NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

WEYERHAEUSER RAISES OFFER FOR WILLAMETTE TO $55 PER SHARE

FEDERAL WAY, Wash., December 13, 2001 - Weyerhaeuser Company (NYSE: WY) today announced that it has increased the price of its fully financed cash tender offer for all outstanding shares of Willamette Industries (NYSE: WLL) common stock to $55 per share from $50 per share. Weyerhaeuser disclosed the increased offer price in a letter sent today to the board of directors of Willamette from Steven R. Rogel, Weyerhaeuser chairman, president and chief executive officer. The full text of the letter follows:

December 13, 2001

Board of Directors
Willamette Industries, Inc.
1300 Southwest Fifth Avenue
Portland, Oregon 97201

Dear Board Members:

Weyerhaeuser Company has carefully considered the possible combination of Willamette with the building products business of Georgia-Pacific. Based on our knowledge of the Georgia-Pacific businesses, we believe that such a transaction will result in significant value destruction for Willamette shareholders. There is no benefit to our publicly debating the clearly differing views we have about the merits of the building products business of Georgia-Pacific and the potential value to Willamette shareholders of Willamette's acquisition of that business. We had the opportunity to acquire this Georgia-Pacific business, and declined to do so.

As you know, Weyerhaeuser has a fully financed all-cash offer for all the outstanding common stock of Willamette, and we have repeatedly stated that we are prepared to increase our offer to promptly consummate a mutually beneficial transaction. To date, you have refused to explore the price we are willing to pay. On the other hand, you are pursuing a transaction with Georgia-Pacific that would preclude consummation of our offer.

The Weyerhaeuser Board of Directors has authorized me to make our best and final offer for Willamette. Accordingly, Weyerhaeuser is today increasing its offer to $55 per share for all the outstanding common stock of Willamette. This is a full and fair, premium price for Willamette that gives your shareholders full credit for all your value-enhancing initiatives.

Our offer is not a negotiating tactic; it represents the absolute maximum price we are prepared to pay for Willamette. We believe that the combination of our two companies will provide the best value your shareholders can expect today or in the future and will provide that value with certainty. We are a disciplined buyer and will not overpay for Willamette nor acquire an entity created through the combination of Willamette and the building products business of Georgia-Pacific. Accordingly, if Willamette rejects our proposal and consummates a transaction involving the Georgia-Pacific building products business, we will withdraw our offer.

Sincerely yours,

/s/ Steven R. Rogel

Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer

Weyerhaeuser added that the revised tender offer for all outstanding shares of Willamette remains scheduled to expire on January 9, 2002 at 12:00 midnight New York City time.
