Date) are entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. As of the Record Date, 22,171,793 shares of Common Stock were issued and outstanding.

How many votes do I have?

Each share of Common Stock outstanding on the Record Date is entitled to one vote on each item submitted to you for consideration.

What does it mean if I receive more than one proxy card?

It means that you have multiple accounts at the transfer agent or with stockbrokers. Please complete and return all proxy cards to ensure that all your shares are voted.

How do I vote?

By Mail: Vote, sign, date your card and mail it in the postage-paid envelope

In Person: At the Annual Meeting

How do I vote my shares that are held by my broker?

If you have shares held by a broker, you may instruct your broker to vote your shares by following the instructions that the broker provides to you.

What am I voting on?

You will be voting on Proposal One regarding the election of eight Directors of the Company.

Will there be any other items of business on the agenda?

Pursuant to the Company's Bylaws and SEC rules, stockholder proposals must have been received by April 4, 2006 to be considered at the Annual Meeting. To date, we have received no stockholder proposals and we do not expect any other items of business. Nonetheless, in case there is an unforeseen need, your proxy gives discretionary authority to David H. Hoster II and N. Keith McKey with respect to any other matters that might be brought before the Annual Meeting. Those persons intend to vote that proxy in accordance with their best judgment.

How many votes are required to act on the proposals?

The holder of each outstanding share of Common Stock is entitled to one vote for each share of Common Stock on each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of stockholders.

Pursuant to the Company's Bylaws, directors will be elected by a plurality of all the votes cast at the Annual Meeting with each share being voted for as many individuals as there are directors to be elected and for whose election the share is entitled to vote.

How are votes counted?

The Annual Meeting will be held if a quorum is represented in person or by proxy. A quorum consists of a majority of our outstanding common shares entitled to vote. If you return a signed proxy card, your shares will be counted for the purpose of determining whether there is a quorum. We will treat failures to vote, referred to as abstentions, as shares present and entitled to vote for quorum purposes. However, abstentions will not be counted as votes cast on a proposal and have no effect on the result of the vote on such proposal. A withheld vote is the same as an abstention.

Broker non-votes occur when proxies submitted by a broker, bank or other nominee holding shares in street name do not indicate a vote for a proposal because they do not have discretionary voting authority and have not received instructions as to how to vote on the proposal. We will treat broker non-votes as shares that are present and entitled to vote for quorum purposes. However, broker non-votes will not be counted as votes cast on a proposal and will have no effect on the result of the vote on the proposal.

What happens if I return my proxy card without voting on all proposals?

When the proxy is properly executed and returned, the shares it represents will be voted at the Annual Meeting in accordance with your directions. If the signed card is returned with no direction on a proposal, the proxy will be voted in favor of (FOR) Proposal One.

Will anyone contact me regarding this vote?

The Company has retained InvestorCom, Inc. to assist with the solicitation of proxies and will pay InvestorCom, Inc. a fee of $3,500 plus reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses for its services. Such solicitations may be made by mail, telephone, facsimile, e-mail or personal interviews.

Who has paid for this proxy solicitation?

The Company has paid the entire expense of this proxy statement and any additional materials furnished to stockholders.

When was this proxy statement mailed?

This proxy statement and the enclosed proxy card were mailed to stockholders beginning on or about April 28, 2006.

How can I obtain a copy of this year's Annual Report on Form 10-K?

A copy of the Company's 2005 Annual Report to Stockholders, including financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005, accompanies this Proxy Statement. The Annual Report, however, is not part of the proxy solicitation material. A copy of the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) may be obtained free of charge by writing to EastGroup Properties, Inc., 300 One Jackson Place, 188 East Capitol Street, Jackson, Mississippi 39201, Attention: Investor Relations or by accessing the Reports section of the Company's website at www.eastgroup.net.

Can I find additional information on the Company's website?

Yes. Our website is located at www.eastgroup.net. Although the information contained on our website is not part of this proxy statement, you can view additional information on the website, such as our code of conduct, corporate governance guidelines, charters of board committees and reports that we file with the SEC. A copy of our code of conduct, corporate governance guidelines and each of the charters of our board committees may be obtained free of charge by writing to EastGroup Properties, Inc., 300 One Jackson Place, 188 East Capitol Street, Jackson, Mississippi 39201, Attention: Investor Relations.

PROPOSAL ONE: ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

In accordance with the Bylaws of the Company, the Board of Directors has by resolution fixed the number of directors to be elected at the Annual Meeting at eight. Based on the recommendation of our Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, each incumbent director has been nominated for election at the Annual Meeting as directors for one-year terms, to hold office until the 2007 Annual Meeting and until their successors are elected and qualified.

No security holder that held a beneficial ownership interest in the Company's Common Stock of 5% or more for at least one year recommended any candidates to serve on the Board of Directors.

If, at the time of the Annual Meeting, any nominee is unable or declines to serve, the discretionary authority provided in the proxy may be exercised to vote for a substitute or substitutes. The Board of Directors has no reason to believe that any substitute nominee or nominees will be required.

Pursuant to the Company's Bylaws, directors will be elected by a plurality of all the votes cast at the Annual Meeting with each share being voted for as many individuals as there are directors to be elected and for whose election the share is entitled to vote. For purposes of the election of directors, abstentions will not be counted as votes cast and will have no effect on the result of the vote.

The Board of Directors unanimously recommends that shareholders vote FOR the election of each of the nominees.

Independent Directors

Under the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) listing standards, at least a majority of the Company's Directors and all of the members of the Company's Audit Committee, Compensation Committee and Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee must meet the test of independence as defined by the NYSE. The NYSE standards provide that, to qualify as an independent director, in addition to satisfying certain bright-line criteria, the board of directors must affirmatively determine that a director has no material relationship with the Company (either directly or as a partner, shareholder or officer of an organization that has a relationship with the Company). The Board of Directors has determined that each current director, other than Mr. Speed, the Company's Chairman, and Mr. Hoster, the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer, satisfies the bright-line criteria and that none has a relationship with the Company that would interfere with such person's ability to exercise independent judgment as a member of the Company's Board.

BOARD COMMITTEES AND MEETINGS

The Board of Directors has a standing Audit Committee, Compensation Committee and Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. Each member of each of these committees is independent as that term is defined in the NYSE listing standards. The Board has adopted a written charter for each of these committees, which is available on our web site at www.eastgroup.net.

Audit Committee

The Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors consists of Messrs. Aloian and Osnos and Ms. McCormick. The Audit Committee met 13 times during the Company's 2005 fiscal year. The Audit Committee oversees the financial reporting of the Company, including the audit by the Company's independent registered public accounting firm. Mr. Aloian and Ms. McCormick have been designated as the Company's Audit Committee financial experts in accordance with the SEC rules and regulations, and the Board has determined that they have accounting and related financial management expertise within the meaning of the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange. See Report of the Audit Committee below.

Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee of the Company's Board of Directors consists of Messrs. Bailey, Eaves and Gould. The Compensation Committee's function is to review and recommend to the Board of Directors appropriate executive compensation policy and compensation of the Company's directors and officers. The Compensation Committee also reviews and makes recommendations with respect to executive and employee benefit plans and programs. See Report of the Compensation Committee below. The Compensation Committee met five times during the Company's 2005 fiscal year.

Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of the Company's Board of Directors consists of Messrs. Aloian, Eaves and Osnos. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee met two times during the Company's 2005 fiscal year. The responsibilities of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee include assessing Board membership needs and identifying, screening, recruiting, and presenting director candidates to the Board, implementing policies regarding corporate governance matters, making recommendations regarding committee memberships and evaluation of the Board and management.

The Board of Directors has adopted Corporate Governance Guidelines. The guidelines are available at www.eastgroup.net under About Us. Under the guidelines, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will take into account stockholder input with respect to processes and criteria for director selection; as such, stockholders may influence the composition of the Board. Under this principle, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will consider written recommendations for potential nominees suggested by stockholders. Any such person will be evaluated in the same manner as any other potential nominee for director.

Any suggestion for a nominee for director by a stockholder should be sent to the Company's Secretary at 300 One Jackson Place, 188 East Capitol Street, Jackson, Mississippi 39201, within the time periods set forth under Stockholder Proposals for the 2007 Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

In identifying suitable candidates for nomination as a director, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will consider the needs of the Board and the range of skills and characteristics required for effective functioning of the Board. In evaluating such skills and characteristics, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee may take into consideration such factors as it deems appropriate, including those included in the Corporate Governance Guidelines. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will consider nominees suggested by incumbent Board members, management, stockholders and, in certain circumstances, outside search firms.

Board Attendance at Meetings

The Board of Directors held five meetings during the Company's 2005 fiscal year. Each director attended at least 75% of the aggregate of the total number of meetings of the Board of Directors and meetings held by all committees of the Board of Directors on which he or she served. The Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines provide that all directors are expected to regularly attend all meetings of the Board and the Board committees on which he or she serves. In addition, each director is expected to attend the Annual Meeting of Stockholders. In 2005, the Annual Meeting of Stockholders was attended by three of the directors.

Stockholder Communication With the Board

The Board of Directors has appointed David M. Osnos as Lead Independent Director. In that capacity, he presides over the meetings of the non-management directors of the Company. Stockholders and other parties interested in communicating directly with the Lead Independent Director or with the non-management directors as a group may do so by writing to David M. Osnos, Lead Independent Director, EastGroup Properties, Inc., 300 One Jackson Place, 188 East Capitol Street, Jackson, Mississippi 39201. Correspondence so addressed will be forwarded directly to Mr. Osnos.

Report of the Audit Committee

The following Report of the Audit Committee does not constitute soliciting material and should not be deemed filed or incorporated by reference into any other filing by the Company under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 except to the extent the Company specifically incorporates this Report by reference therein.

The Audit Committee of the Company is composed of three directors, each of whom meets the current independence and experience requirements of the NYSE and the SEC. The Audit Committee operates under a written charter which was amended and restated on March 15, 2005. A complete copy of the Audit Committee charter is available on the Company's website at www.eastgroup.net. The Board has determined that D. Pike Aloian and Mary E. McCormick are Audit Committee financial experts as defined in the current rules of the SEC.

Management is primarily responsible for the Company's financial statements and reporting process. The Company's independent registered public accounting firm, KPMG LLP, is responsible for performing an independent audit of the Company's financial statements in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) and for issuing a report on those statements. The Audit Committee oversees the financial reporting process on behalf of the Board. It is not the duty or the responsibility of the Audit Committee to conduct auditing or accounting reviews or related procedures.

The Audit Committee meets at least quarterly and at such other times as it deems necessary or appropriate to carry out its responsibilities. Those meetings include, whenever appropriate, executive sessions with KPMG without management being present. The Committee met 13 times during 2005, including three executive sessions with KPMG. In the course of fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Committee met with both management and KPMG to review and discuss all annual financial statements and quarterly operating results prior to their issuance. Management advised the Audit Committee that all financial statements were prepared in accordance with GAAP. The Audit Committee also discussed with KPMG matters required to be discussed, pursuant to Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, Communication with Audit Committees, including the reasonableness of judgments and the clarity and completeness of financial disclosures. In addition, the Audit Committee discussed with KPMG matters relating to its independence and has received from KPMG the written disclosures and letter required by the Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees.

On the basis of the reviews and discussions the Committee has had with KPMG and management, the Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the Board approve the inclusion of the Company's audited financial statements in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005, for filing with the SEC.

COMPENSATION OF EXECUTIVE OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS

Report of the Compensation Committee

The following Report of the Compensation Committee does not constitute soliciting material and should not be deemed filed or incorporated by reference into any other filing by the Company under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 except to the extent the Company specifically incorporates this Report by reference therein.

Each member of the Compensation Committee is independent, as determined by the Company's Board of Directors and based on the NYSE listing standards.

The Compensation Committee is responsible for acting on behalf of the Board with respect to (i) general compensation and benefits practices, (ii) review and approval of salaries and other compensation actions for the Company's executive officers, including the Chief Executive Officer, and certain of the Company's other senior officers (the "Named Officers"), and (iii) adopting, administering and approving awards under annual and long-term incentive compensation plans. A more complete description of the Committee's functions is set forth in the Committee's charter, which is published on the Company's website at www.eastgroup.net.

Compensation Philosophy

The Compensation Committee believes that base compensation to each executive officer of the Company should be commensurate with salary levels for other real estate companies and the officer's level of responsibility. The Compensation Committee has determined that the primary goals of the Company's compensation policies should be as follows:

To strengthen the mutuality of interest between management and stockholders through the use of incentive compensation directly related to short-term and long-term corporate performance and through the use of the stock-based incentives that result in increased common stock ownership by executive officers. The Committee measures short-term and long-term corporate performance based on the achievement of specific operating and financial objectives, including total stockholder return and funds from operations (FFO) per share.

To provide total compensation opportunities for executive officers which are competitive with those provided to persons in similar positions with which the Company competes for employees.

Compensation Program

The Compensation Committee, with the help of a compensation consultant, conducted studies of the compensation policies of comparable companies and also the unique attributes of the Company, its executives and its stockholders. The executive compensation program has four components:

Base salary

Annual cash bonus

Annual long-term incentive

Multi-year long-term incentive

Base Salary. Base salaries for executive officers are based on an overall assessment of the executive's responsibilities and contribution to the Company. Base salaries are reviewed annually.

Annual Cash Bonus. The amount of the annual cash bonus is based upon the amount of the Company's FFO per share compared to threshold, target and high FFO goals set by the Compensation Committee and a bonus payment objective for each officer. The Compensation Committee determined the FFO goals for different levels of bonus payments after an analysis of the Company's internally prepared estimate of FFO for 2005 and the estimates of 2005 FFO prepared by independent securities analysts who follow the Company. The Compensation Committee believed that the achievement of the target FFO goal or more would benefit the Company's stockholders, and that the executive officers should be rewarded for the benefit to stockholders. The Company's 2005 FFO met the target FFO goal set by the Compensation Committee. Accordingly, the bonus payments set forth in the Summary Compensation Table were paid to the Named Officers.

Annual Long-Term Incentive. The Compensation Committee believes that a payment of annual long-term incentive compensation in the form of restricted stock awards further aligns the interest of the Company and its stockholders by giving the executive officers a greater equity interest in the Company. The Compensation Committee established threshold, target and high performance goals for the payment of annual long-term compensation based on the Company's (i) FFO growth as compared to the FFO growth of peer companies and (ii) absolute FFO growth. The Company exceeded the high performance goals for both the absolute and relative performance criteria and the Compensation Committee granted annual long-term incentive awards to the Named Officers as disclosed in the footnotes to the Summary Compensation Table. These awards were made in the form of restricted stock grants that vest one-third each on the date of grant, January 1, 2007 and January 1, 2008.

Multi-Year Long-Term Incentive. In 2003, the Compensation Committee established a multi-year incentive compensation program for executive officers consisting of a three year performance period followed by a three year vesting period. Under the program, each executive officer was eligible to receive a restricted stock award based upon the Company's average annual total return to stockholders for the three-year period ended December 31, 2005 and that vests one-third each over the next three years on December 31, 2006, 2007 and 2008. At the beginning of the program, the Committee set performance goals based upon the Company's average annual total return to stockholders with one-half of each restricted stock award based on the Company's absolute total return performance during the three-year period ending December 31, 2005 and one-half based on the Company's total return performance relative to a peer group of real estate investment trusts for such period. For the three-year period ended December 31, 2005, the Company's average annual total return to stockholders was 28.1%, which exceeded both the absolute and relative target performance criteria set by the Compensation Committee. As disclosed in the footnotes to the Summary Compensation Table, the Compensation Committee awarded equity grants under this multi-year program to the Named Officers totaling 74,413 shares.

CEO Compensation

The Compensation Committee considered a number of factors in setting the base compensation of Mr. Hoster, the Company's Chief Executive Officer, the most important of which were the success of the Company's strategy of acquiring, developing and operating industrial properties, Mr. Hoster's importance in delineating and implementing the Company's strategies, and the level of compensation paid to the chief executive officers of other real estate companies of comparable size. In determining Mr. Hoster's 2005 annual cash bonus, annual long-term incentive compensation and multi-year long-term incentive compensation, the Compensation Committee reviewed the Company's financial performance relative to comparable REITs, the Company's overall performance and Mr. Hoster's individual performance. The Compensation Committee reviewed all compensation paid to Mr. Hoster, and, based upon all relevant factors, the Compensation Committee believes that Mr. Hoster's total compensation is reasonable.

Compensation Deductibility Policy

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code limits the deductibility of compensation in excess of $1 million paid to the Company's CEO and to each of the other four highest paid executive officers, unless the compensation is performance based and satisfies other conditions. The Compensation Committee's policy is to maximize the deductibility of compensation but does not preclude awards or payments that are not fully deductible if, in the Committee's judgment, such awards and payments are necessary to achieve the Company's compensation objectives and to protect shareholder interests.

timely, a stockholder's notice must be delivered to the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Company not less than 60 days and not more than 90 days prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting; provided, however, that in the event that the date of the annual meeting is advanced by more than 30 days or delayed by more than 60 days from such anniversary date, notice by the stockholder to be timely must be so delivered not earlier than the 90th day prior to such annual meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the 60th day prior to such annual meeting or the 10th day following the day on which public announcement of the date of such meeting is first made. The notice must contain specified information about each nominee or the proposed business and the stockholder making the nomination or proposal.

In the event that the number of directors to be elected to the Board of Directors is increased and there is no public announcement naming all of the nominees for director or specifying the size of the increased Board of Directors made by the Company at least 70 days prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting, a stockholder's notice will be considered timely, but only with respect to nominees for any new positions created by such increase, if the notice is delivered to the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Company not later than the close of business on the 10th day following the day on which such public announcement is first made by the Company.

Based upon an anticipated meeting date of May 31, 2007 for the 2007 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, a qualified stockholder intending to introduce a proposal or nominate a director at the 2007 Annual Meeting of Stockholders should give written notice to the Company's Secretary not later than April 2, 2007 and not earlier than March 2, 2007.

The advance notice provisions in the Company's Bylaws also provide that, in the case of a special meeting of stockholders called for the purpose of electing one or more directors, a stockholder may nominate a person or persons (as the case may be) for election to such position if the stockholder's notice is delivered to the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Company not earlier than the 90th day prior to the special meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the 60th day prior to the special meeting or the 10th day following the day on which public announcement is first made of the date of the special meeting and of the nominees proposed by the Board of Directors to be elected at such meeting.

The specific requirements of these advance notice and eligibility provisions are set forth in Article II, Section 12 of the Company's Bylaws, a copy of which is available upon request.

Such requests and any stockholder proposals should be sent to the Secretary of the Company at 300 One Jackson Place, 188 East Capitol Street, Jackson, Mississippi 39201.
