PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 11-K, 20-F, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

On June 27, 2005, HealthSouth Corporation (the "Company") filed its comprehensive Annual Report on Form 10-K ("2003 Annual Report") with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") containing consolidated financial statements for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002 and a restatement of its previously issued consolidated financial statements for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2001 and 2000.

The forensic review and reconstruction of the Company's historical financial statements required substantial resources of the Company. The Company is currently in the process of preparing its financial statements with respect to fiscal year ended December 31, 2004. As a result of the foregoing, the Company is unable to complete the preparation of its financial statements for the period ended June 30, 2005 and, therefore, will not be able to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended June 30, 2005 on a timely basis. The Company currently expects to complete the preparation of its financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004 and file its 2004 Annual Report on Form 10-K relating thereto in the fourth quarter of 2005. The comprehensive 2003 Annual Report included a number of identified material weaknesses which the Company continues to remediate; however, since certain identified material weaknesses were not remediated as of December 31, 2004, the Company expects to report such material weaknesses in its 2004 Annual Report on Form 10-K.

If the answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes No

As previously indicated in its Notifications of Late Filing on Form 12b-25, the Company was unable to timely file the following reports for substantially the same reasons as set forth in Part III above: (i) its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the periods ended March 31, 2003, 2004 and 2005; (ii) its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the periods ended June 30, 2003 and 2004; (iii) its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the periods ended September 30, 2003 and 2004; and (iv) its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2002, 2003 and 2004. As reported above, the Company filed a comprehensive 2003 Annual Report on Form 10-K with the SEC on June 27, 2005. The comprehensive 2003 Annual Report contained the required financial statements for the periods ended December 31, 2002 and 2003. The Company has not filed any of the previously described Quarterly Reports, nor did it include the required quarterly information in the comprehensive 2003 Annual Report filed with the SEC on June 27, 2005.

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes No

If so: attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

For the reasons set forth in Part III above, the Company is unable to determine the extent of any such change in its results of operations pending completion of the Company's financial statements to be included in its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended June 30, 2005.
