Edgar Filing: BRAVO FOODS INTERNATIONAL CORP - Form 8-K

On July 27, 2006, the Company issued $30 million Senior Convertible Notes (the "Notes"), due 2010, with a 9% annual coupon. Fifteen million ($15,000,000) dollars of the total invested amount was placed in escrow for future release, pending the occurrence of certain defined events. Pursuant to the terms of the transaction documents relating to the Notes, the Company has agreed to file in a timely manner all reports required, under circumstances set forth in such documents, to be filed with the SEC.

On August 21, 2006, the Company was unable to file its Form 10-QSB for the quarterly period ended June 30, 2006 due to recent objections received by the Staff of the Securities and Exchange Commission related to the valuation model it had selected to value certain derivative financial instruments in its financial statements. The Company is in the process of implementing a more suitable valuation model for these instruments. The resulting adjustments will be non-cash and will not impact the operating results of the Company. However, as a result of the time required to implement the new valuation model, the Company has not filed its Form 10-QSB by August 21, 2006, the last day of the extended period for filing pursuant to Rule 12b-25 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

As a result the Company's non-filing of its Form 10-QSB for the quarterly period ended June 30, 2006, an event of default has occurred under the terms of the Notes and the interest rate on the Notes, payable quarterly, was increased from 9% to 14% per annum.

Pursuant to the terms of the Notes, upon the occurrence of an event of default, holders of the Notes may, upon written notice to the Company, each require the Company to redeem all or any portion of their Notes, at a default redemption price calculated pursuant to the terms of the Notes.

On August 21, 2006, the Company issued a press release reporting on the status of its SEC filings and the Notes. A copy of the press release is attached as Exhibit 99.1, and the information in Exhibit 99.1 is incorporated herein by reference.
