PART III
NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period. (Attach extra sheets if needed).

Alere Inc. (the "Company") is unable to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2015 within the prescribed time period without unreasonable effort or expense because the Company is conducting an analysis of certain aspects of revenue recognition in Africa and China and any potential implications on our evaluation of internal controls over financial reporting for the year ended December 31, 2015. The Company's goal is to file the Form 10-K within the fifteen-day extension period. The Company will not announce its financial results for the fiscal quarter and fiscal year ended December 31, 2015 until the Company is prepared to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K.

The Company received a subpoena from the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") on January 14, 2016 in connection with the previously disclosed formal SEC investigation which requested, among other things, additional information related to sales of products and services to end-users in Africa, as well as revenue recognition relating to sales of products and services to end-users in Africa.

This Form 12b-25 contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Readers can identify these statements by forward-looking words such as "may," "could," "should," "would," "intend," "will," "expect," "anticipate," "believe," "estimate," "continue," "goal" or similar words. A number of important factors could cause actual results of Alere and its subsidiaries to differ materially from those indicated by such forward-looking statements. These factors include, but are not limited to, (i) the risk that the review discussed above is not completed in a timely manner; (ii) the possibility that the review discussed above uncovers an error or errors in revenue recognition which require adjustment, which may be material; (iii) the risk that these or other risk factors impact the expected timing of the filing of the Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015 and (iv) the risk factors detailed in Part I, Item 1A, "Risk Factors" of our Annual Report on Form 10-K, as amended, for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014 (as filed with the SEC on March 5, 2015, as amended on April 30, 2015, May 28, 2015 and November 13, 2015) and other risk factors identified herein or from time to time in our periodic filings with the SEC. Readers should carefully review these risk factors, and should not place undue reliance on our forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are based on information, plans, goals, and estimates at the date of this report. We undertake no obligation to update any forward-looking statements to reflect changes in underlying assumptions or factors, new information, future events or other changes.
