NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(UNAUDITED)

1. ORGANIZATION AND BUSINESS DESCRIPTION

United National Film Corp. ("the Company") is a Colorado corporation. The Company is engaged in the acquisition and development of properties for, and the production of, television series, television specials, made-for-home television motion pictures and feature length motion pictures for domestic and international distribution.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

A. Accounting Estimates - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that effect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

B. Film Costs and Program Rights - Film costs and program rights ("project cost") which include acquisition and development costs such as story rights, scenario and scripts, direct production costs including salaries and costs of talent, production overhead and post-production costs are deferred and amortized by the "individual-film-forecast-computation method" as required by Statement of Financial Standards No. 53.

C. Fair Value of Financial Instruments - The carrying amounts reported in the balance sheet for cash, accounts and notes payable and accrued expenses approximate fair value based on the short term maturity of these instruments.

D. Cash Equivalents - The Company considers all highly liquid temporary cash investments, with an original maturity of three months or less when purchased, to be cash equivalents.

E. Revenue Recognition - The Company derived revenues primarily from providing production services to third parties and exploiting projects originally developed by the Company in which it retains an ownership interest. Revenues from being a provider of contract production services are recognized using the percentage of completion method, recognizing revenue relative to the proportionate progress on such contracts as measured by the ratio which project costs incurred by the Company to date bear to the total anticipated costs of each project. Amounts advanced under such contracts are deferred and not recognized as revenue until obligations under such contracts are performed.

3. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

None.

4. NOTES PAYABLE

Pursuant to the acquisition of the screenplay titled, "Molly and Lawless John", a note was issued for $50,000 which was due on January 15, 1999. The payment date on this note has been indefinitely extended by the holder of the note.

5. LOANS DUE TO SHAREHOLDER

In April 1999, a non-interest bearing loan was made to the Company from the Chief Executive Officer in the amount of $1,500. This note remains outstanding.

6. STOCK ISSUED.

100,000 shares of common stock were issued to Richard J. Hockert, Esq., in exchange for legal services.

7. GENERAL

Reference is made to the financial statements included in the Company's Annual Report (Form 10-K) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission for the year ended June 30, 2000.

The Company began its operation in February 1998. The financial statements for the period ended December 31, 1999 are unaudited but include all adjustments which, in the opinion of management, are necessary for a fair presentation of the results of operations for the period then ended. All such adjustments are of a normal recurring nature. The results of the Company's operations for any interim period are not necessarily indicative of the results of the Company's operations for a full fiscal year.

ITEM 2: MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The Company is a development stage enterprise with no expenses incurred during the period. The Company is engaged in active negotiations with a potential funding source for one or more of its screenplays. In addition, the Company is continuing to seek funding for the distribution of its children's animation film, "Snappy Sings", an educational short. The Company is exploring the licensing of film rights to Internet broadcasting companies and has discussed through third parties the suitability of several films in the Western genre to which the Company has access. Funding for the Company is expected to take place during the year 2000.

PART II - OTHER INFORMATION

Item 1. Legal Proceedings

The Company has initiated legal proceedings to cancel certain stock certificates. The basis of the lawsuit is the failure of the recipients of the stock certificates to deliver consideration for the shares. Settlement negotiations relating to the lawsuit are in progress. The company anticipates that the lawsuit will be settled during the next fiscal year.
